

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Fifteenth Annual Convention

OF THE

DIOCESE OF OREGON

The Bishop's Address

My Brethren of the Convention—We come together here for the business of our Fifteenth Diocesan Convention with fewer changes than common in the staff of our Clergy. There has been no name taken from the list the past year, and but one added—that of the Rev. L. M. Idleman, from the Diocese of Colorado, who took charge of the work at Ashland and Medford immediately after the adjournment of our last Convention. We hear a good deal about what is thought to be the unnecessary removal of the Clergy from Parish to Parish, and Diocese to Diocese, but in looking over our Clerical list, I think it will be found that the average length of our Rectorships is better than that of the Church at large. Something quite commendable in a new and unsettled country like Oregon.

While I have to record the death of no Clergyman, I have to notice that of the wife of one of long connection with our Diocese. On the thirteenth of February, Mrs. D. E. Loveridge, of Eugene City, departed this life for that life eternal, prepared for all the true Disciples of the Lord Jesus. The Vestry of St. Mary's Church while putting on record their testimony to her virtues, say: "We shall miss from our number one in whom the Christian character and gentleness of heart were nobly exemplified. Her ambition was to do her Master's will. She has left behind seed planted in the Lord's Vineyard, that will bloom and blossom to her reward in Paradise. She has heard the 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant.'"

We surely all join with his Vestry in extending to this bereaved brother the expression of our "sorrow and sympathy, and our prayers that God in His infinite mercy will sustain and strengthen, and give him courage to continue in the preaching of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, in which he has been so faithful in the past.

Taking up matters concerning progress and improvement in the year's work, I begin, as usual, with such in and about the City of Portland. Dr. Van Waters writes me:

"Since our last Convention, St. David's Church has been made ready for occupancy. The first opening Service was held on the first Sunday of the year, January the fourth.

"The main portion of the auditorium has been furnished with appropriate sittings. Carpeting has been laid in the chancel and central aisle. The memorial windows, of what is now our Parish House, have been placed in the new Church. We have a handsome credence table, lectern and chancel rail, all richly carved in oak, the work of our Parish organizations. The Davenport Trustees have made a most generous contribution towards the erection of a massive, and beautifully-designed oak Reredos, a memorial to the late George R. Vosburg. The past year has witnessed great progress on the interior finishing and furnishing of our Church. Contributions generally and generously made by our people and others have made these improvements possible. Much remains to be done. But the work will, no doubt, go on. Our hope is in God and in the co-operation of His people.

"Some visible fruit of our labor is seen in Sunday school attendance and in Church congregations, which are twice as large as they were before the occupancy of the new Church.

"But we have to reflect that our responsibility to the community and to Almighty God is increased at least two-fold."

ST. MATTHEW'S CHAPEL.

The Rev. Mr. Breck, whose residence and central field of work is at St. Matthew's Chapel, writes me as follows:

"The growth of St. Matthew's, Portland, both materially and spiritually, has been very encouraging.

"The number baptized has more than doubled, and the number of Communicants increased more than one-fourth. Our Sunday morning congregations, as well as offerings have doubled. Besides reducing our debt by $252.00, we have laid 62 feet of cement sidewalk on First street, and celled our Guild Hall in wood. A branch of the Ladies' Auxiliary has been formed, giving over $9.00 to missions, and a box valued at $15 to the Bishop Rowe Hospital, at Skagway, Alaska.

Beside St. Matthew's Chapel Mr. Breck has a pretty wide outside missionary field, of which he says:

CHRIST CHURCH, ST. HELENS.

"Has more than held its own. The attendance upon services has been gratifying, and the offerings increased one-third.

"Services have been started at four points in Multnomah County, namely: Gresham, Troutdale, Rockwood and Fairview.

"At Gresham, 13 miles east of Portland, four services have been held and two adults confirmed.

"Rockwood is 10 miles east of Portland; Fairview 13, and Troutdale 15 miles. At all of these points we have a few families of the Church, and the services have caused many to inquire about the Church and her ways."

ST. JOHN'S MEMORIAL, SELLWOOD.

It is reported to me that the condition of this Mission is, perhaps, more encouraging than it has been for some years. The Church building has been made comfortable and attractive by thoroughly renovating the furnace, painting the exterior, freshly tinting the walls, and replacing the coal oil lamps with electric burners.

The Sunday School keeps up its numbers and interest, and at a recent visit of the Bishop, three of its members were among the class presented for confirmation.

The Woman's Guild and the Daughters of St. John have done faithful and harmonious work during the year, and give promise of even more and better service in the future. Services have been regularly held each Lord's Day in the evening, and twice on the first Sunday of the month, when the Holy Communion is administered. There has been an increase in attendance and offerings at these services, yet there is room for a vast improvement along both lines. Since Rev. Mr. Powell resumed charge of the work he has spent a good deal of time in house to house visiting, thus making himself and his work known to more than one hundred families, many of whom never enter a house of worship. If he does not grow weary of hard work, small pay, and short returns, by God's blessing the reward will surely come.

CHURCH OF OUR SAVIOUR.

A new work, of much interest and promise, has been undertaken in a southeastern suburb of the city, known as Woodstock, which has a history worth recording. The Evangelical Association had a good Church building, seating one hundred persons, in a beautiful and growing part of the city, which cost them $1,700, on a corner lot of the main street, 100 feet square: well furnished with seats, stove, lamps and an organ, which they offered to sell us for $1,000, payable in annual sums of $100. Though this property was offered to us on such favorable terms, it was still a serious question whether I could venture upon its purchase for $1,000, until a gentleman in Portland without solicitation, offered $25.00 toward the payment of the first hundred, and a friend in the East sent me $150—also unasked for. To this good beginning I added $75.00 from my Diocesan funds, and we are now in possession of the property, with one-quarter of the purchase price paid—at the cost of only $75.00 to the Diocese.

Mr. Courtland Parker, one of our Lay Readers, was willing to undertake a Sunday School and lay services there and it seemed to me and other friends of Missiory work, an opportunity that should not be neglected. The Church building is in one of the most beautiful parts of the city, bound in a few years to have thousands of people within easy distance, and there is every prospect of a growing work.

Our first service here was held on the morning of the third Sunday after Epiphany, when the first lesson, from the fifty-fourth chapter of Isaiah, at the second verse, read as follows: "Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thy habitation; spare not, lengthen thy cords and strengthen thy stakes; for thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left, and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited." Though this is a modest and humble work, still with its Sunday School and regular Sunday morning congregation it has a very promising beginning, illustrating what faithful lay services might accomplish in many other places throughout the Diocese. Mr. Parker reports a Sunday School with 73 names on its roll; four teachers and a Bible class of 15 members, a Woman's Guild; and says that the conditions of the work are in "every way encouraging."

ALL SAINTS' MISSION.

At All Saints', the chief event of the year was the consecration of the Church on the last Sunday in June—St. Peter's Day—by the Bishop of the Diocese. The Rev. Mr. Short, of Astoria, was the preacher. On the evening of the same day, Bishop Keator, of Olympia, preached to a large congregation, closing the services of a day long looked forward to. At these services the sum of one hundred dollars was raised toward a fund for the endowment of the Mission, and it is hoped to add to this amount year by year until a fair endowment has been insured. Encouraged by these things the people of the Mission have worked faithfully and enthusiastically, and many things have been done, both for the furthering of the work and the beauty of the Church. Through the kindness of the trustees of the Davenport fund, it has been possible to place in the Church a fine carved oak lectern. Other friends have assisted in the purchase of a larger and more powerful organ. We have received, through the Diocesan Needlework Society, a beautiful set of green Altar hangings. New cassocks and cottas have been made for the members of the choir. The choir of men has grown in numbers and improved very much in its rendering of music. Through the work of the choir, largely, the attendance at the services has been improved. Of things of deeper moment may be mentioned the faithfulness of the choir members, the confirmation of three of their number, and the prospect of the confirmation of yet other members in the near future. The earnest work of the women of the Mission also deserves mention; but above all is to be noted the increased and reverent attendance upon the Holy Communion. A class of 10 was lately confirmed, and a few persons, moving into the neighborhood, have been added to the congregation from other Parishes.

The work of the Kindergarten has gone faithfully on, about 76 children having been enrolled during the year. The work, however, has been somewhat hampered on account of epidemics of children's diseases.

The Reading Room has continued its usefulness—the addition of a Pianola adding greatly to the attractiveness of the Room. Indeed, the room has become so much a part of the life of some of the young men, that at this writing numbers are still in attendance each evening, while in former years it was seldom that anyone appeared after the first of May. The quiet progress of the Mission in the past year encourages us to look for a steady growth in the future.

EASTERN OREGON.

Looking out into that large section of the Diocese east of the Cascades, I notice first, the progress in Mr. Lake's field in and about The Dalles. He writes me as follows:

"At The Dalles we have had a prosperous year. All our expenses have been met, and a part of our indebtedness has been paid. The congregations have fully held their own, and the outlook for the next year is favorable in every way.

"At Hood River the Church work is most encouraging. A lot valued at $350.00 has been given by Captain H. C. Coe, and Church building to cost from $1,000 to $1,200 will be erected this summer. Sufficient funds to warrant the letting of the contract are "in sight." Delay has been caused by looking for a suitable plan.

"Hood River is an important point for our Church work. The valley is filling up rapidly with newcomers, many of whom are our own people. I look to see a good Parish at Hood River before many years.

"Work at Antelope, Hay Creek and Prineville is in much the same condition as last year. Services beyond Antelope have been interrupted by impassable roads during the winter, and by smallpox this spring. The prospect is hopeful. It is not advisable to erect permanent buildings just now, owing to the uncertainty as to where railroad building will locate the towns.

"Prineville ought to have a Church and a Clergyman at once. The whole country around that place will have a marvelous development within the next 10 years. Even now there is ample work for one Clergyman, and I believe a large part of his support could be secured from his field.

"Classes were confirmed at Hay Creek and Antelope this last Fall by Bishop Wells. Others will be ready this year. Also at The Dalles and Hood River a number were confirmed."

HEPPNER.

Mr. Potwine writes me:

"Two weeks ago our work at this point was represented by a substantial frame-built Church, set on a solid stone foundation, located on the best residence street in the place and well equipped for its various uses.

"Today the site is as bare as the street, and the Church torn into kindling wood and scattered over some miles of country below. Not a solitary thing has been recovered from the wreck save the mutilated bodies of one-fourth of the congregation and the brass Altar-Cross, scattered over some miles of lowland. The bodies of 15 of our former members, who were killed, have been laid in their last resting place, beside those of some 200 others that were recovered from the debris.

"The destruction of this plant and the appalling loss of life was, as you know, the result of the terrible flood of water that swept down the canyon of Willow Creek, on the evening of June 14th. In less than 10 minutes the work of years was obliterated, and the lives of many of our Church people choked out in the raging torrent of muddy waters. The desolation is well nigh indescribable, and the effect of the catastrophe has been that of a stunning blow. The gloom of grief over the loss of so many lives has naturally overshadowed every other loss, and the wrecking of the Church at first seems but a minor matter.

"Eventually, however, all losses will be estimated at their true value, and that of our Church will not be overlooked. We must try to rebuild, at first on a small scale, and with as little outlay as possible, but with a view to continuing the ministrations that have been so signally blessed heretofore. Meanwhile we shall hold our services in such other places of worship as are available. We bespeak the prayers of the faithful for the blessing of God upon our purpose."

THE COVE AND UNION.

Since Mr. Harris' resignation of this Mission in March of last year, we have been able to supply these places with only occasional and irregular services. A month ago I thought I had certainly secured the permanent services of a most desirable Clergyman, but sickness in his family prevented his undertaking the work. It is a Mission of growing importance, in a beautiful and most fertile country, and has the adjoining county of Wallowa, a little more than twice as large as the State of Rhode Island, with a wide open door for very inviting Church work.

Our Diocesan Missionary spent two Sundays at Cove and Union recently, and reports that "the outlook is most hopeful there, provided a resident Clergyman can soon be sent to rejuvenate and build up both Church and School. The Church edifice is in good condition, being one of the best among the rural Parishes, with its memorial windows and churchly appointments. The people are anxious for a Clergyman, and hope that the girls' School may be revived again. At present Miss Wills, of Pendleton, is holding a summer school in the small school building. The Rectory is in fair condition and the Missionary's impressions are that the Cove Church and School property is second to none in the Diocese, and if under capable leadership, he feels that no field in Oregon could be more attractive, and, sooner or later none more valuable in a financial sense. As a place of residence, with its 100 acres of land, its charming location and other natural advantages, the Cove is, par excellence, the garden spot of Oregon."

It is known, of course, to many of you, that Mr. Samuel G. French, left a bequest of $5,000 to the Bishop of the Diocese, for the support of the Minister of Ascension Church, who is to reside at the Cove. It has happened that two years have passed without our having a resident Minister there, while the income from this endowment has been carefully reserved, and the fund, according to the last report from the Portland Trust Company, now amounts to $6,039.00, which will in some measure make up for the unavoidable decrease in the rate of interest.

BAKER CITY.

The Rev. Mr. Corbett says that on his "coming as first Rector of the newly-formed Parish last July, the work of the necessary renovation of the Church edifice, and the general improvement of the Parish property was at once commenced. The Church was removed some sixty-five feet north from its original position, repaired and wired for electric lighting at a cost of about $734.

"The Church property now presents a neat and compact appearance. In the way of organization and definite Parish work, many who have long been among the 'lapsed,' have been restored to Church fellowship. The pledge list has been advanced by about $150. The Parish is now in a state of excellent organization.

"Some, including two Romanists, are inquiring respecting our branch of the Church, and on Trinity Sunday, I received into its membership a lady from the Universalist denomination."

SUMPTER MISSION, BAKER COUNTY.

The Rev. Mr. Goodheart writes me of his interesting field in the mountains of Eastern Oregon:

"It is just one year since I left Canyon City to take up the work here in Sumpter. Looking back upon the closing year and realizing what, by the grace of God, has been accomplished, I cannot refrain from lifting up my voice in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God, for what He has enabled us to do in this part of His Vineyard.

"A year ago we had no Church, no organization and no property in this locality. The Episcopal Church, on the whole, was an unknown quantity. There was an abundance of raw material to work upon, however, and we began from the very foundations. There were, and there are now, many difficulties and hardships to contend with. The greatest, of course, is the multitude's utter indifference to the Church and sacred things. But, remembering the Apostle's motto, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me," we began the work, and, lo! at the end of 12 months we find ourselves fairly well established here, and owning four separate buildings, including a fine, double-brick building, amounting in all, to the value of $6,000.00!"

"There is one building I wish to make particular mention of, and that is the 'Free Reading Room and Club House' which we have just finished in connection with our Church work here.

"Sumpter is purely and pre-eminently a mining camp, with hundreds of men who are working underground in the mines. There are plenty of saloons and dance-halls, gambling dens and houses of ill-fame. The men, after the day's work is over, having no decent place to go to, are forced to spend their nights in the saloons and worse places, and are thus ruined in body and soul.

"This 'Free Reading Room and Club House' is designed to remedy the evil. This comfortable and spacious building is amply provided with prominent daily papers, the best magazines, good, substantial books and a variety of nice, clean games, including ping-pong, chess, checkers, etc. The building is fitted up with electric lights, with city water and a free bath-room, with hot and cold water. Everything is perfectly free to all who wish to come. This will enable the men not only to spend their evenings in a clean, healthy atmosphere, but will go a long way towards elevating and educating those who shall frequent the place—and there will be many to do that.

"The good that such an institution is bound to do cannot be estimated by man. God alone will know this. But we rejoice to know that our hands have helped to bring this splendid and much-needed institution into existence and we pray that God may mightily bless our efforts to the betterment of our fellow-men

"During the past year services have been maintained here and in other places around here, several children have been baptized and the Holy Communion has been administered, both here and elsewhere.

"This being a mining town the obstacles and difficulties attending Church work are somewhat different from those obtaining elsewhere. The people are so elusive. Now you have them and now you don't have them. They are simply transients, and one feels as if he is constantly preaching to a procession. But the work of the Church must go on, and we are hoping and praying for brighter days and larger fruits for those who shall come after us."

There are other points of interest in Eastern Oregon to which we might well give attention if time would allow, but which we must pass by for the present.

In round numbers, two-thirds of the territory of our Diocese lies east of the Cascade Mountains, and makes a country of 66,000 square miles—one-third larger than the great State of New York, and twice as large as the large State of Maine. And in all this wide section of country, we now have five Clergymen—one at The Dalles, Pendleton, La Grande, Baker City and Sumpter.

Thirty years ago this whole territory was largely occupied by hostile Indians; but they have been subdued or removed, and the railroad magnates are now planning for its control, and a few years will show a marvelous development and increase of population in this land of wonderful resources. For here, as elsewhere, "the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of Light." Now is the time for the Church to be sowing the seed and laying the foundations for the future glorious work, which the Providence of God is here placing within her reach.

SALEM.

Coming back to the western side of the Diocese, I have a few lines from Mr. Concy, concerning the work in his field. He says:

"During the past year St. Paul's Parish, Salem, has had the Church and Rectory thoroughly renovated and a concrete walk laid around the property. The floor of the Church has been newly carpeted, a new heater has been put in the Church, and a handsome carved oak litany desk added to the Church furniture. Several gifts have been made for the Altar.

"The credit for the renovation of the Church property is largely due to the Woman's Guild.

"About $200.00 has been pledged to the organ fund.

"Our chapter of the Woman's Auxiliary meets monthly and discusses missionary topics.

"We have had no infant baptisms during the past year for the reason that we have no infants. There has not been a birth in the Parish for the past two years. Notwithstanding that we have lost by removal, several good subscribers, there has been some increase in the special offerings."

THE WELLSDALE MISSION.

There is a new enterprise in Mr. MacLean's Mission that is worthy of notice. Last Fall, we were asked to purchase the Church building belonging to the Evangelical Association at Wellsdale, a little village 12 miles north of Corvallis, where Mr. MacLean had been holding services for a year or more. The Church building is on a corner lot, 100 feet square, a block from the Southern Pacific Railway station, and in the center of one of the richest farming communities in the Willamette Valley. With the exception of one Baptist place of worship in the country, three miles distant, in which service is held but twice a month, the nearest Church of any denomination is 11 miles distant; Corvallis, 12 miles southward; King's Valley, westward 11 miles; Independence, northward 12 miles; Albany, eastward 11 miles. A more inviting Missionary field would be hard to find. This Church is the center of this field, which cost $1,125 without the lot, and was offered to us for $350.00, with a year's time in which to raise the money.

Three hundred of this has already been paid, and we believe the remaining $50 will be forthcoming by the time it is due.

Mr. MacLean writes as follows of his field in general, with special reference to Wellsdale:

"During the Convention year just ended, I conducted weekly Sunday services at Albany and Corvallis until the first Sunday in Lent, when I put Wellsdale on the weekly list. Since then my Sunday work has been three preaching services and two Sunday Schools—five services.

"In attendance on worship and instruction, and in the material results of Christian life the Church at Albany has, during the year, about held its own.

"I cannot overestimate or commend too highly, the loyalty and devotion of the handful of women who, by their moral and financial assistance, made it more than possible to keep the Church open during the year. From the Sanctuary to the porch the Church has been kept, from week to week, such as a place of Divine worship and religious instruction should be—a most inviting place.

"How different the conditions at Corvallis! I should utterly have fainted, and given up in despair at this point but for my sense of the responsibilities of the 'Watchman,' and my steadfast belief in the faithfulness of Him who caused to be written, "O, tarry thou the Lord's leisure; be strong and He shall comfort thine heart; and put thou thy trust in the Lord." "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy, etc."

"At Wellsdale the work is going on quietly. The congregations, made up principally of 'outsiders,' are fluctuating—sometimes quite small, sometimes very encouraging. The seed sown here will not produce in a day; but must be cultivated with much patience and many prayers.

"As a Missionary field none can be more inviting, none more needy than that of which Wellsdale is the center. The people are kind in their way; but religiously, suspicious and can be reached only by untold patience and infinite kindness.

"My cyclometer shows that during the bicycle season of 1902 and of the present year up to date, I wheeled, in the prosecution of my work, 1414 miles—about 150 miles a month. Of course, I employed railroad service, on account of ease and cheapness, when I could, and livery on account of expense, when I must."

ROSEBURG.

Mr. Dawson writes: "The work in Roseburg is more prosperous now than at any time during my residence of almost six years.

"While we have suffered a great deal by removals, others have come to take their places.

"Our Church property was in a very dilapidated condition and with the help that our faithful band of workers received from the outside, for which we are very grateful, our property has been either rebuilt or renovated. At present the Church inside and out, as well as the exterior of the Rectory, is being painted, which will add greatly to the appearance and value of our property.

"Our Ladies' Guild has pledged itself to meet the expense and by a rousing effort will endeavor to liquidate the indebtedness.

COTTAGE GROVE.

"During the past year regular services have been held in the lower part of the Masonic Hall, twice monthly.

"With the exception of a couple of services held a year apart, our Church was unknown save in name.

"The attendance at the services fluctuates a great deal, as only the most interested care to come regularly to week evening services. Since our going to the Grove this year, there have been two baptisms and three confirmations.

"At one time it was thought possible to erect a modest little Church, but finding it would cost more than we anticipated, and fearing removals, felt it would be very unwise to burden our small band of communicants with a debt that might take years to wipe out, so we decided to worship as we do now until our organization is more complete and better equipped.

"With the new railroad being pushed to Bohemia and so many mines being opened up and the saw mills and logging camps near by all tend to confirm the opinion that Cottage Grove is too important a center to be overlooked by our Church.

"Time and money will be needed to give the proper start. If Cottage Grove is cared for after the preliminary stages, it will be necessary for a resident Missionary to be stationed here."

GRANT'S PASS.

Mr. Daughters writes: "I presume Grant's Pass affords no exception to general Missionary work. Every day brings its discouragements until we all but despair of ever accomplishing any permanent results, but by reviewing the year's work one is much encouraged and we have now two or three organizations of young people which interest no less than 12 boys and, perhaps, 22 girls to the extent of becoming active workers.

"They are the main hope we have for the Church in Grant's Pass. However, we have a faithful band of women of about 20, who are devoted church women. God only knows what would become of His Church without the women. Yes, we have some five or six men who may always be found in the Vineyard.

"I have never been in any locality where the Church had so much promise as in our town. As we must depend so much on the young, our exchequer is usually depleted. Still this year our work indicates considerably over twice as much money received as ever before and we still trust in God and our Bishop; in God for His mercy and in the Bishop for his encouragement."

THE ROGUE RIVER VALLEY.

Mr. Idleman writes as follows of his Mission, in the extreme southern part of the Diocese:

"The work in the Upper Rogue River Valley shows signs of renewed activity. This is one of the most important fields in the Diocese; situated as it is in the largest and richest fruit belt in the state, being the distributing depot for supplies for the Klamath country, also a terminal of one of the stage lines running into that country; being contiguous to rich mining interests, containing one of the division points of the Southern Pacific Railroad, and having a climate equal to any on the Coast. All these things cannot but attract a large number of home and wealth seekers, and hence, the importance of firmly establishing the Church there now, so that not only may the incoming communicants of the Church readily find a home, but also that it may attract others into its folds and thus exert as great an influence as possible upon that community.

"At the present time there is a good beginning. One of the most encouraging features in the future outlook is the deep interest taken in the work by those who have no affiliation with any religious society. Perhaps one-third of the subscribers to the support of the work and more than one-half of the members of the Ladies' Guild belong to this class, and two have been led to confirmation by the influence of the Guild to which they belonged.

"The spiritual side of the Church is also taking on new life as is manifested by the increased attendance at the services, especially during Lent and the larger number at the celebrations of Holy Communion.

"Much work has also been done by the communicants in persuading others to seek Christ and His Kingdom at the time of forming of confirmation classes. At Ashland four, and at Medford eight were added to our number by confirmation.

"The most discouraging part of the work is the transitory character of the population. This is owing to the great number of railroad people resident with us, who may be removed at a few days notice.

"The financial condition, it is reported, has never been better and in another year the two places will be entirely self-supporting.

"Much has been done in the way of improvement to the buildings. At Ashland electric lights and fixtures have been put into the Church; a credence table and hymn tablet have been added to the furniture and many repairs have been made.

"At Medford a side street has been graded and put in traveling condition; a new organ has been put into the Church and paid for; a handsome set of red hangings has been presented by St. Mark's Guild, and money is on hand now to raise the Church building and put it on a sound foundation.

"The assessment for 1902-03 has been met, and $11.00 of debt for Convention fund and Episcopal assessment has been paid by Ashland, and $9.00 back debt for the same purpose by Medford. There is not one cent of debt upon either Church.

"Taken altogether the prospects are most flattering and much may be expected from the Upper Rogue River Valley."

LOWER COLUMBIA.

The Rev. Mr. Short writes of his field: "Developments have taken place all along the line in this region; the field is growing whiter each week.

"At Holy Innocents' the services and Sunday School are well attended. The Guilds in a most flourishing condition, are raising funds for our new Church, which will be erected just as soon as we can turn some of our two or three blocks of land into cash.

"Negotiations are pending for the purpose of moving St. Thomas', Skipanon, nearer Warrenton, where most of the congregation reside.

"At Calvary Chapel, Seaside, a new vestry-room, chancel and rail are being built; and with the new altar and hangings—passed on from Grace Church, Astoria, the interior already presents a new and churchly appearance. Two estimable ladies here have secured subscriptions to the amount of $20.00 per month for the support of a Missionary at this point.

"A service was recently held at Hammond by the Rector of Grace Church, Astoria, at which the Methodist Church building was crowded with a fair attendance of officers and men from Ft. Stevens.

"Here the Church has some five or six communicants, and at Ft. Stevens as many more. The officers at the Fort have generously pledged $15.00 a month for the support of a Missionary of the Church, who will give them a regular Sunday service.

"We are corresponding with a Missionary of some experience at the present time, who holds out a hope that he will come and take charge by the first of August.

"What we should like to see would be a Clergyman, who could speak Finn, Swedish, Norwegian, German and Danish, or better still, five men—one for each of these peoples—to minister to these various nationalities, whose peoples make up the bulk of our population here in Northwestern Oregon.

"I wish that some devout and wealthy member of the Church would supply me with Prayer Books printed in these various tongues, that her leaves might be scattered in their vast reaches, for the healing of the nations.

"Shall we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high;
Shall we to men benighted,
The Lamp of Life deny?"

SCHOOLS

SAINT HELEN'S HALL.

The total number of pupils enrolled in this School during the year 1902-03 is 151, of whom 60 have been boarders.

The Music Department has numbered 92: piano, 64; vocal, 24; violin, 3; mandolin, 1.

The Boarding Department has been, beyond precedent, free from fluctuation, the places of the one or two who entered for one term only, being promptly taken by others entering in January, and, as a consequence, the income of the School has advanced one-fifth upon that of last year.

The renting of the old Saint Helen's Hall, on Twelfth and Main, and consequent removal of the Kindergarten to King's Hill has caused a diminution of pupils in this department for the time, but only for a time it is believed, for the new street-car line, now in process of construction up Ford street, will practically remove the objection to the hill now felt by careful mothers.

The Primary Department has been characterized by expert teaching of the highest order on the part of Miss Nettie Simpson, who has won the commendation and confidence of our patrons. This is the more gratifying as Miss Simpson had the difficult post of successor to Miss Honora Cannon, for six years in successful charge of this department.

Miss Elizabeth Matthews has done admirable work with pupils of the "difficult age" of fourteen and fifteen. Her efforts have been to the end of self-control and steadiness of application, and they have been crowned with success.

Of the Academic and Preparatory Department it is enough to say that they have sustained their past record for excellent, quiet, thorough work.

THE BISHOP SCOTT ACADEMY.

Prof. A. C. Newell, the Principal of this School, writes me as follows:

"During the first year of my management, the total number of pupils was 32, and the largest number of boarders in the building was 16. This year the total enrollment up to date is 73. The largest number of boarders I have had this year is 39. The average number for the year is 32. In many cases parents who are residents of Portland have placed their boys with me while they went to the East. I have boys from Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho, Montana, South Dakota, Illinois, British Columbia and Michigan. The school spirit has been very good. The religious services of the School have been fervent and enthusiastically rendered. The interest displayed by the citizens of Portland has been largely increased. The Clergy of Portland and of Oregon have given me their hearty support, but their enthusiasm must be still further kindled to make the school what we all wish it to be—a first-class Church School. It is my intention next year to provide a course of study that will place the B. S. A. on a plane higher than any other school in Portland, and one that is so advanced that those who have received the B. S. A. diploma can enter any college or university in the United States.

This year the School has graduated four pupils, three of whom will probably go to college. The prospects for next year are most encouraging. I think that the B. S. A. is worthy of congratulation and I am assured of the fact that most of its success is due to the enthusiastic co-operation of the members of our Faculty and the Board of Trustees."

GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL.

There have been 2,105 patients treated in the Good Samaritan Hospital this year, being 317 more than last year; representing 36 nationalities and 31 different forms of religious belief. Of these patients 159 were entirely free, and 277 paid only "in part."

In regard to its work in general, the superintendent writes:

"The daily duties and incidents of Hospital life go on with little variation, week in and week out. Sickness and pain, hope and despair, life and death link hand in hand in rooms and wards. Some are with us but a short time, others linger for months and years waiting patiently for final release. To each and all, irrespective of creed or class, the ministry of skill, comfort and sympathy is given by day and through the long hours of the night. We all love our work. There is a fascination about it that makes what would otherwise be disagreeable and monotonous duties, pleasant and congenial. The children's cots have been almost constantly in use during the past year. We hope they are the beginning of what will be, eventually, an entire "free ward" for suffering little ones.

"The ministrations of our Chaplain at the bedside and on Sunday, have been faithfully given and acceptably received. Services are held on Sunday, alternately in the larger wards, thus reaching the sick as well as the convalescent. Several musicians have kindly volunteered their services, and furnished bright, cheerful music, at once helpful and comforting to the patients.

"I spoke in my report last year of the need of another wing to complete the Twenty-third street side of the Hospital. This need has now grown to be an urgent necessity. We are hampered for room and have constantly to turn away sick and unfortunate people, that we would gladly care for, had we more beds. The proposed wing will contain an elevator which will enable us to reach and utilize two fine wards in the Lewis wing—and the next one—now practically useless. It will also contain a large surgery, complete in all its appointments and adapted to meet all the demands of modern medical science. The cost of this wing will be $50,000. We are working diligently for it ourselves, but with our small surplus income and the constant and unexpected demands upon it—it will be a long time before we can accomplish it unaided. So, while we work, we also pray that God will put it into the hearts of some of our friends to help us, with small or large gifts as they are able, and thus make it possible for us speedily to begin the work of construction."

THE CHILDREN'S LENTEN OFFERING FOR GENERAL MISSIONS.

It was with great pleasure that I was able to remit to the Treasurer of the General Board of Missions the good sum of $1,025.64 for the Lenten Offering of our Sunday Schools, and family boxes. According to our last report we had 1,450 Sunday School pupils, and taking that number as a basis of calculation, it makes a "per capita" of 70 cents.

If the 430,000 Sunday School children of our whole Church, gave at this same rate, the result would be $301,000, instead of $110,000 asked for.

I do not mention this in any spirit of boastfulness, for we might have done better—and I hope will do so next year, but it is a result, in every way encouraging, and shows what will come of an earnest, united effort; every Sunday School in the Diocese having taken a willing share in this work, through the zealous lead of their Rectors and Teachers.

CONFIRMATIONS.

Bishopcroft, 1; St. Andrew's, Peninsula, 4; Emmanuel, Marshfield, 7; St. James', Coquille City, 2; St. Stephens, Baker City, 7; St. Peter's, Albany, 2; Good Shepherd, Portland, 7; Seaman's Institute, Portland, 5; Grace, Astoria, 22; St. Stephen's, Portland, 6; Hay Creek, 2; Antelope, 3; Trinity, Ashland, 4; St. Mark's, Medford, 8; St. Luke's, Grant's Pass, 7; St. George's, Roseburg, 3; St. Paul's, Salem, 9; Church of the Redeemer, Pendleton, 7; All Saints', Portland, 10; St. Helen's Hall, 4; St. Matthew's, Portland, 7; St. Paul's, The Dalles, 5; Hood River Mission, 5; St. Mark's, Portland, 13; St. Mary's, Woodburn, 4; St. Paul's, Oregon City, 9; Gresham Mission, 2; St. John's Memorial, Sellwood, 5; St. Peter's, La Grande, 8; Holy Innocents', Astoria, 7; Trinity, Portland, 14; St. David's, Portland, 13. Total 212.

This is a larger number by 73 than were confirmed last year, and larger by 31 than were confirmed the year before; and larger by 83 than the year before that. The rite was administered for the first time in four different Missionary Stations—Hay Creek, Antelope, Hood River and Gresham, where 12 persons in all were confirmed. If this increase in the members confirmed is to go on year by year, it will show most encouraging progress in our work and much cause for gratitude to God for His blessing upon our labors.

These receipts are an increase of $202.00 over the contributions of last year, for which we are very thankful, and they leave the treasury with the sum of $65.00 on hand, in place of the $116.65 indebtedness with which the year began. But thankful as we are for this increase, we need far larger contributions for the work that lies before us for the coming year. The reports just read from the Missionaries will give some idea of the vast extent of our Diocesan field, and how urgent is the call for more laborers.

We have in round numbers 2,700 communicants of whom the Diocesan Board is asking half a dollar each, annually, but have never received more than at the rate of a third of a dollar. We know very well as I said last year, that there are a few of our people whose generous contributions are measured by no such trifling sum as a half dollar a year; but our great failing and weakness is that the majority—the mass of our members—take little or no interest in this work, and contribute nothing toward it at all, in proportion to their ability, or to its needs. I think our people should be more fully and more frequently instructed as to what Diocesan Missions really are, how wide the field and how crying the need for immediate possession and cultivation. And no proper response will come from these representations until the sense of individual responsibility is brought home to every member of the Church, and until the teaching of such words as these is accepted as Divine and immutable truth: “Ye shall not appear before the Lord empty; every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord, thy God, which He hath given thee.”

MISSIONARY EXPENDITURES.

In connection with this subject of Diocesan Missionary work, I desire to make a further report of the sums I have paid out for the same work from contributions, that have come to me from Eastern friends, most of whom never saw Oregon, and none of whom have a dollar of interests in its worldly affairs. From such contributions I have been enabled to appropriate to

Church buildings, Rectories, improvements and furniture	$3,635.82
Missionaries and their families	2,690.06
All Saints' Kindergarten	620.00
Printing circulars and miscellaneous literature	187.79
Scholarships at St. H. Hall and B. S. Academy	426.00
Taxes, interest and insurance	703.65
Miscellaneous	211.25
Heppner sufferers	130.00

Making a total of$8,504.57

It is these contributions from our generous-hearted friends in distant parts of our country, that enables us to carry on our Missionary work as it is at present, and if they were withheld for a single year, this work would go back to a sad and discouraging condition. This fact should be gratefully remembered when we are called upon for our offerings to the great and growing work of our General Board.

I want to make an additional statement to this, of the $520.00 expended upon the Kindergarten. Fifty dollars have come from the Woman's Auxilliary, King's Daughters and Trinity Guild, of Trinity Parish; and $100.00 from other Portland friends of the Kindergarten School—leaving the expenditures from outside sources, $8,354.57.

GENERAL CLERGY RELIEF.

According to the report of the Rev. Mr. MacClure, financial agent of the General Clergy Relief fund, our Quinquagesima Offerings from 19 congregations amounted to $188.76. This was an encouraging gain over the $95.81 of last year, but it was a great disappointment to me to find that there were 12 congregations of our people who had no share in this effort to provide for the declining days of our aged and infirm Clergy, and the widows and orphans they leave behind them; and I trust the next year will show no such shortcoming.

THE GENERAL DIOCESAN MISSIONARY.

The Rev. Mr. Glover has been pursuing the work of a Diocesan Missionary, with commendable zeal and industry, realizing more and more what an immense field this Diocese presents for such labors, and how impossible it is for one man to fill all the vacant Churches, and minister to all the scattered sheep, who are without a spiritual home or Shepherd. He will have a report to present to the Convention, but it will be concerning a work that time and patience, watching and cultivation, waiting and prayer can only bring to visible and acceptable fruitage. "First the blade, then the ear, and after that the full corn in the ear," is the law of this kind of husbandry, as well as that we see about us in nature.

May 31st of the following year. List of delegates and parochial reports should be in the hands of the Secretary as early in June as possible. Please be prompt in making your report.

H. D. CHAMBERS, Secretary.

422 Morris Street, Portland, Oregon.

I told you last year that I thought this arrangement would add three or four hundred dollars for traveling expenses, to the moderate eight hundred dollars salary of this Missionary; but that I considered this work of sufficient importance entirely, to justify such an expenditure; but I am glad to find that his traveling expenses have been much less than I expected. Since this was written, Mr. Glover has sent me this brief report:

REPORT OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY.

For the Year 1902-03.

"Considering that the details of my past year's work have already been made known to you, it will suffice if this present report be only a brief summary of that already presented.

"During the past year I have visited 40 towns. The field, however, has been too extensive for much local work in any one place, but I have ministered to about 200 Church people otherwise devoid of the Church's ministrations, and have preached 175 sermons. I have baptized 11 adults and children, presented four for confirmation at Woodburn, and held several instruction classes in different places. I have traveled ten thousand four hundred (10,400) miles.

"I collected for Diocesan Missions $86.96, crediting these offerings to the respective Parishes and Missions.

"I trust that some little fruit may grow out of this, my first year's travels and extensive preaching, at least to the extent of blazing the way for another, should I feel disposed to surrender my office before the end of another year.

"To all, both Clergy and Laity, who have encouraged me in my work, I extend my deepest appreciations."

This work of looking up the wandering sheep of our flock, that are far away from any ministrations of the Church, carrying to them in their distant and lonely homes her blessed and comforting Sacraments, and demonstrating to them that their spiritual Mother hath still a shelter for them, and willing Shepherds to bear to them the bread of life eternal—is a work which I commend to the cordial sympathy and willing co-operation of the Clergy and our people, collectively and individually.

OUR DIOCESAN PAPER.

Since our last Convention, an enterprising and hopeful Layman has undertaken to publish a monthly journal in the interests of our Church work, called "The Northwestern Churchman," which I desire to commend to the attention and support of our Clergy and people. It is an undertaking over which I have no control, and for which I am in no way responsible, though the Editor has given me what he calls the "Bishop's column," which provides a very convenient means of communication with the Clergy and their congregations; but beyond this I have nothing whatever to do with the management of the paper, or oversight of its contents. I have always been in favor of such an agency, and was very glad to have an experienced newspaper man willing to venture upon the work in this Diocese, where a similar undertaking was allowed to fail. But I did not let him do this without full warning of the difficulty he would encounter in finding any adequate support for his paper. So far as I know he seems to be determined to go on with its publication, but it has been a great disappointment and mortification to me that so few of our people show any interest whatever in the paper—most of them neither paying for it nor reading it.

There never was a time in the history of our Church, when such a publication was more needed than at the present; when our people were more in need of the intelligence and information that a diocesan paper would convey to them. The irreligious, trifling and demoralizing publications that overflow the whole land, are a serious hindrance to the progress of religious truth, and the growth of the religious life among our children and youth. A religious paper, coming only monthly into every family and household in the Parish, with the current diocesan and general news concerning the work and progress of the Church, with other instructive and devotional reading, would be a most helpful agency that every wise and watchful Rector should seek to introduce into every family in his Parish.

This is a matter that is more and more attracting the attention of our Bishops, and I have recently noticed the appeals of two of them—one, our neighbor of the District of Sacramento, and the other, the Bishop of Michigan City—for the establishment and support of a Diocesan paper. Bishop White of Michigan City, says:

"I have given my consent to the enterprise of issuing a Diocesan paper. Not only so, I have urged it as a matter of the gravest importance and necessity. The Church cannot live except in the full realization of all her children of her corporate character. We cannot live as individuals. We must be grouped into Parishes and have our parish priest to minister to us Sacramental life. Not only so, our Parishes must be united into a Diocese with its Bishop, to insure continuity of life and the fullness of spiritual blessing. The health and vigor of the diocese is the key to the continuity and power of the Church. To promote the life and power of the Diocese a journal is almost a necessity. Without it we have no vehicle of communication. Our horizon is no broader than our own parish. What lies beyond is unknown to us, creates no interest, awakens no sympathy, imparts no enthusiasm. Our conception of Church life and work is belittled, our prayers impoverished and our zeal grudgingly bestowed. Our zeal and enthusiasm are proportionate to our share in the common work and general welfare. As a united people we can accomplish a vast deal that seemed insurmountable to isolated individuals or solitary communities. The prosperity of the Church in this Diocese must be an object of solicitude to all her children. For her large sacrifices must be made by one and all. In her service our time and labor must be ungrudgingly given. Our gifts for her support must be proportionate to our ability. She is the Bride and Body of Christ. We cannot afford to love her less than He. He gave His life that she might be a glorious Church without spot or blemish or any such thing. We cannot afford to share her life and withhold anything than can contribute to her purity, power, or progress. Her cause is Christ's. It is with the purpose of unifying the Diocese in the larger, fuller, more perfect knowledge of the things pertaining to the Kingdom of God that this journal will be issued."

To which the Editor of "The Guardian" adds:

"It is difficult to be interested in that of which we know little or nothing, and the Bishop has arranged for the publication of The Guardian, to bring a knowledge of the Diocese and its work to every household in his Jurisdiction. The Diocese is composed of the various Parishes and we hope to present each month full reports of all that is going on in each Parish. It will be a help to us in our Lenten services, Sunday school, Auxiliary and Guilds to know what the other Guilds, Auxiliaries, etc., are doing. A more brotherly spirit will pervade the Church and unite our scattered Parishes and Missions with a bond of mutual interest and sympathy. Our laymen will begin to be interested in what is going on outside their own Parish Churches, because they will have an opportunity for learning about it.

"The success of this publication will depend on the interest of the people. We ask your hearty co-operation and support. We hope that every family in the Diocese will become a subscriber. The price of the paper is 50c a year."

Now all this is just as true of Oregon as it is of Michigan City, and a Diocesan paper is as much needed here as there; and I beg the Clergy to give this matter more attention, and try if this journal cannot be made to reach every family in the Diocese.

THE MISSIONARY APPORTIONMENT.

I can not let this opportunity pass without reminding the Clergy of the short time that is now left to complete the Offerings for this object. A few of the Parishes have paid in their proportion, and several more have paid in part, but the greater number have as yet paid nothing, according to the last report rendered. Up to the first of June but $250.00 had been received of the $825.00 assigned to this Diocese, leaving $575.00 yet to be raised in the two months of July and August. I beg the Clergy to give this matter earnest and immediate attention. Oregon is abundantly able to pay this moderate sum of $825.00, which is only at the rate of 28 cents a communicant, but it can not and will not be done without this special attention from the Clergy.

If it can not be done by one Offering, let there be two, between this and the first of September, and if these fail, let there be personal application to the individual members of the congregation—that there be not a delinquent Parish or Mission, large or small, in the Diocese of Oregon.

THE DIOCESAN LIBRARY.

Our fine Diocesan Library has been enriched this year by the addition of some hundred and fifty volumes, mostly the gift of Mr. Richard H. Thornton, that well known lover of books, who has contributed so many volumes to our valuable collection.

But it is still housed in a wooden dwelling, which may take fire any day or night, and all go to ashes.

I have the sum of $500 contributed by some Philadelphia friends for the purpose of erecting a fire-proof building for the safe-keeping of this valuable collection of books, and only need an addition of four or five hundred dollars to make this a reality. Besides preserving this valuable Library from loss by fire, such a building would bring these books far more easily within the reach of both Clergy and Laity, and be an educational institution of great helpfulness to the growth and progress of the Church.

Are there not some among us, who realize and appreciate the good influence of books, who could easily supply us with these few hundreds of dollars, to save our fine Library from this possible calamity suggested?

THE CHANGE OF THE NAME OF THE CHURCH.

I suppose that it would hardly be expected that I should pass by, in such an address as this, this subject which is now receiving so much attention throughout the Church.

I do not regard it, however, as a matter of so much importance as it is thought to be by some persons, and shall dispose of it very briefly, with little effort to influence the action of the Convention. What I do, will simply be to quote the sentiments of two of my Episcopal brethren, and then leave the subject for your own consideration and action.

Bishop Lawrence, of Massachusetts, says to his Convention:

"I confess that I have little interest in the subject of the change of name. I doubt whether the rank and file of the members of the Church care much about it, except, perhaps, to wonder occasionally where the movement comes from and who wants a change. I do not believe that the people of the country or of other Christian bodies have much interest in it. I must say that I chafe at so much time and thought being put into the talk.

"If our Church, being what she is and with the credentials that she has, keeps at her work of saving men and giving spiritual life abundantly to the people, the time may come when, with practical unanimity and with perfect naturalness, she may take another name, and when the people of the country will be glad to accede to her a name adequate and clear and one that all men will recognize as belonging to her. Meanwhile, I do not think it expedient to change the name of the Church, and, so far as I am concerned, should be glad to drop the discussion of the question."

Bishop Leonard says to the Convention of Ohio:

"The question of the change of the name of the Church, is not, in my judgment, as vital and serious on either side, as some ardent champions have indicated. Our name is not "accidental," but historical and the result of deliberate action. It stands without confusion as an indication of our apostolicity and our purity. It repudiates Roman errors and the rebellion of nonconformity and all other acts of independency or individualism, and therefore is honorable and exact. There is no lack of information on the claim that this Church of ours is apostolic, episcopal, historic, catholic, American to the core. A change in our title will hardly add to this information or buttress these facts. This Church is growing in large influence everywhere, and its power, both in numbers and in corporate life, is manifest on all sides. The question is, will a change of name be of appreciable benefit in the furtherance of Christ's Kingdom, in the cause of Christian unity, in the salvation of immortal souls? If it will, then we ought to heed the summons to the opportunity.

"For my own part, I fail to see any sufficient expediency in changing our name at this time. What we do need at this time is a 'change of heart'; a deeper spirituality in both Clergy and Laity; less socialism and more religiousness; less institutionalism and more Christian enthusiasm; more earnest preaching of the fundamental doctrines of Incarnation, Atonement, and the Personality of God the Holy Ghost; more devotedness to family life and family prayer and Church attendance and Sunday School work among lay people; a sterner, stronger opposition to the remarriage of divorced persons, and protest without stint or hesitation against intemperance and impurity."

To these Episcopal opinions I would add a few words from the report of the Committee of the Pennsylvania Convention which was adopted by an overwhelming majority:

"It is the duty of the Protestant Church to maintain and express an earnest protest against the un-Catholic usurpation and pretensions of the Roman See in doctrine not less than in discipline, which within the last 50 years have been exalted beyond all former example. With the world to evangelize and the home to protect, it would be the height of folly to waste our time and energies in sowing seeds of discord and division over a mere question of nomenclature."

These extracts express so fully my own views, that I have nothing further to add to them, and leave the matter to the action of the Convention.

CONCLUSION.

This review of the year's work has extended so far that I must omit now, several subjects of which I should like to have spoken and conclude with only a few words of exhortation and encouragement, concerning our continuing on in the old paths we have been trying to follow from the first. Whether we may be encouraged or discouraged with this review, none can fail to see, it seems to me, what a large and inviting field we have for Church work in this Diocese; what an urgent call there is for more laborers, and for more generous offerings for their support.

There are some people well disposed toward our Church, who are asking for changes in our system of doctrines and teaching, to comply with the ever changing ways of man in his pursuit of earthly interests.

It is an age of great enterprise and progress, of marvelous improvements and discoveries in the realm of material things; and the sentiment prevails in many minds that in the same way discoveries and improvements are to be made in the Faith, and that it is to change from time to time with the ever varying things of this life, which man moulds and modifies according to his own hopes and aspirations, his own wisdom or folly. This, however, is a great mistake. The Christian Faith is not a matter put into the hands of man for him to change and improve according to his own conceits. It is a revelation directly from God, whole and complete, denominated by inspired authority: "The Faith which was once delivered to the Saints."

It ought not to be necessary to say even this much to a thoughtful and intelligent age. For this is but a manifest truism that the Faith must ever be the same. Just as God's nature and purpose toward man are ever the same. As He says through His Prophet, Malachi: "I am the Lord; I change not." And as St. Paul says to the Hebrews: "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today and forever." Of these old and fundamental truths, we were reminded by the memorable Pastoral of our House of Bishops in 1894-95, in these words: "It should be borne in mind by all, Bishops, Priests, Deacons and Laymen, that the facts and truths which lie at the basis of the religion of Christ are eternal facts and eternal truths, stamped with the assurance which Divine Infallibility gives. A revelation, the conditions of which should be pliable to the caprices of speculative thought, would be thereby void of all that makes revelation final and sure. A creed whose statements could be changed to accord with the shifting currents of opinion or sentiment, or with the trend of thought in each succeeding generation, would cease to command and guide the loyalty of the people, and would not be worthy of the respect of mankind. * * * There is no Christ, save the Christ of the Catholic faith, and it is the blessing of this Christ, 'the same yesterday, today and forever,' upon this faith 'once for all delivered to the Saints,' which assures to the Church and the world all that ennobles, beautifies and saves man."

And so says one of the most capable and learned of these Bishops—to his Conventicle: "Already the Church has lasted longer than all this world's dynasties and empires, kingdoms and states. She is the survival of an age which has left nothing else living on the earth. Classical antiquity is dead, its cities are buried, its languages are no longer spoken. The Gospel was preached, baptism was administered, the laying on of hands and the believers continued steadfastly in the Apostle's doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread and prayers, when Tiberius was upon the throne of the Caesars; the same Gospel is preached, and the same government in Bishops, Priests and Deacons shelters the same Creed and Sacraments and worship still. There has been no change as touching anything essential.

Languages have died, and new tongues have sprung up, and new people to speak them. The old order of things has vanished away and in succession have come a Western hemisphere, and modern thought and civilization, but the Church and her institutions remain unaltered, like her Divine Head, who is the "same yesterday, today and forever." Brethren, it is this Church, in all its perfection and completeness, that has come down to us of this day and generation; in which we share all the blessed privileges of those of the days of Peter and Paul; and it is this Church, which we are to guard and preserve and to hold as a sacred trust for our children and all who are to come after us, to the end of time.

What a thought is this to call us to the devotion of all the powers and all the abilities God has given us for the salvation of immortal souls through the growth and progress of this Church? For which we may well say in lines of another:

Hasten the time appointed,
By prophets long foretold;
When all shall dwell together—
One Shepherd and one fold.

Let every idol perish,
To moles and bats be thrown;
And every prayer be offered,
To God in Christ alone.

Let all that now divides us,
Remove and pass away;
Like shadows of the morning
Before the blaze of day.

Let all that now unites us,
More sweet and lasting prove;
A closer bond of union,
In a blest land of Love.

O, long-expected dawning,
Come with thy cheering ray!
When shall the morning brighten
The shadows flee away?

O, sweet anticipation!
It cheers the watchers on
To pray, and hope, and labor,
'Till the dark night be gone.

JOURNAL
OF THE
15th Annual Convention
DIOCESE OF OREGON

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS.

In conformity with the Canons of the Diocese, the fifteenth annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Oregon,, assembled in Trinity Parish Chapel, Portland, June 25th, at 8 p. m., for the opening service. There were present, of the Clergy, the Rt. Rev. B. Wistar Morris, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. J. B. Funston, D. D., Bishop of Boise; the Rev. Messrs. W. A. M. Breck, H. D. The Convention reassembled at the same place on the following morning, June 26th, the business session being preceded by the celebration of the Holy Communion, at which service the Rev. Dr. Morrison was celebrant. At the close of the service the Bishop of the Diocese delivered the last half of his address, and immediately called the Convention to order.

Proceeding with the order of business, the roll of Clergy and duly certified Delegates was called. The necessary quorum of the Clergy and representatives from one-third of the Parish being present, the Convention was declared duly organized and ready for business.

The Rev. W. E. Potwine having been nominated for Secretary was, on motion duly elected to fill that office for the coming year. Being invited to nominate an assistant, the Secretary named the Rev. H. D. Chambers, of Portland, which nomination was immediately confirmed by the Convention. The hour for luncheon having arrived, a recess was taken until 1:30 p. m.

Reassembling at the appointed hour, the Chair announced the following special committees provided for in the order of business, viz.:

- (1.) On Admission of New Parishes—Rev. John Dawson, Mr. G. C. Burton.
- (2.) On Constitution and Canons—Rev. D. E. Loveridge, Rev. Chas. W. Turner and Chas. MacLean.

(10.) On Division and Reference of Bishop's Address—Rev. Messrs. Van Waters and Horsfall.

Reception of reports being in order, the Treasurers of the various Boards and Diocesan Institutions presented their reports, which were at once referred to the proper committees.

The proceedings of the Standing Committee for the past year were then read and ordered placed on file. They were as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

The Standing Committee, of the Diocese of Oregon, submit the following report of their official acts since their last report:

July 5, 1902.—Said Committee organized itself by re-electing the officers named in Journal of 1901, page 64. The annuities previously granted were continued.

Nov. 24, 1902.—The Secretary reported that the number of communicants in the Diocese appears to be about 2,870. The Journal of 1902 returns the number as 2,669.

Consent was given to the Consecration of the Reverend Charles Minnegerode Beckwith, D. D., as Bishop of Alabama; and to the Consecration of the Reverend Sheldon Munson Griswold, as Bishop of the Missionary District of Salina.

March 30, 1903.—Said Committee, by the Bishop's request, considered certain differences which had arisen between the Church of the Good Shepherd, Albina, and its Rector, and concluded that no sufficient Canonical cause existed in this case, for the dissolution of the Pastoral relation.

RICHARD H. THORNTON, Secretary.

REPORT OF AUDITING COMMITTEES.

The Secretary then read the report of the Auditing Committee as follows:

To the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon:

Your Auditing Committee begs to report that we have audited as carefully as possible the accounts and securities of the various Treasurers.

We have no method of checking receipts in general, but have done so as far as possible.

It will be noted that there is an increase of unemployed funds held by the various Treasurers, which should be safely invested as soon as practicable.

After indorsement the accounts have been returned to the respective Treasurers for presentation to the Convention.

A.

Your Committee has carefully checked the vouchers and accounts of Mr. C. H. Chandler, as Treasurer of the Diocese, and find them correct. There is nothing to note except that it is gratifying that the delinquent list is smaller.

B.

We have examined and audited the accounts of Mr. James S. Reed, Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergy, and of the Bishop Morris Jubilee Fund. We find them correct and Mr. Reed presented vouchers for all payments.

According to statements of investments, the funds are in a satisfactory condition, but we repeat our recommendations of last year, that in view of the increasing amount of funds on hand they should either be placed in a special deposit, so as to draw interest or some safe interest-bearing investment found for them.

We think it well to repeat that in our opinion the "Jubilee" pledges amounting to $411.00, should be placed in some form, so as to draw interest, or collected. If neither can be done, they are manifestly of no value.

C.

We have examined the accounts of the Secretary of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, checked them with vouchers and find them correct.

The statement of principal account we find correct. We are pleased to learn that something will be recovered on the Grover and Lent loan, referred to in our report of last year, although this had been struck out of the list of assets by the previous Secretary.

D.

We have audited the general accounts of the Treasurer of the Board of School Trustees, and checked them with his vouchers and have found them correct.

These accounts are a rescript of the Cash Book, which is not, in our opinion, what is required by the Convention, and we would repeat our suggestion of last year that they should be presented in a condensed statement, similar to that of the Board of Hospital Trustees.

Statements of accounts of Bishop Scott Academy and St. Helen's Hall have not been presented to us.

We have examined the securities held by the Board and find the statements correct.

The Sinking Fund has never been provided by the Board for depreciation of house property.

E.

We have examined the accounts of Dr. S. E. Josephi, Treasurer of the Board of Hospital Trustees, checked the vouchers and have also checked the Hospital accounts, each item of which is vouched for. We find all correct and the accounts kept as usual, in a most careful and intelligent manner. We have checked the statement of securities and investments, and find them in a very satisfactory condition.

The same policy as hitherto, has been pursued of keeping each endowment fund separate and gradually making up the principal sum of any fund which may have suffered a loss by past investments.

JAMES LAIDLAW,
GEO. C. BURTON,
J. C. ROBINSON.

The report of the Board of Equalization was also presented at this time, and being read was ordered placed on file, but the substance of the report having already appeared in the Journal for 1902, it was not thought expedient to reprint it here.

The reception of communications and resolutions being in order, the Secretary read a communication from the Diocese of Milwaukee relating to the subject of Courts of Appeal and the Provincial System which, on motion, was referred to the Special Committee on Resolutions and Memorials. A second communication, from the Commission appointed by the General Convention on "The Change of the Name of the Church," was read and, on motion, was referred to a special committee of three Clergymen and two Laymen, with instructions to report at 10:30 o'clock, Saturday morning.

On motion it was directed that the order of business be suspended so far as to permit of proceeding with elections to fill vacancies occurring in the various Boards. Taking up that of the Board of Hospital Trustees, the retiring members, the Rev. Dr. A. A. Morrison, and Mr. Rodney L. Glisan, were nominated to succeed themselves for another term of three years, and, the rules being temporarily suspended, the nominations were declared closed and the Secretary was directed to cast the ballot of the Convention for Dr. Morrison and Mr. Glisan, to fill the vacancies on that Board.

In the matter of filling vacancies on the Board of School Trustees the same order was made, and the Rev. A. A. Morrison and Mr. John K. Kollock having been nominated to succeed themselves, the rules were suspended and the Secretary was directed to cast the ballot of the Convention for them, which being done, they were declared duly elected for three years.

The election of Treasurer of the Diocese being in order, the following persons were nominated: Messrs. C. H. Chandler, M. B. Wakeman, C. L. Parker, G. C. Nicholson, Paul Van Fridagh and E. Laidlaw. All but the last two gentlemen declining the nominations, the ballot was taken with the following result: Mr. Laidlaw, 9; Mr. Nicholson, 1; Mr. Wakeman, 1; Mr. Van Fridagh, 15. The latter was declared duly elected, to fill the office of Treasurer of the Diocese.

The Convention then proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee. The following names were placed in nomination: Clerical, the Rev. Messrs. Van Waters, Short, Morrison, Wilson, J. E. H. Simpson, Potwine, Corey and Hammond. Of the Laity, Messrs. Josephi, Reed, Spittle, Nicholson and Wakeman. The ballot was taken with the following result, viz:

Clerical.		Lay.
Van Waters	15	Josephi	21
Short	19	Reed	21
Morrison	14	Spittle	11
Wilson	4	Nicholson	6
Simpson	4	Wakeman	6
Potwine	4
Corey	4
Hammond	2

The Chairman declared the Rev. Messrs. Van Waters, Short and Morrison elected from the Clergy, and Messrs. Josephi and Reed from the Laity.

On motion the rules were suspended and the Secretary was directed to cast the ballot of the Convention for Mr. Spittle as the third member from the Laity, which having been done, the following were announced by the Chair as the duly elected members for the year, viz:

The Rev. Wm. Seymour Short,
 The Rev. Geo. B. Van Waters, D. D.,
 The Rev. A. A. Morrison, Ph. D.
 Messrs. S. E. Josephi, M. D.,
 Jas. S. Reed,
 Frank Spittle.

Continuing with elections the following Clergymen were duly nominated and elected to serve as members of the Ecclesiastical Court, viz: The Rev. D. E. Loveridge, the Rev. Thos. N. Wilson and the Rev. Chas. MacLean.

As delegates to the next Missionary Council to be held in the city of Washington, D. C., the Rev. W. E. Potwine and Mr. C. H. Chandler were chosen by ballot to represent the Diocese.

In the matter of providing for the Board of Equalization, it was resolved that the board created last year under resolution No. 139 be continued by the election of two Laymen to serve during the coming year. Dr. S. E. Josephi and Mr. H. D. Ramsdell were chosen to compose the Board.

The Convention then proceeded to elect members to serve on the Board of Missions with the following result, viz: The election of the Rev. Messrs. J. E. H. Simpson, Geo. B. Van Waters, W. E. Potwine, T. N. Wilson, P. K. Hammond, E. T. Simpson, Wm. Seymour Short; and Messrs. Geo. H. Williams, John McCracken, Harrison Allen, Frank Spittle, James Laidlaw, F. W. Berry and H. D. Ramsdell.

The hour having arrived for the consideration of the subject of "General Clerical Sustentation," presented to the Convention by a Committee of Clergymen appointed by the Diocesan Clericus, the Rev. John E. H. Simpson was invited to read to the Convention a paper prepared by him on this subject, the title of the paper being "The Church's Lack of Business Method, the Resultant evils and a Suggested Remedy." At the conclusion the thanks of the Convention were extended to the author, and the possible memorializing of the General Convention in respect to the whole subject was referred to a committee of three Clergymen and two Laymen, with instructions to report to the next Diocesan Convention. The Chair appointed on said Committee the Rev. Messrs. Morrison, Van Waters, E. T. Simpson, and Messrs. Josephi and Baxter.

The report of the Special Committee on the Admission of New Parishes being called for at this point, it was presented by the Chairman, and on motion was referred back to the Committee for further elucidation and with instructions to state in what particulars the Parish at Baker City had failed to comply with Canon law. The following amended report was then presented and, on motion of Mr. James Laidlaw, was received, and the Secretary of the Convention was instructed to inform the Parish at Baker City of the action of the Convention:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ADMISSION OF NEW PARISHES.

Your committee having examined the application of the Wardens and Vestry of St. Stephen's Parish, Baker City, to be admitted into union with the Diocese of Oregon, recommend that before the Parish be admitted into union with this Diocese

1. The title of the incorporation be "The Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. Stephen's Parish."

2. That the proposed Parish comply with Art. 9, Canon XI. of the Canons of the Diocese, which provides for the election of Wardens and Vestrymen annually.

3. That a Treasurer of the Parish be elected by the Vestrymen.

4. That the State law which quires two witnesses to the Articles of Incorporation be complied with.

Your committee has grave doubts as to the legality of a woman being elected to serve as Clerk of the Vestry who, furthermore, is not a Vestryman.

Your committee would call the special attention of the incorporators to Sec. 1, Art. 3, Canon XI. of the Canons of the Diocese.

WM. CONEY, Chairman
JOHN DAWSON,
T. WM. BAXTER,
Committee.

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese was then read, the subject of delinquent assessments calling forth extended discussion, in the course of which a resolution offered by the Rev. Mr. Hammond, empowering the Board of Equalization to remit sums now delinquent, was lost. The following action thereon, proposed by Mr. Ramsdell, was adopted: "Resolved, That all delinquencies on all special funds for which assessments are made by this Convention, be referred to the Board of Equalization, that Board to report its recommendation to the Convention."

The Treasurer's report is as follows:

*For list of unpaid assessments, account of Episcopal Fund, for years prior to 1902-03, see report of the Secretary of Episcopal Fund.

Your Treasurer would respectfully call attention to the following: He has been able this year, to wipe out the balance due on the note of long standing, held by the Portland Trust Company, which, with interest paid to date, amounted to $162.00, thus being enabled to report the Convention this year as being out of debt.

It will be noticed that the record of unpaid amounts on account of Convention assessments, shows a fewer number of Parishes and Missions in arrears this year than for some time past, which results in placing the Diocese in a much more to be desired condition than when your Treasurer is compelled to present a report showing such a large amount in arrears as has been made in the past.

In this connection your Treasurer would call the particular attention of the Clergy and treasurers of Parishes and Missions to the fact that his books must be closed on the date of May 31st, preceding the date on which the Convention is held, and assessments which are not paid prior to June 1st of each year, necessarily, appear in the Treasurer's report to the Convention, as unpaid. In many instances the forwarding of the amounts a few days earlier would overcome the difficulty, and permit of the Treasurer making a report more satisfactory for all concerned.

C. H. CHANDLER, Secretary.

Portland, Ore., June 22, 1903.

Audited and found correct:

J. C. ROBINSON,

GEO. E. BURTON.

The hour being late the Convention adjourned until 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

Reassembling Saturday morning, June 27th, the session was opened with devotions by the Bishop, the Rev. D. E. Loveridge acting chairman.

Resolutions being in order, the Rev. Mr. Short introduced the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Whereas, The Mission of All Saints', Heppner, has been visited with a dire calamity, which has not only destroyed the Church building, but has removed about one-fourth of the supporters of the Church in that important center of Missionary work; and

Whereas, It seems impossible for this Mission to rebuild its Church unaided; Therefore be it

Resolved, That this Convention hereby extends its heartfelt sympathy to the Missionary, and his faithful band of sorrowful helpers; and recommends to the Diocesan Board of Missions an immediate appropriation of funds, as generous as possible, to put this Mission upon a living and working basis; and be it further

Resolved, That every Parish and Mission in the Diocese be recommended to take an Offering in the month of October, 1903, for the express purpose of rebuilding this Church.

The resolutions were adopted without dissent.

A resolution recommending the Bishop to call the next Annual Convention for the first week in June was lost.

The hour having arrived for receiving and considering the report of the Special Committee, to which was referred the question of "The Change of the Name of the Church," together with the Bishop's reference to it in his address, the chairman submitted the following:

To the Members of the Convention:

REPORT.

Your committee do not doubt that any historic name familiar for generations, will have become endeared to many.

And yet it is an indisputable fact that we have a title which, except when they are obliged to do so, the vast majority of our people, Bishops, Clergy and Laity, will not, or do not use.

Even the shortened title "The Episcopal Church" is comparatively modern, and must seem, to outsiders at least, to belong to a class of such titles as, "The Presbyterian Church," "The Methodist Church," etc., which has sectarian suggestiveness.

Hence, and for other reasons, has come what even those of us who may be personally averse to change should not be unwilling to recognize as a reaching out for a better name.

On the other hand, those of us who are personally favorable to change, may well concede that anything like general acceptance of any one of the names proposed, is not at present within sight.

Opportunity, however, we think, may well be given to this Convention to express its judgment that this or that name, would, per se, be an improvement.

One at least, of the writers quoted in our Bishop's address, strongly emphasizes our Catholicity. Yet that claim is offensively impeached by one great historic body, which in late years has taken to calling us, not Protestants, but "Non-Catholics." And, for lack of the evident assertion of that Catholicity in such a way as to be manifest to all men, we are supposed by many Protestants to acquiesce in the principle of sectarian organization.

We propose, therefore, the following statements for adoption by this Convention:

Resolved, That we do not regard the present title as adequate or satisfactory.

Resolved, That, while we do not regard a change as expedient at this time, yet we do approve of the effort to find a better name.

Resolved, That we favor, as a substitute, should it be found to be generally acceptable, some name incorporating the term Catholic, because, in our opinion, it best expresses the character and scope of the teaching of Jesus, and the faith of our Church.

A. A. MORRISON,
JNO. E. H. SIMPSON,
CHAS. WM. TURNER,
S. E. JOSEPHI,
C. H. CHANDLER.

The vote being taken by orders, on the motion to adopt the report as read, was as follows: Ayes, Clergy, 14; Laity, 9. Nays, Clergy, 1; Laity, 2. The Chair declared it adopted.

Action on the foregoing was taken in compliance with the request of the "Joint Committee" of the General Convention, appointed for the purpose of ascertaining the mind of the Church in the several Dioceses on this question.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

The following report of the Secretary-Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund, together with the report of the Special Committee thereon, was read and ordered filed:

The increase of $8.16 during the year is due to the receipt of this sum as second and final payment on note of L. B. Cox.

In addition there are tracts of land in Smith's and King's additions, acquired under foreclosure, in which the Trustees of the Fund have a capital commitment of $4,500. Realization uncertain.

To the Convention:

The committee appointed to report on the report of the Board of Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, beg leave to state that the only report submitted for our consideration is the financial statement of the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board, the correctness of which is duly certified to by the Auditing Committee. According to this statement no material changes have been made in the condition of the Principal Fund and, though the income account shows diminution from that of previous years, we are gratified to note that the Bishop's salary has been paid in full to June 18th, 1903.

No complaints or recommendations to the Convention, either on account of delinquencies of payment of assessments or otherwise having been embodied in the report, this Committee has no material upon which to base recommendations.

W. HORSFALL,
JAMES LAIDLAW,
S. E. JOSEPHI.

A resolution offered by the Rev. Mr. Lake, making the basis of the assessment for the Episcopal Fund for the coming year, the number of resident communicants with a fixed tax of 50 cents per head, was lost. After extended discussion upon the subject, the Convention proceeded to consider the report of the Special Committee appointed by the previous Convention, to make investigations and report upon the proposed "merging" of the Diocesan Fund for Disabled Clergy, with that of the General Clergy Relief Fund.

The following was submitted by the Committee:

SPECIAL REPORT.

We, your Committee to which was referred the advisability of merging our Diocesan Fund for Disabled Clergy, with the General Fund for that purpose, beg leave to report that the Committee lacks, at this time, information to guide them in forming a conclusion and would ask for further time, or the appointment of another Committee.

(Signed.)

GEO. B. VAN WATERS,
JAMES LAIDLAW, Com.

This report was, on motion, adopted, and provision made for the appointment of a new Committee. But just before adjournment this action of the Convention was reconsidered, and the following resolution, introduced by the Secretary in the interests of immediate action was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Convention be instructed to advise the Secretary of the "General Clergy Relief Fund," that this Diocese is ready to merge the diocesan organization with that of the General Church, and invites correspondence, with the Custodians of the Diocesan Fund, on this subject with a view to such consummation; and that the special Committee appointed by the Convention to consider and report upon this subject be discharged.

The privilege of the floor being granted to the Rev. Dr. Van Waters, he addressed the Convention upon a unique opportunity that had recently been presented to the Church to take up aggressive missionary work among the Chinese in the City of Portland. Asked for some favorable action upon the subject, the Convention expressed sympathy with the project, and referred the matter to the Board of Missions. The overtures for Church supervision of this Chinese Mission were made by the Chinese themselves, and from an evident desire to extend missionary work among their countrymen on the Pacific Coast.

BOARD OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

The report of the Secretary of the Board of School Trustees being called was then read as follows, together with the report of the Special Committee thereon; the action asked therein was taken in accordance with the resolution immediately following the report:

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE BOARD OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

To the Fifteenth Annual Convention of the Church in the Diocese of Oregon:

With the report of the Treasurer, I beg to hand to the Convention herewith summaries of the reports of Bishop Scott Academy and St. Helen's Hall for the past fiscal year:

Bishop Scott Academy presents to the Convention a much more satisfactory condition of affairs than in my last report. I stated then that the plans for this year contemplated a very material reduction in operating expenses. By unremitting attention to details and the practice of the most rigid economy compatible with the conduct of a successful institution, a saving of $1,566.30 in the principal items of disbursement has been effected, as will be seen from an examination of the following comparative statement:

	1902.	1903.	Increase.	Decrease.

T. WM. BAXTER,

Assistant Secretary Board of School Trustees.

On the other hand, the earnings for board and tuition have been $13,490.50, as against $4,429.75 for last year, showing a net gain on earnings and disbursements of $10,627.05.

Looking at the same matter from a slightly different point of view, the books of the School show bills receivable of $1,700.87, (practically all of which is good), bills payable, (May 31, 1903), $2,704.37, or a net liability of $1,003.50. In addition, the Board has advanced to the School during the school year, $1,125, making a total liability for the year of $2,128.50. Against this there was paid out of the receipts for this year $2,700 of last year's bills, $576.52 for permanent betterments, and $875.85 for Furniture and Fixtures making a total disbursement for other than current operating expenses of $4,152.37. The School, therefore, since the opening of the scholastic year, September 18, 1902, has not only been self-supporting, but shows an actual profit of $2,023.87. The attendance is shown in the report of the Principal who is entitled to much credit for the substantial improvement.

For next year the Board proposes to continue the policy in force during this year and to keep the expenses of operation at as low a figure as possible. It is confidently expected that the School will open with a largely increased attendance, and that the earnings will show a continued improvement.

The report of St. Helen's Hall, submitted by the Principal, shows a healthy financial condition.

The books of the Secretary show that since filing the last report, the real estate of the Board has been reduced by the following sales:

Forty acres of swale land in Clarke County, Washington, sold for $587.

Six-sevenths of forty acres of wild land in Section 19, T. 1 S. R. 1 E., sold for $1,628.57, and one lot in Bishop Scott Academy campus sold for $4,000.

The cash in the hands of the Treasurer has been reduced from $2,676.25 to $136.64, showing net loss of $2,539.61, and a total reduction of assets of $8,755.18.

Against this the Board has paid $3,000 in reduction of mortgage indebtedness, thereby reducing the interest charge $180 a year; has paid out in interest $3,752.61; has advanced for Bishop Scott Academy $2,427.55 in payment of bills for last year; $543.25 in payment of summer expenses, and $1,125 in payment of current expenses, and has advanced for the account of St. Helen's Hall in the construction of cement pavements as required by City ordinance, $461.45.

On account of the necessity of securing partial releases in view of pending sales, it has proved impossible to refund the Palatine Insurance Company loan at a less rate of interest, and the mortgage for $25,000 on the Academy property was accordingly paid off, and the new loans, aggregating $22,000, placed on a portion of the property for two years at six per cent. The mortgages are so drawn that any portion of the property will be released on payment of a portion of the purchase price.

The Rector, Wardens and Vestry of Trinity Parish, are about to commence the construction of a new Church. A proposition has been made to them by the Board, subject to the approval of this Convention, for an exchange of property. This contemplates turning over to the Parish 200x260 feet on the corner of Nineteenth and Everett streets, in exchange for the block between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets and Washington and Couch streets. While the Board believes the School property proposed to be delivered is somewhat more valuable than that to be received by the Board, it should be borne in mind that the families of the donors are today members of Trinity Parish and that the intention of the donation may be better fulfilled by this proposed conveyance than by a sale of the property in separate tracts to individual purchasers. The sale of the remainder of the campus and of the block to be received in exchange will realize more than sufficient to extinguish the entire liabilities of the Board. The Board, therefore, with the approval of the Bishop, recommends this action and requests from the Convention authority to make the exchange and to sell the remainder of the campus and the Trinity block as soon as practicable.

JOHN K. KOLLOCK,

Secretary.

TO THE CONVENTION.

Your Committee, to whom was referred the report of the Board of School Trustees, respectfully report:

That they are pleased to find the financial balance of both of the Schools on the right side, and congratulate the Diocese and the Board and management upon the apparent healthy condition of these important institutions.

In the matter of the contemplated transfer of a portion of the Bishop Scott Academy campus to Trinity Church, Portland, your Committee would submit, that if in the opinion of the Board it seems for the best interests of the Diocese, it would be proper to authorize the same; but your Committee, in view of the importance of the question, prefer to leave the decision to the Convention. They, therefore, return the report without recommendation.

WM. SEYMOUR SHORT,
P. K. HAMMOND,
S. E. JOSEPHI,
Committee.

The report having been adopted, the following resolution was presented by Mr. H. D. Ramsdell, and on motion was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the recommendation of the Board of School Trustees, that they be authorized to make an exchange of the 200x260 feet on the corner of Nineteenth and Everett streets, for the block between Seventeenth and Eighteenth and Washington and Couch streets, be adopted by this Convention.

GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL.

The following reports of the Secretary and the Treasurer of the Good Samaritan Hospital were presented as follows:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOSPITAL TRUSTEES OF THE DIOCESE OF OREGON—1902-1903.

To the Convention:

The Secretary of the Board of Hospital Trustees begs to report that the Hospital has had a prosperous and satisfactory year.

All endowments which are known to have suffered loss through bad investments made in former years, have been fully recouped. The Board's interest in the Galleger estate has been settled for a sum of $1,500.00. Twenty acres of land lying north of the Columbia Slough road, in the Cuttlebirth Stump Donation Land Claim, have been conditionally conveyed to the Board under the will of the late Governor Pennoyer. The cottage sinking fund which has been created by reserving ten per cent of the rental of all Hospital houses let to tenants, has now reached over $4,000.00. The building fund, with which it is proposed to erect the northwest section of the new building, and so complete the entire west wing of the Hospital, now amounts to $12,000.00. The entire endowments for free beds and charity amount to about $75,000.00. All funds, with the exception of about three thousand dollars, are invested on good security, and are drawing interest.

The Secretary takes it upon himself to say that this satisfactory condition of the Board's finances is mainly owing to the efficient management, and faithful care of Dr. S. E. Josephi, and Mr. Rodney Glisan who, with the Bishop of the Diocese, form the Executive Committee.

The Board has recommended to the members of the Hospital staff, that one month's time of the graduating year of each nurse in the Training School, be devoted to charitable work among the poor, under the direction of the Visiting Nurse Association of the City of Portland.

Steps have been taken to provide better facilities for public worship in the Hospital, and a temporary Chapel, where regular celebrations of the Holy Communion can be held, and where patients may retire for private prayer and meditation, is being fitted up at the head of the main staircase.

The retiring members of the Board are the Rev. A. A. Morrison, Ph. D., and Mr. Rodney Glisan. One Clergyman and one layman are therefore to be elected to the Board by the Convention.

The Treasurer's financial report is appended hereto.

RESOLUTION NO. 144.

Resolved, That this Convention has cause for devout thanksgiving in the continued health and strength in body and mind of our beloved Bishop, and that we pray God that he may be spared us for the continuance of his noble work, and the benefit of his wise and godly counsel.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DIVISION AND REFERENCE.

We, your Committee, to whom was referred the Bishop's address for division and reference, respectfully report as follows:

We note with gratification the increase over previous years of the contributions for Diocesan Missions, which increase we regard as evidence of a very general determination of the Parishes and Missions to do what they can to promote the interests of the Missionary work of the Church within the Diocese.

The increase, though larger than there was cause to expect, judging from former returns, does not add to the annual income an amount sufficient to meet the current expenditure incurred by the Diocese. We are of the opinion that the urgent necessity of more frequent and systematic giving ought to be impressed upon the congregations.

The erection of a fire-proof building for the safe keeping of the Diocesan Library is an important matter which needs attention. We would recommend that an effort be made to co-operate with the Bishop in the supply of this most pressing want.

There is cause for congratulation in the growth of the Church as shown by the number of Confirmations—also in the satisfactory condition of St. Helen's Hall, the Bishop Scott Academy, and the Good Samaritan Hospital.

We sympathize with the brethren of All Saints' Church, Heppner, in their trial and affliction caused by the dreadful cloud-burst, which has brought to them loss of life and loss of property, including the destruction of their house of worship. We approve of the Bishop's action in sending to them such timely help, as the state of the Diocesan Treasury could afford.

We recommend further relief in their distress, such as helping them to rebuild their Church, as being an object deserving the consideration of the Convention.

GEORGE B. VAN WATERS,
W. HORSFALL.

Committee.

The Special Committee, to whom was referred the communication from the Diocese of Milwaukie, asking for an expression of opinion upon the subject of the Provincial System and the establishment of Courts of Appeal, submitted the following which, on motion was formally adopted by the Convention:

REPORT.

We, your Committee, to whom was referred the communication from the Diocese of Milwaukee, respecting the grouping of Dioceses and Missionary Districts in a provincial system under the provision of Canon, according to the terms of Article VII., of the Constitution, beg leave to report that we recommend the adoption of the resolution expressing the sympathy of the Convention with the action.

GEO. B. VAN WATERS,
JAMES LAIDLAW,
Committee.

The following resolution was presented by the Rev. E. T. Simpson, and, after discussion, was referred to the Board of Missions:

Resolved, That this Convention approves of the plan proposed at the Missionary Conference of the Seventh Missionary District, lately held in San Francisco, of having a "traveling Secretary" for the Seventh District.

Resolved, further, That this Convention pledges itself in the sum of $250, annually, towards the salary of said Secretary.

The following amendment to the Canons of the Diocese was presented by the Rev. C. W. Turner, and referred to the Committee on Canons, to report to the next Convention:

CANON VIII. OF PROVISION FOR CLERGY RELIEF.

At least one annual collection shall be made, on Christmas Day, or the Sunday called Quinquagesima, in every Parish and Mission of the Diocese, for the relief of Clergymen disabled by age or disease, and provision for dependent members of families of deceased Clergymen. Such collection, and all offerings for these purposes shall be dealt with as provided for by arrangement with the General Clergy Relief Commission of the General Convention.

The Bishop appointed the following Auditing Committee for the coming year, viz.: Dr. S. E. Josephi, James Laidlaw and G. C. Burton.

RESOLUTION NO. 145.

That the Secretary of the Diocese be empowered to print the reports of Treasurers after they have been passed upon by the Auditing Committee, before the assembling of the Convention, and that copies be made available to members.

RESOLUTION NO. 146.

That all delinquencies on all special funds, for which assessments are made by this Convention, be referred to the Board of Equalization, that Board to report its recommendations to the Convention.

No further business appearing, on motion the Convention adjourned, sine die.

Woman's Auxilary

Diocese of Oregon

ANNUAL MEETING

Diocesan Officers—President, Mrs. Ann R. Hill, Hill Military Academy, Portland; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Belle J. Sellwood, 753 Marshall street, Portland.

ANNUAL MEETING.

On Thursday, June 25th, the annual meeting of the Oregon Branch of the Woman's Auxilliary was held in St. David's Church, Portland. At 10:30 A. M. the morning service was held. The Holy Communion was administered to more than two hundred women, and a goodly number of the Clergy. The Rector of the Parish, Rev. George B. Van Waters, D. D., was celebrant, assisted by the Rev. James B. Funston, Bishop of Boise, delivered the annual address, taking his text from St. Matthew, 28th chapter and 9th verse: "And as they went to tell His disciples, behold! Jesus met them, saying: 'All Hail!'" The speaker pictured, beautifully, the scene at the empty tomb, the story of the resurrection, and the joy with which the faithful women hastened to go and find the disciples and tell them the glad news; the meeting with the Master they loved, and the blessed words He spoke of welcome and peace. The condition of women under the old dispensation was contrasted with that of the new. He spoke of the Woman's Auxilliary, as a noble organization, and membership in it as a real privilege; an organization co-extensive with the whole nation, from Canada to Mexico. In it women find a mission of sympathy and strength and service for Him and for each other, and more than all, as helpers to the ministry, making them to feel that behind all their trials and difficulties, there is a woman's heart, full of sympathy and courage, and hands ever ready to help in every way possible. In closing, he urged his hearers to continue steadfast, brave, true and earnest, in spite of strong and constant currents of carelessness and indifference; to cultivate, with the industry of Martha, the consecration of Mary—who, at her Master's feet learned of that "better part," that no worldly discouragement or disappointment could wrest from her. The offering amounted to $22.10. At 12:30 a most bounteous lunch was served in the Parish House, by the ladies of St. David's, to about 250 persons. At 2 P. M. the afternoon session was opened with the singing of the 505th hymn, after which the Rector, Dr. Van Waters, made a most cordial address of welcome to the visiting friends and representatives.

The Diocesan Secretary called the roll. Sixteen branches of senior and junior, were represented by 129 delegates and friends. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read, followed by reports of Parochial officers and officers of the Church Periodical Club. The Diocesan Secretary gave a full report of the work of the Auxilliary for the year, and urged the systematic study of Missions and Church history, to increase knowledge, deepen interest, and broaden the views of workers. She also asked the Clergy to assist her in discountenancing Parochial work in the Auxilliary and making it a distinctly missionary organization.

Rev. Mr. Potwine made a brief address upon the subject of the recent disaster at Heppner, by reason of a cloudburst, which swept away a great portion of the prosperous town, the Church of All Saints', and 15 of its members. He asked the sympathy and help of the Auxilliary. During the afternoon addresses were made by the Bishops of Oregon and Boise, the Rectors of Trinity and St. David's Churches, the Rev. Mr. Lake of The Dalles, and others.

After the several complimentary resolutions, the Bishop of the Diocese closed the meeting with prayer and the Benediction. The large attendance, the presence of the two Bishops throughout the whole day, the ample accommodations of the new Church, and the delightful social entertainment furnished by the ladies of the Parish, marks this meeting as one of the most successful and encouraging ever held. It also inspires the hope that the Oregon branch, after a slow growth of 20 years, is now about to rise and reach out to the great possibilities before it.

Note.—The large decrease in the communicant list is due chiefly to the fact that the list has been carefully revised during the past year. The number of communicants has remained about the same as in previous years. Many, however, who were communicants in name neither attended services nor supported the Church. Their names were therefore removed from the list.

REPORTS OF CLERGY HAVING NO PAROCHIAL CHARGE.

SANTA CRUZ, CAL., June 1st. 1903.

To the Rt. Rev. B. Wistar Morris, D. D.

My Dear Bishop:

I beg to report that during the year I took charge for four months of my old Parish, in San Jose. On March 29th I had a stroke of paralysis, which prevents any further work in the ministry, at least, for the present. I have returned to my farm, and hope I am improving in health, although I am not able to do much work of any kind. I am sincerely yours,

GEO. W. FOOTE.

Sixteenth Annual Convention

OF THE

DIOCESE OF OREGON

1904

The Bishop's Address

My Brethren of the Convention: When we came together in Convention last year, I stated in my address to you that it was with very few changes in the staff of our Clergy, only one name having been taken from the list, and only one added during the past year. I have to report this year a very different condition. We have had more changes than in any previous year, and have more churches without Rectors, and more missions without regular Pastoral oversight than at any time in our history. The following are those who have removed from the Diocese: The Rev. Alex. Corbett, the Rev. T. A. Daughters, the Rev. A. Kingsley Glover, the Rev. M. L. Idleman, the Rev. Dr. Charles MacLean, the Rev. W. E. Potwine and the Rev. Charles William Turner, seven in all; leaving our present number of canonically resident Clergymen seventeen.

There are three other new names not yet canonically transferred to this Diocese: The Rev. Mr. Budlong, of All Saints' Mission; the Rev. Mr. Forsyth, assistant to the Rev. Mr. Short at Astoria, and the Rev. Mr. Dew, Chaplain of the Bishop Scott Academy, which, with the Rev. Mr. Bruce, of the Seamen's Mission, would make our number of working Clergy twenty-one, in place of twenty-five last year.

The following changes have taken place within the Diocese: The Rev. Mr. Coney, from Salem to Albany and Corvallis, having his residence at Albany for the present; the Rev. Mr. Lake, from The Dalles to Roseburg, with services at Oakland and Cottage Grove; the Rev. Mr. Dawson, from Roseburg to the charge of the Church of the Good Shepherd, and St. Andrew's Mission in Portland, East Side. Since his resignation of the Good Shepherd parish, the Rev. Mr. Chambers has been serving as "District Missionary" in different parts of the Diocese, both East and West, doing good work in ministering to many of our Shepherdless congregations.

Though I have been told that my habit of detailing the progress of our work throughout the Diocese by reports from the several Rectors and Missionaries, is a weariness to many, I still prefer to do so, as I know of no better way of bringing the history of our Diocesan work to the knowledge of our people, and making for it a permanent record.

TRINITY, PORTLAND.

Taking up matters concerning our progress and improvement in the year's work, I begin as usual with such, in, and about Portland. The most important and noticeable of these, is the erection of the fine new church by Trinity parish, the corner stone of which, as you know, is to be laid tomorrow afternoon. This date has been chosen for this interesting service because it is the exact semi-centennial of Bishop Scott's first convocation in Oregon. He arrived here on Saturday, April 22d, 1854, holding his first service the next Sunday, "assisting the Rev. Dr. McCarty in what he calls a humble schoolhouse," situated on the west side of First street, between Oak and Pine, one door north of the present site of the Goodyear Rubber Company. The Bishop proceeded immediately on a visitation up the Willamette Valley, as far as Albany, and then over to Puget Sound, and on his return called his first Convocation of the Clergy and laity to meet on June 17—fifty years ago tomorrow, when, with God's permission we are to lay the corner stone for this splendid church. Many will recall the disastrous fire which practically destroyed the old church, which stood at the corner of Sixth and Oak streets for twenty-seven years. This sad event occurred on March 17, 1902. The congregation has held together with commendable fortitude, working and waiting for the opportunity to erect this new stone structure, which is being so solidly built that it will last for centuries. When this church is completed it will be consecrated, and free of debt. It is expected that it will be opened for its first service about Easter, 1905.

ALL SAINTS', PORTLAND.

Under the head of City Missionary work, I would first notice the change at All Saints' Mission, in the northern part of the city, where the Rev. Jay Scott Budlong, coming from the Diocese of Minnesota, has succeeded the Rev. E. T. Simpson, temporarily absent from this Diocese. Mr. Budlong writes me of the condition and prospects of his work as follows:

"I assumed charge of All Saints' on January 1, and report very satisfactory progress up to date."

The mission presents a situation peculiar to itself; and quite different from any other work in the Diocese, and it may be well to explain this situation in order that our people may fully understand its needs and limitations. Situated in the heart of a manufacturing district, in a portion of the city that is destined to become one of the industrial centers of Portland, in consequence of the natural advantages offered by its close proximity to transportation facilities by both water and rail, All Saints must cater to the needs of the hundreds of working men at its very doors, and should become the representative of the entire church for institutional work in the city of Portland.

The present population of the territory ministered to by the mission is cosmopolitan in the extreme, and the heterogenous character of the neighborhood makes the work of drawing the people into the Church a very difficult matter, indeed, and must be gradually accomplished, and to a great extent through the mediumship of the hordes of children who swarm the district. To this end a free kindergarten is conducted during the week in the Mission-House, under the able direction of Miss Emma Habersham, and the Sunday school meets in the same place every Sunday morning with a steadily increasing attendance.

The population is to a great extent migratory, and a large communicant list in the church can hardly be expected.

The future success of the mission depends largely upon its ability to attract and minister to the workingmen of the neighborhood, at least two thousand of whom are employed in the lumber mills, iron works and other varied industries along the river front and the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad. A great many of these are single men, and are dependent entirely upon the boarding-houses for homes—what a travesty upon the name of home most of these places are. What is needed most in connection with the work of the mission is a commodious building to accommodate at least an hundred men, equipped with sleeping-rooms on the upper floors, with assembly and reading-rooms, restaurant, etc., on the ground floor, where home comforts and congenial surroundings would await the men after their day's work, and where they could spend a pleasant evening removed from the temptations of the saloon, and other demoralizing resorts. We already have the land, and such a building erected thereon would not only be self-supporting, but would also yield a revenue to help support the church and kindergarten as well.

I have been assured by many of the workingmen that there would be no difficulty in filling such a house at once to profitable renters. Until this building can be erected and a revenue assured, the mission must of a necessity be dependent upon outside help, and its work should appeal to churchmen in every parish, and call forth their support. A number of small monthly subscriptions from members of the different parishes would greatly assist the work of the mission, and it is hoped that many will volunteer a regular monthly offering for this purpose.

The kindergarten of which Mr. Budlong speaks is a very interesting and encouraging work. The whole enrollment this year was seventy-six pupils. Five of these having reached the proper age, have gone to the public school, and twelve have moved out of the neighborhood, leaving the present number fifty-nine—with six of them near the public school age. So that not more than fifty may be expected at the opening of the school in September. The neighborhood is filling up so with families with children of the proper age that this number will be very materially increased during the next year. This is the only free kindergarten in the city of the Portland, which is doing a work that ought to enlist the interest and sympathy of our people, and receive their generous support.

GOOD SHEPHERD, PORTLAND.

Another change in city work has been made at Good Shepherd Church, East Side, where Mr. John Dawson succeeds Mr. Chambers. Mr. Dawson writes me:

"It is impossible to say very much about the work in this very important parish, only having assumed charge of it on Ash Wednesday last.

"Since then eight have been presented for confirmation, and the attendance at the service has been very encouraging. All current expenses have been paid and $100 taken from our past indebtedness.

"The outlook is exceedingly bright. Scores of houses are being built all over Albina. Numbers of people are coming in, and amongst them are many members of our own church who will undoubtedly be found to be deeply interested in the work of our church. All are looking forward to the time when this shall be one of the strong parishes of the city."

ST. MATTHEW'S, PORTLAND.

The Rev. Mr. Breck, in charge of St. Matthew's Chapel, has found time to do a good deal of country work, of which he writes as follows:

"St. Matthew's is slowly but steadily improving. The number of communicants is now fifty. The debt on the hall, thanks to the earnest and faithful work of the ladies, has been reduced by $255.00, and now stands at $520.00. A cement sidewalk has been put down 100 feet on the south side of the property.

ALL SAINTS' MISSION, HILLSBORO.

"A monthly week-day service was started in this town last October, and the few families of church people have manifested great interest. The people are anxious to have a little church home of their own, and have started a fund for a $500.00 building. Two adults have been confirmed and one baptized; also three children.

"Christ Church, St. Helens, rejoices in the gift of over $32.00, collected by Mrs. Belle Sellwood, from the Sunday schools of the Diocese, for a bell, so necessary at this place, to call the people together.

"Since last Convention three have been confirmed at Troutdale. There are thirty-four communicants in these five missions, namely, St. Helens, twelve; Rockwood, eight; Troutdale, six; Hillsboro, five, and Gresham, three.

"By holding up and sustaining the work at St. Matthew's you are helping the scattered members of the church."

CHURCH OF OUR SAVIOUR, PORTLAND.

A Layman's Work.

We have an interesting suburban work in the beautiful southeastern part of Portland, known as the Church of Our Saviour, Woodstock, of which Mr. Courtland Parker gives the following account:

"I have to report that the Woodstock Mission has not made any material increase in attendance either at church services or Sunday school during the past year. The attendance has been more regular, however, and a better feeling of interest is manifest. The total receipts in money from all sources, has nearly doubled. In addition to this, the Choir Guild has covered the floor of the outer large reading-room with oil cloth, while the Woman's Guild has made purchases out of their own funds of an aisle carpet, and one set of hangings and dorsal for the altar. This latter organization, which is composed of fourteen ladies, has met quite regularly every week, and their work has been of a general and charitable character. Besides what is stated above, they have made one quilt for the Good Samaritan Hospital, clothing for their poor children and done work for a number of persons in the neighborhood, for which a small charge was made. The average attendance at these weekly meetings has been about eight. Their total earnings in money have been over $20, thus giving a grand total of money receipts in the mission from all sources, of over $106. The ladies have deposited $10 of their earnings in a savings bank at interest, thus showing their provident disposition for future contingencies.

"The lack of interest in church and Sunday school is a general one, peculiar to all localities, and as the increase of population has been scarcely perceptible, and rather the other way, I do not deem the condition a cause for discouragement, but shall be hopeful for the future and content to hold our own. We have a nice church property, convenient of access, and located on a commanding site, within the city limits, and feel confident there is in store for us a better condition in the future. My report to the Convention will show that 58 services have been held during the year, at eleven of which Holy Communion has been celebrated. We have had fifty-two sessions of the Sunday school, and the Choir Guild has met on Wednesday evening of each week for the practice of music. I have been present at all the services, both of church and Sunday school, and at all the meetings of the Choir and Woman's Guilds. The effort to establish a kindergarten class failed, owing to the extreme bad weather, as it was impossible for the little ones to come out. There is promise of a renewal of this work, however, in the near future.

"In addition to this I may state in regard to my duties as Lay Reader, that I have read services part of the year at the Woodmere Mission. Also in the Church of the Good Shepherd and at St. Andrew's Mission, during the vacancy in the Rectorship, during Lent, and also at All Saint's Mission, Portland, during week days, while the Minister in charge was absent for several weeks.

"We have paid this year for missions:

Lenten Collection, Good Samaritan Hospital.....	$ 3.50
Assessment for Episcopal Fund and Convention Expenses.	2.60
General Missions	2.40
Lenten Offering	3.09
Total	$11.59

I think this report of lay work is very encouraging, and an example of what might be done in other places in the same way. Woodstock is one of the most beautiful suburbs of our whole city, and is soon bound to have a large population, and we are doing well thus to lay the foundations for future growth and extension.

SEAMEN'S INSTITUTE.

There is a church work going on here, in the Port of Portland, known as the Seamen's institute, in charge of a Clergyman of the English Church, which, though not in any sense a Diocesan institution, is in such close relations with our church, and doing such a needed and useful work, that I have asked the Minister in charge—the Rev. C. Cummins Bruce—to furnish me with a brief account of their last year's doings. He writes me that during the last twelve months the work of the Seamen's Institute has been steadily maintained; regular visits have been paid to every ship that has visited the port, and a good proportion of the crews have been regular visitors of the institute.

In addition to the usual weekly services, special services have been held for French and German seamen, and the attendance has been encouraging.

With a view to providing healthy recreation many entertainments have been arranged during the winter months, and we gratefully acknowledge the help that we have received towards this end.

The chapel has been enriched by the addition of an oak Holy Table, which was dedicated by the Bishop on September 19, in memory of Mrs. Kerry, and those who perished in the wreck of the British ship Foyledale. The institute has been repainted and redecorated at considerable expense, and the improvements have added greatly to its comfort and usefulness.

A special effort has been made to enroll volunteers pledged to promote Sunday worship at sea, and we believe that in many instances these pledges are being faithfully kept.

The following figures may serve to indicate the character and extent of the work during the last year:

362 Visits to ships.
186 Services held in institute.
119 Concerts and entertainments.
41 Visits to Hospitals.
2830 Attendances of seamen at services.
3477 Attendances of seamen at entertainments.
8467 Attendances of seamen at institute.

At an evening service on May 20 Bishop Morris confirmed two young men from one of the English vessels in port.

THE CHINESE MISSION.

We are carrying on a work among the Chinese of this city of which I have the following report from the Rev. J. E. H. Simpson:

"Last October the Board of Missions of the Diocese took under its fostering care the Chinese Mission at 233 Second street, and undertook to raise $50.00 per month for the support of a native Chinese Missionary. A committee, consisting of the Rev. J. E. H. Simpson, chairman; the Rev. Dr. Morrison, and the Rev. Dr. VanWaters, was appointed to oversee and develop the work. Appeals were made in several of the city churches, Mr. Lee To, the Missionary, making addresses to the congregations. The result has been that most of the money necessary was raised. But as time has slipped away it has been found that not all the promises have been fulfilled; and there is now a deficit of about $60.00. Mr. Andrew Kan has very generously advanced the money needed, without any assurance that it would be refunded to him. The church in Oregon should pay this deficiency and provide the $50.00 per month with regularity. It is a small sum, and the work is most important and encouraging. Mrs. E. J. Tarbox has been most efficient as a collector for the mission, and has gone from one end of the town to the other, and from place to place, often repeating her journeys, in order to gather in the subscriptions that have been promised.

"The list of pupils for last month numbers 32, and that of teachers, 14.

"Mr. Lee To, the Missionary in charge, has done excellent work, and is taking a course of instruction for confirmation.

"Mr. Lee To makes the following report.

"JOHN E. H. SIMPSON, In Charge."

Report Given By the Superintendent of the Episcopal Chinese Mission, 233 Second Street, Portland, Oregon.

"Last winter the Episcopal Churches of Portland did much to support and encourage the Chinese Mission at No. 233 Second street, securing a native Missionary to take charge of the work and more than half a dozen teachers are earnestly engaged in teaching every night during the week, except Saturday. We observe that this teaching, supplemented by religious instruction, makes better citizens of the Chinese, as they receive the doctrine of Christ willingly, and so their souls grow more into His likeness.

There are at present about one hundred names enrolled on the records of the mission, with an average of twenty-five in regular attendance. Twelve are professed Christians, and recently two were added by baptism. A private prayer meeting is conducted by the Chinese women on Sunday afternoons. On Sunday evening at 7 P. M. the regular Sunday school is held, followed by the preaching services, which continue till 9 P. M. In the Sunday school a good many of the pupils have learned to repeat by heart the Creed, the Lord's prayer and the Ten Commandments. Drs. Simpson, Morrison and VanWaters are the leading officers of the mission, the first of whom occasionally gives very interesting lectures, which are highly appreciated. Brother Andrew Kan is acting treasurer, and Mrs. Tarbox is worker-at-large.

"The mission work in the United States is doing much for the betterment of the Chinese race, who find our mission schools a welcome harbor, when they come as strangers among us. But in the mission school they find a ready hand, and a Christian heart to advise and help them in their need and loneliness. These young men are continually going back to China, and so the influences of the Gospel are by them carried to the Orient. And so the influence of our mission schools goes on and on. Do not forget, therefore, to pray for us, and to visit our mission, and may the Father bless you for what you have already done in this good work of His Kingdom. LEE TO, Pastor."

EASTERN OREGON.

Some very interesting and encouraging work has been done in the way of erecting new churches at Hood River, Heppner, and Sumpter. At Hood River we had the gift of a well-located lot of ground and have erected and paid for a very nice moderate sized church, costing about $1100.00. Hood River is an improving and growing town, and we are none too early in beginning our work there. It is but twenty-two miles from The Dalles, and the two places can readily be served by the same Clergyman, who will get an important part of his support from the new and growing field at Hood River. While in charge of these two places, Mr. Lake made frequent missionary excursions into the wide country south of The Dalles, of which he says:

"During the past year I have held services at Antelope, a hundred miles southeast of The Dalles, Hay Creek 125 miles, Prineville 150 miles and Bend 175 miles in the same direction.

"Among the fields unoccupied as yet by a settled Clergyman, there is none of greater promise than this. The population is rapidly increasing, as some of the finest wheat land in Oregon is on the agency plains at the edge of the Warm Springs Reservation. Then, at Bend, over 200,000 acres of land is to be irrigated under the Carey act within the next few years. Over 20,000 people will be settled around that place alone.

"Besides this agricultural land, there is the timber which will be sawed at Bend as soon as the Columbia Southern Railroad is extended, which will be by next year. In all these towns through this section we have church people. The work has made a start, and at Antelope we have a congregation of interested people. The services of a Clergyman are demanded at once, and I believe, from my own experience, his ministrations would meet with a ready response. Now is the time for action, as other Christian bodies are seizing the opportunities that are rightfully ours."

REBUILDING OF HEPPNER CHURCH.

Concerning this most gratifying work, the Rev. Mr. Short writes to the Pacific Churchman as follows:

"The dreadful disaster of last June, which swept away the pretty church at Heppner, and over one half of the members of that growing mission, has not destroyed, but rather increased the spiritual influence of the church in Morrow County.

"Left with no church building, and a debt of $800 on that, the Missionary in charge, the Rev. W. E. Potwine, determined to build again, and to use this calamity as it was probably intended to be, a starting point for further progress. With God's grace, their efforts have been crowned with unusual success.

"On June 29 the corner stone of the old church, found some distance away from its former resting place, was re-laid amidst the most solemn surroundings.

"A new site, some three blocks from the former location, has been purchased with the aid of outside help, and a very substantial stone foundation was laid, high and solid enough it is believed, to withstand even such an unusual occurrence as that of last June.

"On this foundation the contractors have built a neat and churchly edifice about 50x30, with a roomy robing-room at the side of the chancel, which will also serve as a Prophet's Chamber for the Minister in charge.

"This building, costing some $3,500 all paid for, and so far completed as to be ready for occupancy, was consecrated by Bishop Morris on Sunday, April 10, by the significant name of "All Saints' Memorial," the sermon being preached by the Rector of Grace Church, Astoria, a life-long friend of the Priest in charge, and whose privilege it had been to lay the corner stone.

"It is significant that this work in Heppner is the outgrowth of week-day ministrations only, as the town is too far away to be reached from Pendleton, the Priest's headquarters, on a Sunday, except very rarely.

"The mission with its loyal devotion to the church, is a living example of what self-sacrifice, however circumscribed, can accomplish.

"The lines 'Towering o'er the wrecks of time,' found herein a new illustration.

"To look on the face of those rescued from the flood and piles of debris, pinned down by telegraph poles, encased in hail, escaping through a mere hole in the side of a roof, and to see the depth of pleading desire for comfort in the eyes of all (the whole community), who had lost their nearest and dearest, could not but make us hope that 'this house which is called by His name' would bring peace to every worshipper from the very Prince of Peace.

"The town is rapidly recovering from the awful calamity, but it will be years before its former beauty and permanent appearance can be manifest.

Mr. Potwine left for his far away home on Monday, the 11th, with as unanimous expressions of good-will as ever accompanied a Rector, and with as much heartfelt regret at the severance of such a long Rectorship."

I would like to add to this reference to Mr. Potwine's leaving this work he had been engaged in for twenty-two years, with most commendable zeal, and signal success, that this "heartfelt regret" has gone throughout the whole Diocese, at the loss of such a competent and faithful Minister of the church, with the hope that he may yet come back to his "first love."

The Rev. Mr. Warren, now doing effective work at Heppner and the surrounding neighborhood, writes me as follows: "As regards the new Memorial Church, the finishing touches to inside varnishing were given yesterday, and when I went in about midday and found the decorators gone, and was able to take a glance around at the complete appearance and array of furniture, fittings and ornaments, my heart did, indeed—and must always rejoice—that through the overruling and merciful providence and will of God I have been permitted to have a share and to take a part in the erection of such a place for the presence and worship of God, Most High, and to the glory of His most holy name.

It is, indeed, a glorious little church, of its kind—intensely beautiful in its simplicity and brightness. I wish all donors toward this good work could see the result, so fair and bright. There could not be, I suppose, a dissenting voice, as to its worth, in view of its new title: "All Saints' Memorial Church." The ladies of the Church Guild, who have been most thorough and earnest throughout in helping on the building fund, are now taking in hand kneelers and cushions, and seem to desire that their "house of God" shall be as perfect as they can make it. The blessing of our Heavenly Father has been so graciously and freely showered upon us, that our hopes are bright, and our trust sure; that as He has blessed us hitherto, so He will continue to bless and guide us henceforth wherein we should go.

Beside Mr. Warren's duties at Heppner, he has been doing a very interesting and commendable work among the scattered ranches throughout the wide outlying region of Morrow and Gilliam Counties. He says:

"In regard to conditions at Monument and Sand Hollow, I found all encouraging and hopeful, when I visited both points, about a fortnight and three weeks since. If there was a probability of a confirmation being held at Monument about early autumn time, I know that a small class could be got together, prepared and presented, as I hope to spend two Sundays and several week days there during the month of August; but that journey over the mountains and through miles of dust clouds is often a veritable terror. However, as long as I may continue to locate at Heppner, the prospect of looking up the good and faithful church folks every now and then, who are located about both these outlying portions of the Heppner district, will give a hearty relish to any work or service which by the providential mercy and grace of God I may be enabled to do, among them.

"I would like to add that the mission rejoices in a most energetic and peculiarly efficient Guild, who have done and still are doing much to set church matters and progress on a clear and favorable basis.

Pendleton, LaGrande, Cove, Union and Baker City are still without resident Pastors. Negotiations are under way, however, which it is thought will shortly provide these for some of these points. While the Cove has been without a resident Minister, the income of the French Endowment Fund has been carefully saved and added to the original capital, thus making up the loss from the decreasing rate of interest. Mr. William H. Webb, a candidate for Holy Orders, coming from the Diocese of Michigan, is doing very encouraging lay work at Cove and Union, and in a few months will be admitted to Deacon's Orders and continue in charge of these places, where there is an important and promising field.

SUMPTER, OREGON.

The Rev. Mr. Goodhart writes me of his work:

"I have just returned from the East, where, as you know, I have been for the past eight months. Primarily, I went East to receive medical aid for a very troublesome throat. But while there I did a great deal of speaking in some of the large cities on the Atlantic seaboard.

"My throat is somewhat improved, but I am far from being entirely well. Since our last Convention we have built a nice little church in Sumpter. It stands at the intersection of the two principal streets; is substantially built, and nicely painted. Inside, the walls are tastefully papered and painted; there are fine cushioned benches, the chancel is carpeted and has a large window of stained glass. The whole edifice looks attractive and churchly. It cost $1,400, exclusive of the lot, and it is entirely free from debt. We are, therefore, now ready for consecration.

"Our splendid reading-room and clubhouse is open once more, and we confidently expect, will accomplish much good in this community. This institution, which adjoins our new church, is an up-to-date establishment in every respect. It is elegantly papered and painted; has electric lights, telephone and city water. It is furnished with the best daily papers, magazines and a variety of clean games. It has a good library and a splendid bathroom, and, on the whole, it is a cozy and comfortable building in every respect, well calculated to make a home for the homeless and transient miners, and to afford recreation and pleasure to all those who care to come. It is absolutely free to all, and everyone is made welcome.

"The Blue Mountain American, a paper published in Sumpter, among other things, had this to say regarding this branch of our work:

"'A Most Complete Institution.'

"The free reading-room and clubhouse, which was planned, designed and erected by the Rev. M. J. Goodheart, has been completed, and, to say the least, is a splendid building. This spacious and comfortable edifice is fitted up with electric lights, etc., etc. There is not another city in the state of Oregon where such a unique institution exists, and the people of Sumpter will not fail to show their gratitude and full appreciation of such grand work, and the Episcopal Church deserves the thanks and good will of every citizen who has the welfare of the community at heart.'

"This is not bad from a mining paper.

"We started work in this town about two years ago. Then we did not own a dollar's worth of property. Now the church owns several buildings, amounting in value to the comfortable sum of $6000!

"Of course, spiritual work in a mining town must ever face many and varied difficulties and perplexities, but all things considered, we have done fairly well for this mountainous region, and we may rightly take courage, trust in God, and forge ahead."

ALBANY—CORVALLIS.

Coming back to the western side of the Diocese, Mr. Coney writes of the work, new to him, at Albany and Corvallis, as follows:

"Albany: The work here is making steady progress. This town is a stronghold of sectarianism, and there has been much prejudice against the church. This, however, is gradually being overcome. The attendance at the services is increasing, and there is a decided improvement in the offerings. A Sunday school has been organized, and the children are learning the 'things which a Christian ought to know, and believe to his soul's health.'"

"Albany is a busy town, and has a future before it. The church will doubtless make steady progress among the thoughtful people.

"Corvallis: This is an important field in one regard because of the opportunity for influence among the students of the State Agricultural College, as well as in the town. The work has been reorganized, and the prospects for the future are bright. The work of the past three months has resulted in steady growth. Two adults and four children have been baptized, and four people confirmed. An executive committee has been elected to care for the business side of the mission.

The people are giving of their money liberally, and the committee expect to have the church painted this summer. This will entail an expenditure of about $100. The Sunday school has been revived, and is doing an important work. The Church choir, under the direction of Mrs. Pernot, is doing excellent work.

"Our ideal is Jesus Christ; our aim to build up Character after the pattern He has given us.

ROSEBURG.

Mr. Lake, who has lately removed from The Dalles in Eastern Oregon to Douglas County in the southern part of the Diocese, writes that at Roseburg the work has taken on new life with the coming of the Clergyman. The Guild has largely increased its membership, and the other work of the church is in good condition. Many new people connected with the S. P. R. R. have come here. We will have our share. The outlook is promising in every way.

At Oakland the determination is to do the best we can, and work hard for the upbuilding of the church. No better spirit than this could animate any mission or parish.

At Cottage Grove the outlook is more hopeful than at any time this year. Business prospects are better, and with the coming of summer, the town will improve very fast. Our numbers show a slight increase. We are going to make strenuous efforts to build the new church this year, and, if possible, have it free from debt. Then the church work will be on a permanent basis.

COOS BAY AND SOUTHERN COAST MISSIONS.

The Missionary, the Rev. William Horsfall, reports that the condition of the district is about the same as last year. In consequence of removals within the field, some of the missions have decreased in membership, while others have gained. The work of the church progresses slowly but steadily. Besides the contributions, collections for Diocesan and general church purposes, as well as for home support, money has been raised for the purposes, as well as for home support, money has been raised for the preservation of the church property. The buildings, etc. (with the exception of Bandon) are in a good state of repair. At Marshfield, Emmanuel Church and rectory have been reshingled and the walls and roofs painted. The interior of St. James' Church, Coquille City, is finished and the work of painting the outside walls is expected to commence very shortly. At Bandon, the winter storms caused serious damage to the fence around the church property (area, one acre), and also washed away the paint on the south and west walls and bell tower of St. John's Church. The intention is (if business improves) to repair the damage, but at present the work of restoration is put off for the lack of means.

The usual monthly round of services has gone on without interruption throughout the year, and the attendances have been regular. Arrangements are in contemplation for services to be held in the new industrial center of North Bend, on Coos Bay, where the settled population (about 1000) is rapidly increasing.

The "apportionments" for general missions, for Empire City, Bandon and Coquille City have been paid in full. The balance at Marshfield is receiving attention and will be sent to Mr. Thomas some time about August 1. The amounts at Gardiner and Port Orford I expect to collect on my next visit to those places.

ASTORIA AND PARTS ADJACENT.

The Rev. Mr. Short reports that the work of Grace Church and her four missions has gone on regularly, and with few interruptions since last Convention. Regular services have been held at the Parish church. All the Saints' and Holy Days have been observed with the services provided by the Book of Common Prayer.

Congregations have seldom been wanting, though mostly composed of women. All in all, the work is encouraging.

The vestry have the providing for expensive street improvements before them as an extra financial task this year, but the nature of the improvements will greatly enhance the value of our property.

About the first of March the Rev. J. E. Forsyth, a Clergyman in Deacon's Orders from the Alexandria Seminary, Virginia, arrived to assist in the growing labors of this interesting field. He is to have charge of the missions at Holy Innocents, at Skipanon, Hammond and Seaside and exchange with the Rector when he visits the missions for the celebrating of the Holy Communion. This gives a long needed help, but is none too early in enabling the overworked Rector to attack the growing problems for Christ and His church, which face us here in the city of Astoria. A more inviting field never lay before a laborer. May grace be given us to hold high the standard and minister the means faithfully. As soon as Mr. Forsyth can be advanced to the priesthood he will feel more independent and be enabled to branch out in more directions and carry the full ministrations of our Saviour to the scattered sheep.

We welcome him with open arms and are encouraged by the thought of all this field being systematically visited and ministered to.

Last summer the young ladies of the St. Agnes' Guild put in the chancel a beautiful lectern of brass and oak as a memorial to their Rector's late wife. An appropriate service was held and an inspiring address delivered by the Rev. W. E. Potwine.

We must not close this account of Grace Church without placing here on the Journal the loss we have sustained in the death of our beloved mother in Israel, Mrs. Marion Miner Trenchard, whose death occurred late in January. Seldom are parishes blessed with such as she. May God comfort her bereaved family, and give us all grace to follow her good example.

At Holy Innocents many needed improvements have been made and paid for. The chapel has been moved to a more solid and convenient location, a new basement for Guilds and Sunday school put in, electric lights have been installed and water brought in. The Davenport Fund Trustees presented us with a pair of beautiful brass candlesticks which brighten and lighten the chancel in a most churchly way.

The Young Ladies' Guild have over $125 on hand towards a new organ, and the vestry have increased the stipend to $20 instead of $18 per month. With the vigorous activity manifest on every hand we expect Holy Innocents to be admitted as a parish very soon, we hope by next Convention.

At Skipanon and at Seaside the services have been regularly held, and both show signs of renewed life at the prospect of Sunday services two or three times a month. Our new assistant in his walk from Seaside to Warrenton, "with a call at every house on the road" has begun the very kind of work which will bring forth fruit.

At St. Thomas, Skipanon, the location of the building is a menace, but the matter is rapidly shaping itself to a satisfactory solution.

New families are coming into the place for whom the church must be ready with her ministrations.

At Hammond, regular monthly services have been held in the Methodist house of worship ever since last June. A nominal rent was charged and now those interested are negotiating for the procuring of a building of our own.

Good congregations have greeted us every service, even on the wettest of nights, with always some helpful hand and hearts from Ft. Stevens, both among the officers and their families, and the men. Some six or eight baptisms and three confirmations are reported from this growing community. The promise for a strong mission here is very flattering.

But we could make use of three more men in Northwestern Oregon, and we pray the Lord of the Harvest to send some of our Oregon boys, who know the field, into the harvest. If these words could but reach the boys we would sound them with trumpet tones, "If you are looking for opportunities for hard work or heroism, here they are in earnest, and a crown attached to each!"

We had an inspiring service at Holy Innocents last evening, when nine persons were baptized—two adults and seven children. If we could make our preaching as inspiring as the services, what wonders could be wrought!

I would like to add to these statements of Mr. Short, that in addition to their mitebox offerings for general missions, the Sunday school children of Grace Church, Astoria, have given $200 during the past four years, for a scholarship in Tokio Divinity School, Japan, as a memorial to their Rector's beloved wife. A beautiful illustration of that true missionary spirit that does not limit its interests and its efforts to its own Diocese or parish.

SCHOOLS.

St. Helen's Hall has had an enrollment of 66 boarding pupils and 82 day pupils during the past year. The financial report of this institution will appear in the proper place during the proceedings of the Convention. As you are doubtless aware, this school is to be placed under the care of the Sisterhood of St. John the Baptist, an order of highly accomplished and Godly women of the Episcopal Church, whose lives are devotedly given, without compensation, to good works. They bring to the administration of this institution the most expert knowledge of up-to-date educational methods. Associated with them will be the very best teachers available. It is their steadfast purpose that St. Helen's Hall shall be one of the great schools of the country. Renowned not merely for a splendid educational standard, but also for the development in its pupils of sturdy health, grace of carriage, industry, neatness, refinement in speech, manners and character. These are the qualities which adorn true womanhood. It is to be hoped no narrow and foolish prejudice upon the part of any of our people or patrons will be manifested against this religious order of self-sacrificing women, pledged unto God for the accomplishment of this noble work. Let us rally to their aid as they seek to add to the glory of Him whom they serve, and our beloved church in Oregon.

The Bishop Scott Academy has had a total of 84 pupils enrolled during the year. The average of resident pupils being about 40.

This school has had the Rev. E. N. Dew as Chaplain. His moral and spiritual influence have been very helpful to the boys, resulting in a confirmation class of ten. The time has come when we must make an effort to pay the large mortgage debt upon the school property. Since we have not sufficient means for paying interest which is constantly increasing the principal of our debt it becomes necessary to take steps to prevent a continuation of this condition. After most careful consideration upon the part of your Bishop and the School Board, it seems wise and prudent to sell this school property; pay our debt and secure a new location somewhere in the suburbs of our city. In order to accomplish our purpose we must suspend the school pending its future establishment on a safe foundation with a new and thoroughly modern equipment. When the property shall be sold, at its present estimated value, we would have $75,000 or $80,000 after payment of all debts. If this fund be allowed to accumulate we shall, in time, have a splendid sum to build and endow the school. It has been clearly demonstrated that we need an endowment of considerable proportions. The interruption is distressing, but it appears to be inevitable.

I was very slow to adopt this view of the case, and willing to do everything in my power to avert the suspension of the school, promising to raise $1500 to meet the deficiency, but even with that, the present continuance of the school seems to be beyond our power. It is earnestly hoped that if the Convention concludes to postpone the work of the school, it will be but for a short time till it opens its doors again, fully equipped for its important work.

THE GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL.

Concerning the work in this important institution Dr. Josephi, the competent and careful treasurer, writes me:

"When the 'C. H. Lewis Memorial' building and the central portion of the new west wing of the hospital were completed in 1901 the site of the north section of the partly completed wing was left unoccupied, because financial reasons rendered it unwise to proceed with the building. Since 1901, an effort has been made to secure and husband funds for the special purpose of completing the west wing, by erecting the north section, and such annex as may be necessary for an adequate elevator for hospital service. This fund has been growing until it now has reached the handsome sum of ($24,000.00) twenty-four thousand dollars. The improvements contemplated will, when completed, with the elevator service, bring into use the wards and rooms on the third floor of the west wing, which are now practically unavailable for hospital use. They will also add to the equipment a fine, modern operating room and eight private rooms in the north section. Thus there will be added accommodation for about fifteen private and twenty to twenty-four ward cases.

"The cost of the new section will be about $35,000, so that there is at present a deficiency of about $11,000, to meet which we shall have to depend largely upon the liberality of those who may be disposed to help along a work so obviously meritorious. The course of events at the hospital has been marked by the sad circumstance of the serious and long continued illness of the faithful superintendent, Mrs. Emma J. Wakerman, who has devoted so many years to this work. As it was thought best by Mrs. Wakerman's physicians that she should go East for a time, the Board of Hospital Trustees granted her leave of absence in the earnest hope that her health may be restored and that she may again resume her duties at the hospital. Meantime the Board appointed Miss Emily L. Loveridge, the Chief of the Training School, as Acting Superintendent."

I have in addition to this a report from the chaperon of the nurses, as follows:

"The general work of the hospital has gone on smoothly and with the usual thoroughness. During almost the entire year the capacity of the building has been tested to its full extent; extra beds have been put up in the wards and also in the private parlor of the officials to accommodate those that would not be turned away. The children's cots have been full almost all the time, the little inmates as usual winning their way to the hearts of the nurses and friends of the house to such an extent that parting from them when health was restored was a real sorrow.

"The religious ministrations faithfully kept up by the Chaplain, the Rev. William R. Powell, the kindly personal interest and the words "fitly spoken" have been very much appreciated by the patients, many of whom are not only sick, but also far away from home and friends. The Sunday services regularly held in the different wards, enable those too ill to go to the temporary chapel, to participate in that of which otherwise they would be denied. The music kindly furnished by individual singers and by the choir boys of Trinity and St. Mark's Churches has been a source of great comfort as well as enjoyment of the patients.

"The constantly growing need of more room and more appliances generally, is about to be in a measure relieved by the erection this summer of another wing, on the northwest section of one which will complete the entire west wing of the hospital. The addition will contain a large and modern surgery and an elevator, so long needed to utilize the now vacant wards on the top floor of the Lewis Memorial. The money for the work has so far been secured that only a small debt will be incurred by the Board to complete it. The building of this wing has been made possible not as much by the general prosperity of the hospital, as by the careful and economical management of the funds on the part of the superintendent and the pains-taking treasurer of the Board of Trustees.

"The building of the east wing to complete the entire hospital would be a grand and lasting gift for some liberal-minded citizen to make and we trust the day is not far off when it will be done."

The number of patients treated the past year is 2254, of 27 different nationalities, and 30 different religious denominations. The whole number of days' care given to these patients was 36,816, of which 9122, one-quarter, was given to part-paying or entirely free patients.

"Blessed be the man that provideth for the sick and needy:

THE CHILDREN'S LENTEN OFFERING FOR GENERAL MISSIONS.

It was with great pleasure that I was enabled to remit to the Treasurer of the General Board of Missions the sum of $830.00 for the Lenten offering of our Sunday schools and family boxes. According to our last report we have in round numbers, 1500 Sunday school children, and this sum of $830.00 makes the "per capita" offering of 55 cents, which, considering the number of vacant churches and missions, is a very creditable record, and I am very grateful to the Clergy and teachers through whose interest and efforts this good sum was secured. If the 420,000 Sunday school children in our whole church give at this rate they would make the grand sum of $236,000 in place of the $110,000 of last year. I mention this in no spirit of boastfulness, for we might have done better than this—and I hope will do so next year, but it is a result in every way encouraging, and shows what will come of an earnest, united effort, every Sunday school in the Diocese having taken a willing share in this work through the zealous lead of their Rectors and teachers.

This report shows a great falling off in contributions to Diocesan Missions from those of last year, partly due to the absence of a General Missionary, and partly to the absence of a Rector in so many congregations. But still, in my judgment, this sum of $474.67 is far too small for us to expect from this Diocese for such a work. The reports just read from our Missionaries will give some idea of the vast extent of our Diocesan field and the urgency of the call for more laborers.

We have in round numbers 2800 communicants, of whom the Diocesan Board is asking half a dollar each, annually, but have never received more than at the rate of a third of a dollar. We know very well, as I said last year, that there are a few of our people whose generous contributions are measured by no such trifling sum as a half dollar a year; but our great failing and weakness is that the majority—the mass of our members—take little or no interest in this work, and contribute nothing toward it at all, in proportion to their ability, or to its needs. I think our people should be more fully and more frequently instructed as to what Diocesan Missions really are, how wide the field and how crying the need for immediate possession and cultivation. And no proper response will come from these representations until the sense of individual responsibility is brought home to every member of the church, and until the teaching of such words as these is accepted as Divine and immutable truth: "Ye shall not appear before the Lord empty; every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord, thy God, which He hath given thee."

In connection with this subject of Diocesan Missionary work I desire to make a further report of the sums I have paid out for the same work from contributions that have come to me from Eastern friends, most of whom never saw Oregon, and none of whom have a dollar of interest in its worldly affairs. From such contributions I have been enabled to appropriate to:

Church buildings, rectories, purchase of lots, improvements and furniture	$ 4,545.14.
Missionaries and their families.....	3,957.27
All Saints' Kindergarten.....	486.10.
Theological education	220.00.
Printing circulars and literature.....	187.59.
Scholarships St. Helen's Hall and Bishop Scott Academy	267.60.
Taxes, interest and insurance.....	672.70.
Miscellaneous	388.33.
Total	<hr/> $10,724.73.

It is through these contributions from our generous-hearted friends in distant parts of the country that we have been enabled to carry on our Diocesan work as at present, without which it would go back to a sad and discouraging condition. I want to make an additional statement in regard to the $468.00 expended upon the kindergarten school. Of this sum $139.80 was contributed by the King's Daughters, Trinity Auxilliary, and other persons whom I have been able to interest in this work, leaving the sum of $10,548 coming from Eastern friends.

THE MISSIONARY APPORTIONMENT:

I take this opportunity to speak of the "apportionment" for general missions; while I am very glad to be able to report a much more encouraging condition than at this time last year. Up to the first of June last year but $250 had been paid in, while, according to special information which I have, our churches have already paid $637, leaving the moderate sum of $438 yet to be paid between this and the 30th of August.

I want to emphasize the fact that there are left but a part of the month of June, with the months of July and August—the summer holidays, when the congregations are off to the mountains and sea shore—in which to make up this remaining sum, and I beg the Clergy not to put it off a day longer than they can help. Referring to this expenditure of over $10,000 of Eastern money in our Diocesan work, I want it understood that this has no reference whatever to the appropriations of the General Board, amounting this year to $2400.00. So that our receipts from outside sources, for our home work this year amount to the large sum of $12,948.00. And we are asked to give back, as it were, in return for this generous help the small sum of 40 cents for each communicant! Will you not see to it, my brethren, Clerical and lay, communicants and non-communicants, that this sum is promptly made up, and that your Diocese of Oregon be not one of the delinquents in this high duty and blessed privilege!

BISHOPCROFT.

A liberally-disposed lady, long time a resident of Portland, has made improvements upon and around the Bishopcroft property, worth mentioning in this connection. This consists of a stone wall around the sides of the lots on which the dwelling stands, with a concrete pavement of the same extent of 266 feet, making a permanent improvement of much value. If some one, following this example, would appropriate $1000 to the erection of a modest fire-proof building on the same grounds for our fine Diocesan Library, which now in its wooden shelter, might go to ashes any day or night, they would accomplish a most desirable work, and, may be, save these treasures from what otherwise would be certain and utter destruction.

THE SEVENTH MISSIONARY DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

In the month of April last there was held in Los Angeles, California, a meeting of the Conference of the Seventh Missionary District of our Church, which should not be passed by on this occasion unnoticed.

It was not possible for me to attend, and only one Clerical Deputy was found ready and willing to go—the Rector of Trinity Church, Portland—so that our Diocese was not unrepresented. We have but brief reports of the subjects presented for consideration, but many of them were of first importance in the present work of our church, and I think it would have been to the edification of us all if we had been present at this Conference. Among the subjects which attracted my special attention are such as these: "Sheperding the Unsheperded" and the value and importance of church schools. Problems of the city, and problems of the country.

Bishop Johnson in his address on "Problems of the City" asserted that the churches were spending too much money on buildings and music. He says we can do with plainer churches and with less music, and all other desired things will follow after we have the men. The Rev. Mr. Browne, of Santa Monica, warmly advocated church schools, expressing his belief that until the church was brought into touch with every community, by the influence of church schools, they were losing a golden opportunity, and playing into the hands of the Roman Catholic schools. That church was not so much concerned about supporting schools and colleges, as supporting schools for the moulding of sentiment. But the discussion which has most interested me was that concerning the "Shepherding of the Unsheperded."

The great question is, said Bishop Kendrick, of New Mexico and Arizona, how are we to get at our ranches, men in mining camps and other out of the way places? Our scattered church people must take care of themselves and of each other; the men must be lay readers, and the women must start Sunday schools. Arch Deacon Emery mentioned that in the Diocese of California one great aid in reaching the unshepherded is lay readers, of which that Diocese, he said, possesses quite a number, among them being men who are cashiers in banks and school-teachers, who are working every day at their business, and yet on Sunday were doing a splendid work in this manner. What ample opportunities have we here in Oregon for this same kind of work? I regard this city of Portland, just now, a place where the "sheep without a shepherd" need special efforts to bring them back to the fold from which, for one cause or another, they have wandered far away. In connection with the Rev. Mr. Powell, I have lately been looking over a pretty wide section of the city in the neighborhood of the former site of Trinity Church; and we propose shortly to begin missionary work there in a very humble way, with a Sunday school and Sunday morning service. At least twenty church families have already been found whose members are not in working touch with any parish organization in the city.

There are also many children who do not attend the up-town Sunday schools, or whose parents, for good reasons, are unwilling to have them go so far.

A temporary solution of the problem involved has been found in the lease of a room near the corner of Sixth and Oak streets, which is being fitted up in an attractive manner for the desired purpose. It is expected to be ready for occupancy by the first Sunday in July. The Rev. W. R. Powell will be in charge of this work, and I bespeak for him the cordial sympathy and co-operation of all those who may be interested in maintaining our hold upon a part of the city in which the church was first planted and which is endeared to many church people by hallowed memories and sacred associations. I think Mr. Powell's plans and expectations are moderate and feasible, and have good promise of success. No one will be urged in any way to take part in this venture of faith, but all who find themselves in sympathy with it and willingly offer, their services or their money will be welcomed. The name proposed is "The Chapel of the Transfiguration." At first there will be morning service each Sunday preceded by the Sunday school.

This is a work, my brethren, which is to be pursued in a quiet and unostentatious way, and from which no sudden nor surprising results are to be expected. It is a work mainly among the poor and for the poor—for the lost and scattered sheep, who have wandered from the fold, or have never had a spiritual shepherd's care and oversight. The Gospel for next Sunday—the third after Trinity—has that Parable of our Blessed Lord's, in which he says, "What man of you having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness and go after that which is lost until he find it"—until he find it! And having found it, did not drive it back with violence and cruelty, but bore it upon his own shoulders with tenderness and joy back to its forsaken home, calling together his friends and neighbors, saying unto them, "Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost." To which the Divine Shepherd adds, "I say unto you that likewise joy shall be in Heaven, over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons that need no repentance."

What a picture, my brethren, do these words present for our consideration, who have received the office of a shepherd in the Church of God, from the Author of this parable! Have we this same anxiety and concern for our lost and scattered sheep? Are we following them in their wanderings through this wilderness of a naughty world until we find them and then bearing them back to the home and household of God on our shoulders, as it were, with all love and tenderness, giving joy in the presence of the Angels of God, for the repentance of one sinner?

These are questions that we will do well often to ask ourselves.

And again, when John the Baptist's disciples came to our Lord with the question: "Art thou He that should come, or look we for another?", the crowning evidence given of His being the true Messiah, was not that the blind were made to see, the lame to walk, the deaf to hear and the dead raised; but that to the poor the Gospel was preached. Can we say this today of the Church of God throughout this land? Can we bring this evidence to the doubtful and disbelieving of the divine character, of a multitude of organizations claiming to be churches, that specially to the poor the Gospel is preached? Can the Protestant Episcopal Church in Oregon substantiate its claim to be a divine institution, on this ground, that its chief and most conspicuous work is that of preaching the Gospel to the poor? Are they the poor that crowd our churches here in this busy and bustling city? Are they the lost and wandering sheep, with no man to care for their souls, that we have gathered into these beautiful and comfortable temples? And is the joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth that which comes of your work and mine, my fellow-shepherds?

God grant that the true answers to these questions may be such as will give us peace and joy when we come to be judged and rewarded according to the works done in the body.

Beside this review of the work of the past year, there are several matters concerning the work that is before us, of which I should like to speak, but can only do so now in a partial way. I have long thought that in our parochial work, and in our sermons we do not give the prominence to the order of services prepared for us in the Prayer Book; we do not follow the ecclesiastical year as we should in the presentation of the topics it provides for our pulpit teachings. This suggests a subject that would alone furnish material for a discourse as long as my whole address, and which I am not now going to enlarge upon.

But from my own observation and experience I have the feeling that the "ecclesiastical year," as we call it, is not preached as it should be for the instruction and edification of our people. And I believe that the more it is studied by our Clergy the more carefully it is followed from the first Sunday in Advent to the twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity, the richer it will become in topics for their sermons, and better and better for the edification of their congregations.

While I was thinking over this subject I came across the following extract from the recent address of the Bishop of Western New York to his Diocese, in which he deplores the indifference shown towards the great festival of Ascension Day. He says:

"We rejoice that in our time the custom has been born which closes exchanges and banks and wholesale places of business and many a minor shop on the Savior's birthday and on His deathday. We are happy, too, that many Christians of other names are moving their people to an honoring and a commemoration of the hallowed days which are linked to these momentous events in the life of the God-man among us. But the event which opened the doors of heaven to man—which elevated human nature to the abode of angels and the triune God—which finally consummated the restoration of a lost race, that is apparently little apprehended and wholly disregarded in those quarters—nay, by our privileged selves who are members of this uncorrupt Branch of Christ's Catholic Church. I am informed that in many parts of our land that very honorable fraternity, the Knights Templar, on Ascension Day gathers its members under the roof of God's House, and amid swelling anthems, and with swords drawn from the scabbard and lifted on high during the recital of the Catholic Creed of Nicaea proclaim their faith in and their self-surrendered allegiance to their risen and ascended Master and King. Is not such an example of a body which is semi-religious in its character, worthy the imitation of every man of us who is signed with the sign of the Cross, and who made the same confession and profession at the font when the hallowed dew of baptism sparkled on the brow? Brethren of the laity here present, I address you, and through you all who kneel at our altars—will you not aim to show your thankfulness at yearly return of that great feast-day to the Redeeming Lord of your life for His Ascension on high which completed and determined man's hope of heaven and of an endless life, by seeking His Temple, and there offering Him prayer and service, sacrifice and praise—a fitting memorial for that, His unspeakable gift."

There is another matter of which I wish to speak, which may not seem of very great importance, but yet which, overlooked and neglected, may run on into more serious and harmful results. I mean the growing habit of applying names to the various services of the church different from those in the Prayer Book, such as "Matins" and "Evensong," in place of morning and evening prayer. This is a practice for which I can find no reason whatever, and hope it will not be allowed to prevail in this Diocese. I find that one of our Eastern Bishops, Bishop Paret, of Maryland, has the same feeling in this regard, and thus speaks of it to his students and young Clergy in his "Plain Talks on the Prayer Book." He says:

"And here, as I close these counsels, I repeat one of the thoughts I gave to you in the beginning. Be American. The Book of Common Prayer, as authorized by this National Church, is the standard and rule for us. We must lovingly acknowledge and be thankful for our kinship and descent from the grand Church of England, but we need not cling to all its national usages and terms. I dislike, as an American, the growing custom of speaking of Matins (whether with one "t" or two) and Evensong. I look in vain for such words in our Prayer Book or Canons. I find only plain "Morning Prayer" and "Evening Prayer." And there are other instances. We can be Anglican in the best sense of that word without slavish imitation of everything English. We can be catholic in the best sense of that word, without picking and choosing at our own fancy. Among all that was done or said in the first four centuries, the grand essentials of Catholicity have been handed on to us, freed from things trifling and temporary and applied to our own times and needs in our own Book of Common Prayer. You cannot be too familiar with your Bible. You cannot be too familiar with your Prayer Book, as the best exponent of the Bible and your best guide in pastoral work."

Let this Prayer Book be our guide in all such matters as these, and we shall not be entrapped by any of these dangerous novelties in doctrine or practice.

I think it will appear from this review of our past year's work, my brethren, that some gain has been made—though far less than we might desire. We have learned long since that this is a work of slow and progressive character, and not one of haste and rapidity. The Kingdom of Heaven on Earth does not challenge men's allegiance and devotion on the ground of its visible and signal triumphs, but rather for its hidden and spiritual powers that work out their best results in silence and secrecy.

We profess to walk by faith and not by sight. God's promises and purposes are the same whether we reap fruit from our labors or not. We are told of the great leader of the Hebrews that "he endured as seeing Him who is invisible," and so with his task unfinished, the promised land unreached, when his hour came, he went forth to his lonely death and hidden grave with the same confidence in God, the same unfaltering faith in His promises, as when he and Israel sang the song of triumph by the Red Sea. So must we possess our souls if we would accomplish like results and share in like rewards. If I were asked what, in my judgment, we most needed in the great work to which we have been appointed, I would say the grace of continuance; the grace to work on in the old paths, and largely by the old methods. God's Church was long ago furnished with what is required in her great mission. Her inspired word, her appointed Ministry and Sacraments, her worship, her culture and training for the young, her holy fellowship and good works for all, make an armory that will seldom fail in our great warfare. Blessed results will surely come, early or late, in the faithful and continuous use of these divine agencies. We are not so unwise, surely, as to suppose that there are no burdens to be borne, no hardships to be endured, no disappointments to be met with in such a warfare as this. Neither can we be so weak as to expect that our enemies will come to cheer and comfort us in our disappointment. We shall rather find that many of those whom we supposed were our friends, will shrink from any share in our burdens, and turn from us when we most need their aid and sympathy.

If it be true of any place or position in life that "every man shall bear his own burden" it is most surely true of the Christian Ministry. Well may we pity him who had not learned this lesson before he bowed his neck to this yoke. Let us be careful that we so stand in our lot and fulfill our task that we do no dishonor to our cause or to the Master whom we serve. Let us give no occasion to the weak and unworthy sentiment that we have too hard a place, and had long enough borne the burden and heat of the day; that we have earned by past toil and faithfulness, some easier and more honored place in the vineyard, and that others may now take up the heavy load we are anxious to lay down. Surely, surely, we have little realized the true blessedness of our calling if we can thus regard the poor services we are rendering. We must know that it is an honor and privilege far beyond earth's proudest gifts to be allowed the lowest and least place in this service, and that the reward and blessing infinitely outweigh our deserving.

Sometimes, indeed—

Fainting and footsore toil we in the way,
No manna glistens on the weary sod;
And yet, to earnest souls that kneel and pray,
There comes the Bread of God.

Resting beneath His shadow, cool and sweet,
We gain fresh strength for conflict with our foes;
And the lone desert, with its sultry heat,
Doth blossom as the rose."

How happy shall we be, if at last, when we stand before Him who has honored us with His service, it shall be ours to hear those words of everlasting benediction, "Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things; I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

JOURNAL
OF THE 16th Annual Convention

* * *

FIRST DAY.

Trinity Parish Chapel, Portland, Oregon, Thursday, June 16,
A. D. 1904.

The opening service of the Sixteenth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Oregon was held in Trinity Parish Chapel, Thursday, June 16, 1904, at 8 P. M.

The Rt. Rev. Frederick W. Keator, D. D., Bishop of the District of Olympia, read Evening Prayer.

The Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. B. Wistar Morris, D. D., then read his annual address. After the reading of part of the address, a recess was taken until the following morning at 9 o'clock.

SECOND DAY.

Friday, June 17, A. D. 1904.

At 9 o'clock, in Trinity Chapel, the Holy Communion was administered, the Rev. Dr. A. A. Morrison, being the celebrant. At 10 o'clock the Bishop of the Diocese completed the reading of his annual address. The Bishop called to the chair the Rev. D. E. Loveridge, of Eugene. The Secretary of the preceding Convention having handed his resignation to the Bishop, the Assistant Secretary, the Rev. H. D. Chambers, called the roll of the Clergy entitled to seats, of parishes and missions, and of the lay delegates. A quorum being present the chairman declared the Sixteenth Annual Convention duly organized. The Committee on Credentials made their report, "that the following list of lay delegates seem to be irregular and not in accordance with the Canons of the Diocese, namely, St. Matthew's, Portland, and Trinity, Ashland, lack evidence of being duly organized missions, and the certificates of St. Paul's, Salem; St. Stephen's, Baker City, and the Good Shepherd, Portland, show delegates or alternates who are not known to be communicants of the church. Later the delegates from St. Matthew's, Portland, and Trinity, Ashland, were granted seats in the Convention.

At 12 o'clock, noon, prayers for missions was said by the Rector of Trinity. The labors of the Acting Secretary, as District Missionary under the Bishop, would not permit him to act as permanent Secretary, the election fell upon the Rev. W. A. M. Breck of St. Matthew's, Portland.

The Secretary asked the Rev. H. D. Chambers to continue as Assistant.

RESOLUTION I.

On motion of the Rev. William S. Short it was Resolved, That the courtesies of the Convention, with the privileges of the house, be extended to the Rt. Revs., the Bishops of Spokane and Olympia, the Rev. Dr. Nevius of Olympia, the Rev. John Warren of England, the Rev. C. Cummins Bruce, Chaplain of the Seamen's Institute; the Rev. J. E. Forsyth, the Rev. E. N. Dew, the Rev. J. S. Budlong, the Rev. A. E. Bernays and Mr. F. O. Jones.

Recess taken for lunch until 1:30 P. M.

The various reports being presented, they were referred to the proper committees.

RESOLUTION II.

On motion of the Rev. J. E. H. Simpson, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the report of the School Board be taken out of the hands of the special committee and that it be considered by the Convention as a committee of the whole.

RESOLUTION III.

On motion of the Rev. W. R. Powell the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the report of the School Trustees be made the special order for 2:30 P. M. today, and that the Convention go into executive session at that hour, and that the visiting Clergy be invited to remain.

An amendment, offered by Mr. James Laidlaw, that that part of the motion referring to the executive session be stricken out, was lost. At 2:30 the Convention resolved itself into a committee of the whole in executive session with Dr. S. E. Joseph in the chair.

At 4:30, the hour for the laying of the corner stone of the new stone church for Trinity parish, the committee of the whole arose and reported progress, and the Convention took a recess until 5:30.

The corner stone of the new Trinity Church was laid by the Rt. Rev. B. Wistar Morris, D. D., of the Diocese of Oregon, in the presence of the visiting Bishops, Clergy, lay delegates and a large assemblage of the members and friends of Trinity parish. Addresses were made by Bishops Morris, Wells and Keator, referring to the fact that just 50 years ago today, June 17, 1854, Bishop Scott held the first Convocation of the Episcopal Church in this northwest corner of the United States.

At 5:30 the Convention reassembled, and again went into committee of the whole in executive session.

At 6:15 the committee of the whole arose, reported progress to the Convention and the chairman of the committee of the whole, Dr. S. E. Josephi, in behalf of the committee, recommended to the Convention the resolution of the Rev. P. K. Hammond, adopted by the committee of the whole.

RESOLUTION IV.

On motion of the Rev. P. K. Hammond the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Board of School Trustees be authorized, with the consent of the Bishop, if they consider it wise to sell the present Bishop Scott Academy property and reopen elsewhere as soon as practicable.

The Convention then adjourned until the following morning at 9 o'clock.

THIRD DAY.

Saturday, June 18, A. D. 1904.

Prayer was said at 9 A. M. by the chairman, the Rev. D. E. Loveridge, and the Convention called to order.

With the approval of the Bishop, the Rev. H. D. Chambers read a petition and resolution looking toward the division of the Diocese. After some discussion the matter was deferred until later.

The Convention again resolved itself into a committee of the whole, but with open doors, for the further consideration of the report of the Board of School Trustees relating to St. Helen's Hall. The committee of the whole then arose and reported to the Convention. The Convention then accepted the report of the Board of School Trustees, and it was placed on file.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The Board of School Trustees, by its Secretary, respectfully submits to the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon its report for the fiscal year ending May 31, 1904, and begs to attach hereto the following tabulated statements as a part hereof:

Reports of the Treasurer of the Board of receipts and disbursements.

Ledger balances, May 31, 1904.

List of securities held by the Board.

List of real property.

List of interest-bearing liabilities.

Estimate of general receipts and disbursements from current account for the year ending May 31, 1905.

Report of the principal of Bishop Scott Academy.

Report of the principal of Saint Helen's Hall.

An examination of the Treasurer's report will disclose the following general conditions for the year: The cash on hand has been reduced from $136.64 to $84.49, making a net loss of $52.15; real property to the extent of $11,300, being the Twentieth street frontage of the Bishop Scott Academy campus, has been sold; and the interest-bearing indebtedness of the Board has been increased by $2,000, making a net loss for the year and a reduction of assets of $13,352.15. This large loss may be attributed to the three items of interest, $2,671.29, payment on account of repurchase of lot heretofore sold to McNamara, $1,500, and loss on Bishop Scott Academy, $8,429, or a total of $12,629.

As also worthy of note in the Treasurer's report, the attention of the Convention is called to the large item of streets and sidewalks, for which $342.63 was disbursed in cash and a bonded indebtedness drawing 6 per cent. interest of $1,717.64 was incurred. The three cottages owned by the Board and the building at Twelfth and Main, known as the old Saint Helen's Hall building, show a satisfactory profit in receipts from rentals over repairs and maintenance. In this connection the Secretary would state that it has been his custom for the past two years to charge the rent paid for the annex to Saint Helen's Hall at 736 Main street, to the account of the building at Twelfth and Main, inasmuch as the latter building was occupied as an annex prior to the leasing of the house now occupied as an annex.

The results of the year's work at Bishop Scott Academy, so far as finances are concerned, are a source of bitter disappointment to the Board. It had been confidently hoped that the school would at least pay its expenses during the past year. An examination of the figures of the report of the Treasurer, the report of the Principal of Bishop Scott Academy and the Secretary's statement of the deficit for the past two years, will show that this is far from being the case. Notwithstanding an increase in the number of pupils in attendance the deficit for the year is estimated at $8,428, against $4,113 for the year before; the figures in both cases being taken from the report of the principal hereto attached, and eliminating in both cases the question of increase in assets such as furniture and fixtures, improvements and merchandise. It should also be noted in this connection that the expenditures in each year include payment of liabilities of the year before. The operation of the school without a deficit under the present management has, therefore, become at least problematic. The present financial condition of the Board, as may be seen from the financial statements and estimates hereto attached, is somewhat as follows: An interest-bearing indebtedness of $53,717.64, with outstanding floating indebtedness of approximately $3,500 more, an estimated shortage for the next twelve months in general disbursements over all receipts of $3,250, independent of the probable, if not inevitable, loss in the operation of the Bishop Scott Academy, should it be conducted. Under these circumstances the Board of School Trustees declines to recommend the continuance of the Academy and respectfully submits the matter to the consideration of this Convention. As heretofore stated, the large deficit for the year has been met only by the sale of a portion of the school property and an increase in the interest-bearing indebtedness of the Board. A continuation of this policy can have but one logical outcome, the loss of the entire property and utter disaster.

But two solutions of the present serious condition of affairs are apparent to the Board, either

First—A sale of sufficient property to pay off all indebtedness or at least to reduce it to a point where the interest charge can be carried by the income producing property, holding the remainder as a permanent endowment and relying upon the natural increase in value; or

Second—A sale of the Bishop Scott Academy property at as early a date as practicable, the payment of all indebtedness, the purchase of a new location for the Academy somewhere in the suburbs of Portland while the land may still be procured at a reasonable figure, and an accumulation of the net proceeds after the payment of all indebtedness and after the purchase of such a new site, until an endowment fund has been acquired, sufficiently large to enable the Diocese to re-establish the Academy upon a safe and more permanent foundation. The adoption of this policy necessarily carries with it the suspension of the school pending its accomplishment. It is believed that the figures given as estimated valuations of the real property of the Board in the list hereto attached are conservative. If the sum there named could within a reasonable time be derived from the sale of all the property so appraised, the entire mortgage indebtedness could be discharged, together with the debt of Bishop Scott Academy to Saint Helen's Hall and an endowment fund established of approximately $90,000, which invested in safe securities, should realize 5 per cent., or a total within ten years of $45,000, a sum sufficient for the construction of an academy upon a new site and with the endowment fund of $90,000 still intact.

With these suggestions the Board of School Trustees leaves the matter of the operation of Bishop Scott Academy to the Convention.

After thorough consideration of the question of a change in management of Saint Helen's Hall and an investigation which included the visit of one of the members of the Board to several Eastern cities, it was finally decided by the Board of School Trustees, with the express consent and approval of the Bishop of the Diocese, to place the school in charge of the Sisters of the community of St. John the Baptist. Sister Eliza Monica, Sister Superior, has been in Portland, engaged in the study and investigation of conditions preliminary to assuming charge, since Easter. It is confidently expected that the change in management will result in a more thorough accomplishment of the purpose for which a church school for girls exists. The Sisters in charge are highly educated and accomplished women whose unselfish lives and devotion to the work which they have undertaken, cannot but prove highly beneficial to the girls, the Diocese and the church at large. They have engaged a corps of teachers, all specialists in their departments. The most modern methods of education will be instituted and the standard of scholarship raised to a point where Saint Helen's Hall will rank as high as any school of its kind in the country.

For the retiring principal of the school the Board entertains none but the kindest sentiments and cordially wishes her every success and prosperity in her new work. Respectfully submitted,

JOHN K. KALLOCK, Secretary.

RESOLUTION V.

On motion of the Rev. D. E. Loveridge the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention advise and direct the deputies to the General Convention to act in harmony with the Bishop in any step taken looking toward the division of the Diocese of Oregon.

Petition on the Division of the Diocese.

Whereas, The Diocese of Oregon is divided into two parts by the Cascade Mountains, which extend from the northern to the southern boundary of the State of Oregon, leaving on the east side of said range of mountains more than two-thirds of the territory of the Diocese and the State of Oregon, said mountain range running in almost a southerly course from the northern to the southern boundary of the state, and

Whereas, There are in said eastern part of the diocese about 70,000 square miles of territory, with a population of 125,000, including the following as the principal towns thereof: The Dalles, with a population of about 5,000; Heppner, with 1,500 population; Baker City, with 7,000 population; La Grande, with

4,500 population; Pendleton, with 6,000 population; Sumpter with 2,000 population; Union, with 1,200 population, and many other small towns and villages; and

Whereas, The Church has within the territory on the east side of said mountain range ten church edifices and a number of rectories and a communicant membership of about 450; and

Whereas, There is but one self-supporting parish in that part of the Diocese, and said portion of the Diocese is as truly missionary ground as any missionary jurisdiction in the United States, and

Whereas, The climate in said Eastern part of this Diocese is very different from the climate in the Western part of the Diocese, and

Whereas, Said Eastern part of the Diocese will in time support a large population and is growing rapidly, and

Whereas, The Diocese of Oregon is unable to support and carry on the missionary work that is needed and will be needed in the Eastern part of the Diocese, and

Whereas, Said Eastern part of the Diocese is greatly in need of better and more efficient supervision than it now has or can obtain as a part of the Diocese of Oregon, there being at this time only one Clergyman in all that vast territory, and

Whereas, It would be better for that part of the Diocese and for the Church to have that portion of the state and Diocese set off as a separate missionary jurisdiction with a Missionary Bishop to have charge thereof. Therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon, That the General Convention that will assemble in Boston next October be and it is hereby asked and petitioned by this Convention to set off as a separate missionary jurisdiction all that part of the Diocese of Oregon that lies on the east side of the summit of the Cascade range of mountains in the State of Oregon, being all that part of Oregon east of the west boundaries of Klamath, Crook and Wasco Counties, and the Diocese of Oregon hereby consents thereto, and that the General Convention make such arrangements for episcopal supervision thereof as shall seem best to said General Convention. Carried.

H. D. CHAMBERS.

On motion, the order of business was suspended to fill the vacancies on the Board of Hospital Trustees, and the retiring members were nominated to succeed themselves for another term of three years, and, the rules being temporarily suspended, the Secretary was directed to cast the ballot for the Rev. J. E. H. Simpson and Dr. George F. Wilson. They were declared elected.

The chair appointed as tellers on all elections the Rev. C. H. Lake and the Rev. John Dawson.

The ballots for the delegates to the General Convention resulted in the election of the Rev. Dr. A. A. Morrison, the Rev. W. S. Short, the Rev. Dr. G. B. Van Waters, the Rev. J. E. H. Simpson, Dr. S. E. Josephi, Mr. C. H. Chandler, Mr. James Laidlaw and Mr. Frank Spittle.

The ballots for the alternate delegates to the General Convention resulted in the election of the Rev. P. K. Hammond, the Rev. William Coney, the Rev. M. J. Goodheart, the Rev. W. A. M. Breck, Mr. T. B. Keim, Mr. G. C. Nicholson, Mr. Frederic Townsend and Mr. John McCracken.

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTION VI.

Presented by the Rev. W. S. Short.

Whereas, There is a growing sentiment throughout the Church in favor of the use of the Revised Version of the Bible in public worship; and

Whereas, the Marginal Readings Bible authorized by the General Convention in 1901 has emphasized but not fully satisfied this sentiment; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of California hereby petitions the General Convention to take such action as may be necessary to permit the use of the Revised Version in the lessons in Morning and Evening Prayer.

The Secretary of the standing committee reported that they had conferred with the General Clergy Relief Fund toward merging the Diocesan Fund with the General Fund, and that they have succeeded, and offer the two following resolutions, which were adopted:

RESOLUTION VII.

Resolved, That the Bishop and standing committee of the Diocese of Oregon, as Trustees of the Clergy Relief Fund for the Diocese of Oregon, (known as the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergy), be, and they are hereby empowered to transfer, assign and set over unto the "Trustees of the Fund for the Relief of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, and of Aged, Infirm and Disabled Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." All and singular the moneys, invested funds, and property of every description held by the said Bishop and standing committee as Trustees of said Christmas Fund, to be held in trust by them, under such conditions, and subject to such reservations, as the said Bishop and standing committee shall by contract stipulate.

RESOLUTION VIII.

Resolved, That the Bishop and standing committee continue to act as custodian of the funds for Clergy Relief, reporting to the Convention each year the amount of contributions from parishes and missions and the needs as furnished by the Bishop, and the agent of the General Fund for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergy.

On motion of the Rev. W. S. Short it was Resolved, That the Secretary of the Diocese be directed to have the notice of the General Clergy Relief Fund inserted in the Journal annually.

The General Clergy Relief Fund, George C. Thomas, Treasurer, will title "the Trustees of the Fund for the Relief of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen and of Aged, Infirm and Disabled Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America." Remit to Rev. Alfred J. P. McClure, Assistant Treasurer, The Church House, Twelfth and Walnut streets, Philadelphia.

The Rev. John Dawson presented the report of the committee on the admission of new parishes; that they had examined the application of St. Stephen's mission, Baker City, to become a parish in connection with this Convention and the Diocese of Oregon, and all objections raised last year having been removed, we hereby recommend the said St. Stephen's mission, Baker City, Oregon, become a parish in union with this Convention. The report was adopted and St. Stephen's mission, Baker City, was received as a parish. The Rev. W. S. Short presented the report of the committee appointed to consider the report of the Treasurer of the Diocese, and says: "We regret to find so many parishes and missions on the delinquent list, both in the matter of Convention expenses, and also of the Episcopal Fund, and urge upon our people the importance of maintaining these funds systematically and as early in the year as possible. The Treasurer's report has been duly audited and found correct."

Portland, Ore., June 16, 1904.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon:

Herewith please find Treasurer's report for the year 1903 and 1904. As the Treasurer has only been able to obtain the cash book from the late Treasurer, he has been unable to take up the matter of any old delinquencies. The books for the year are closed May 31 for audit, therefor any moneys received during June arrive too late to have the parish taken from the delinquent list.

The Treasurer would suggest that the Clergy let him have the names of the parish treasurers or others who have charge of its funds, to whom he may apply when delinquent, thereby relieving the Clergy from trouble and annoyance, and assisting in making up his collections. Respectfully yours,

PAUL VAN FRIDAGH, Treasurer.

The Rev. W. S. Short, Secretary of the Diocesan Board of Missions, begs leave to report that he has no report to make, other than that two or three meetings have been held with hearty discussions.

RESOLUTION IX.

On motion of Mr. C. H. Chandler the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention of the Diocese of Oregon cordially endorses the resolution respecting the Church's work among seamen, passed at the Missionary Conference of the Seventh Missionary District, held at Los Angeles, California, in April last, and trusts that the Board of Missions will see fit to take action in the matter in accordance with the wishes of the petitioners.

Copy of the resolution passed at the Missionary Conference of the Seventh Missionary District at Los Angeles, April, 1904.

Whereas, To our great coast lines of the Atlantic and Pacific and our expanse of waters in the interior of the continent, recent events have added other vast seaboard lines, and the isthmian canal is to make what has been called a continuous coast line from the Atlantic to the Pacific; it is

Resolved, That this Conference respectfully petitions the Board of Missions to take into consideration more comprehensive and systematic provision for the men on our waters and to appoint, if in their judgment it seems wise, a standing commission, which shall be charged with the development and general oversight of a general work among the men on our vessels of the vast stretches of ocean and of the great inland lakes and rivers.

On motion of the Rev. William Horsfall of Marshfield the following resolution was offered, looking to the better representation of lay delegates to the Convention coming from a distance:

RESOLUTION X.

Resolved, That any parish or mission entitled to representation in the annual Convention, and having its church at a distance of more than 100 miles from the place where such Convention shall meet, may elect from time to time as one lay delegate, any male communicant of the church, resident within this Diocese, being of full age, though such communicant be not immediately connected with said parish, provided, that no lay delegate so elected shall represent more than one parish or mission.

Resolution X referred to committee on canons. Such committee reported as follows:

We, your committee, to whom was referred the resolution of the Rev. William Horsfall relative to representation of parishes and missions in this Convention, respectfully recommend the adoption of the same.

Committee.

After some discussion the resolution was laid on the table.

The report of the committee on the Rev. J. E. H. Simpson's paper on centralization of church funds, recommended the adoption of the following memorial to the General Convention. It was so adopted.

S. E. JOSEPHI.

Committee.

Whereas, That portion of the church known as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, is an autonomous body; subject to the laws of the State and the Nation, as are other local or national organizations; competent to legislate for itself and its members in matters ecclesiastical, and responsible to God, and to society, to administer its affairs in an honest, careful and business-like manner; and

Whereas, the said Church, as an autonomous body, has assumed the responsibility of publishing the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and of administering the Sacraments, in this land; and for the purpose of fulfilling this responsibility has formulated a "Constitution" and body of "Canon Law," under which Dioceses, parishes and missions are organized, institutions established, services authorized, discipline outlined and a body of ministers commissioned to do her work, and

Whereas, the erection of such Dioceses, parishes, missions, institutions, services, discipline and ministry involves definite material responsibilities, and requires that the autonomous body which called them into being, supervise their interests, superintend their operations, and make reasonable provision for their support, and

Whereas, The Protestant Episcopal Church finds its corporate existence, as an executive body, only once in three years in General Convention, and is, therefore, debarred from exercising a continuous supervision of its material responsibilities, maintaining a constant oversight of its affairs, or providing regularly for the support of its institutions and its Clergy; and

Whereas, The Constitution and Canons of said Church make no provision for the support of Dioceses, parishes, ordinary institutions, or regular Clergy, and, with the exception of domestic and foreign missions and three or four general objects, entirely ignoring the subject of Church support, and making neither recommendation nor suggestion, and

Whereas, The material obligations called into existence by the autonomous Church are utterly unprovided for by the Church, and allowed to fall as they may upon local Bishops, Diocesan Boards, individual Clergymen, parish vestries and Woman's Guilds, thus placing, in large measure, upon the Bishops and Clergy of the Church financial and business burdens, which divert their energies from the true work of the ministry and

Whereas, The present resources of the Church are broken up into many thousands of separate funds for the support of Clergy, parishes and local institutions, each mission, parish, Diocese and institution being a distinct and solitary entity, having no business relation one with the other or with the Church at large; each being (except in the case of missions) solely responsible for its own material success; the result being that in the struggle for existence, co-operative action, unity of purpose and common sympathy are utterly impossible, each individual organization being forced to work for itself and its own interests primarily, rather than for the general Church. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon petition the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, to take into consideration the whole question of the responsibility of the Church, as an autonomous body, toward the Clergy she has called out of the world and commissioned to do her work, and towards the institutions she has created.

The Rev. Dr. Morrison offered the Noon-day Prayer for Missions. The Rev. P. K. Hammond presented the report of the committee on the report of the Board of Hospital Trustees, which was adopted, as follows:

Your committee respectfully submit that they have, with great interest and satisfaction, read the report of the Board, indicating, as it does, the steady growth and increasing usefulness of the Good Samaritan Hospital. We rejoice that work is to be immediately begun on another portion of the new Hospital buildings, and submit the following resolutions:

RESOLUTION XI.

Resolved, That this Convention extends to the Board of Hospital Trustees and the management of the Hospital, its hearty thanks and commendation for their efficient administration, and pledge ourselves to increasingly endeavor to sustain the work of the Good Samaritan Hospital, realizing as we do, that an increase in its material equipment, necessitates an increasing interest and support on the part of the Diocese.

RESOLUTION XII.

Resolved, That we join unreservedly with the Board of Trustees in their expression of sympathy with Mrs. Wakeman in her illness and in the hope for her restoration to health and the work she has done in such a self-sacrificing spirit. Also we would place on record our appreciation of the work of Dr. W. H. Saylor, and our deep sense of the loss sustained by his death.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOSPITAL TRUSTEES, DIOCESE OF OREGON, JUNE, 1904.

To the Convention: On behalf of the Board of Hospital Trustees of the Diocese of Oregon I beg leave to report that the Hospital has had a prosperous and satisfactory year. The fund for the completion of the north section of the west wing of the new Hospital has reached the sum of $24,000. With this amount in hand, and the reasonable probability that several thousand dollars will be added to it through the efforts of the Ladies' Aid committee and the regular earnings of the Hospital, it has been decided to begin construction, and the executive committee has been empowered to act. It is expected that about July 1 the work will be begun, the contract already having been let.

The Cottage Sinking Fund, created some years ago, to indemnify the Board against the deterioration of the property through natural causes has reached the figure of $5,000.

Two sad events mark the year:

The serious illness of Mrs. Wakeman, who for so many years has been the efficient superintendent of the Hospital, has been a source of sorrow and regret. It is hoped that Mrs. Wakeman will soon be restored to health and enabled to resume her position in the Hospital. In the meantime Miss Loveridge has been appointed acting superintendent.

The death of Dr. Saylor has removed from the medical staff one who for many years has been a faithful and ardent supporter of the Hospital. Hosts of friends and patients will miss his kindly face and genial personality.

The retiring members of the Board are clerical, the Rev. J. E. H. Simpson, and lay, Dr. George Wilson. These vacancies it will be the duty of this Convention to fill.

The Treasurer's financial report is appended hereto.

JNO. E. H. SIMPSON, Secretary.

S. E. Josephi, Treasurer, in account with the Board of Hospital Trustees:

Convention took a recess until 1:30.

The rules of the Convention being temporarily suspended, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for Mr. Paul Van Fridagh as Treasurer of the Diocese of Oregon.

Dr. S. E. Josephi moved that the report of the Board of Equalization be taken from the files and referred to the committee on report of Trustees of the Episcopal Fund. So adopted.

RESOLUTION XII.

On motion of Mr. G. C. Nicholson the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Convention be instructed to have 500 copies of the Convention Journal printed, containing the Bishop's address and business of the Convention.

RESOLUTION XIII.

On motion of Mr. C. H. Chandler the following resolution was adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That this Convention place on record its appreciation of the long years of valuable service rendered to the Diocese and the Church by the Rev. W. E. Potwine, who, as Secretary of the Convention and a member of the various boards of the Diocese, has contributed so greatly to the carrying on of the work of the Master's Kingdom in the Diocese of Oregon, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to our Reverend Brother in Christ by the Secretary of the Convention.

Report of standing committee read and placed on file:

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Oregon, submit the following report of its official acts since its last report in 1903:

June 30, 1903.

The committee organized itself by the election of Rev. Geo. B. Van Waters, D. D., president and Mr. James S. Reed, secretary and treasurer of the Christmas Fund.

November 5, 1903, consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Edwin Stevens Lines, D. D., as Bishop of the Diocese of Newark.

By instruction of the committee the secretary conferred with the Rev. Dr. Chas. McLean as to certain amounts said to be due him by the Diocesan Board of Missions and the result of said conference was referred to said board, for its consideration. The secretary presented correspondence from the Rev. A. A. McClure, assistant treasurer of the General Clergy Relief Fund relating to the consolidation of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergy with that fund.

This matter was assigned to a special committee to inquire into, and draft proper resolutions for submission to the next Convention.

May 24, 1904, consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Richard Henry Nelson as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Albany.

The special committee appointed to negotiate with the trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund made its report in writing, which was adopted and referred to the Secretary of the Convention for presentation to that body. The committee considered the application of Mr. Frank Owen Jones for admission to the Order of Deacons and favorably recommended Mr. Jones to the Bishop of the Diocese for ordination.

Correspondence between the secretary and the Bishop of the Diocese, relating to Diocesan matters was received and placed on file.

JAMES S. REED,

June 8, 1904.

Secretary.

The rules being suspended the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for the present members of the standing committee, namely, the Rev. G. B. Van Waters, the Rev. W. S. Short, the Rev. A. A. Morrison, Mr. Frank Spittle, Dr. S. E. Josephi, and Mr. J. S. Reed, which being done, they were duly declared elected.

The ballots for filling the vacancies on the Board of School Trustees resulted in the election of the Rev. P. K. Hammond for one year, the Rev. Dr. G. B. Van Waters for three years, Mr. Frederic Townsend for one year and Mr. T. B. Keim for three years.

The Bishop appointed the examining chaplains as follows: The Rev. Dr. A. A. Morrison, the Rev. P. K. Hammond, and the Rev. W. S. Short.

The Bishop appointed the following Clergy as an ecclesiastical court: The Rev. D. E. Loveridge, the Rev. T. N. Wilson and the Rev. John Dawson.

REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMITTEE.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon:

Your Auditing Committee begs to report that Mr. Burton was unable, from business engagements, to take part in the audit of the accounts and securities of the various Treasurers, which we have audited as carefully as possible, checking receipts as far as practicable.

After indorsement the accounts have been returned to the respective Treasurers for presentation to the Convention. We beg to submit the following observations:

A.

Your Committee has carefully audited the accounts of Mr. James S. Reed, Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergy and of the Bishop Morris Jubilee Fund.

We find them correct and accompanied with vouchers for all payments.

According to statement, the funds are in a satisfactory condition, and in the case of the Christmas Fund, balance of cash on hand has been placed on special deposit.

With reference to the Jubilee Fund, which remains exactly in the same condition as last year, drawing no interest, there does not appear to be any good reason why this should be the case.

The pledges referred to, amounting to $411 were reported "good" in 1899, but so far the Treasurer does not appear to have been able to carry out recommendations and place them in some form so as to make them of value to the Fund.

B.

We have examined and audited the accounts of Mr. Paul Van Fridagh as Treasurer of the Diocese, and find them correct, all payments being vouched for.

A large number of congregations are in arrears for Convention and Episcopal assessments.

C.

We have examined and checked the accounts of the Secretary of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund and find them correct.

We also find the statement of principal account to be correct.

D.

The accounts of Dr. S. E. Josephi, Treasurer of the Board of Hospital Trustees, have been carefully examined and checked with the vouchers and we have also examined and checked the hospital accounts, finding vouchers for each payment.

Everything has been found correct. We have also checked the statement of securities and investments, and find them to be in a very satisfactory condition. Every endowment fund is kept separate and due provision is made by sinking fund for depreciation of house property.

E.

The general accounts of the Treasurer of the Board of School Trustees have been presented in a very much improved form, highly creditable to the Treasurer. We have audited and checked them with his vouchers, finding them correct and have also examined the securities held by the board and find the statements correct.

Statements of accounts of Bishop Scott Academy and St. Helen's Hall have not been presented to us.

JAMES LAIDLAW,
J. C. ROBINSON.

Portland, June 15, 1904.

Auditors.

Report of auditing committee adopted.

The chair appointed the auditing committee of follows: Mr. James Laidlaw, Mr. J. C. Robinson and Mr. T. B. Keim.

RESOLUTION XIV.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. G. B. Van Waters the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the hearty thanks of this Convention be, and they are hereby tendered to the Rector, vestry, choirmaster, choir, ladies and sexton of Trinity parish for the admirable arrangements made and carried out for the entertainment of the members of this body.

RESOLUTION XV.

On motion of the Rev. M. J. Goodheart the following resolution was adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That a hearty vote of thanks and deep appreciation of this Convention be tendered to the visiting Bishops of Spokane and Olympia for their presence with us and for their sympathy and help rendered to this Convention during its sessions. The rules being suspended, the Secretary was directed to cast the ballot for the Rev. Dr. G. B. Van Waters to fill the vacancy on the Board of Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and Dr. Van Waters was declared duly elected.

On motion of the Rev. J. E. H. Simpson, Mr. A. C. Newill was granted the floor of the Convention.

RESOLUTION XVI.

On motion of the Rev. W. S. Short the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Convention be empowered to correct Canon II. Section I., when next printed, so as to read, "Section 7, of Canon XVIII.," instead of "Section 7, of Canon XIV.," as it now reads.

The Bishop appointed as members of the Board of Equalization, Dr. S. E. Josephi and Mr. H. D. Ramsdell. The rules being suspended, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for the Rev. P. K. Hammond and Mr. Frederic Townsend to fill the vacancies on the Board of Missions.

Report of the Episcopal Fund adopted and placed on file.

The committee appointed to report on the report of the Board of Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, beg leave to state that the only report submitted for our consideration is the financial statement of the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board, the correctness of which has been duly certified to by the auditing committee.

According to the statement no material changes have been made in the condition of the principal fund.

Regarding delinquencies in assessments for Episcopal Fund we deem it essential that these should be equalized and collected as soon as practicable. In view of the fact that the Board of Equalization reported that it could not obtain necessary data from the Treasurer of the Diocese, upon which to base an intelligent report, we would urge upon the Treasurer the necessity of furnishing such information as early as possible, and we recommend that the matter of equalizing delinquent assessments for the Episcopal Fund be again referred to the Board of Equalization with power to act.

We have thus paid all annuities for the fiscal year and the fund has increased $265.25. During the year the "McIntosh" and "Episcopal Fund" loans were paid off.

A new loan was made to the Episcopal Fund by the purchase of a note for $1,000, bearing interest at 7 per cent, from Richard H. Thornton.

For the purpose of receiving some income on sums uninvested a transfer of $5,500 from Ladd & Tilton to Canadian Bank of Commerce was made during the year. This has earned some interest and will continue to do so, providing a more satisfactory investment.

The report of the Board of Equalization was adopted and placed on file.

To the Convention, Diocese of Oregon:

The undersigned, your committee on equalization, who were instructed, under Resolution No. 146 (Convention Journal, 1903) to consider all delinquencies on special funds, for which assessments are made by this Convention and report its recommendations to the Convention, beg leave to report:

In pursuance with the resolution, we have repeatedly made application to the Treasurer of the Diocese for a list of the delinquencies in detail and have, upon each occasion, been met with the statement that the books and accounts of the former Diocesan Treasurer, left with the present Treasurer, contain no such list; further, that all attempts of the present Treasurer to obtain a statement of the matter had been unavailing, owing to the lack of success in establishing communication with the former Treasurer. As late as the present date, application for the required list was made to the present Treasurer, but without avail, for the reason above stated.

We feel quite sure that the situation referred to above is the result of some misunderstanding incident to the change of Treasurers, the retired one of whom has, we are informed, been traveling from place to place during the past year, in the performance of his business engagements.

However this may be, the fact remains that we have not been able to obtain the official list of delinquencies, without which any attempt to equalize the same is impracticable.

We are of the opinion that these delinquencies should be cleared up within a reasonable period, either by the plan proposed by the last Convention or some other, and deem it proper that this Convention should have knowledge of the present status of the matter and the reason why progress has not been made.

The apportionment of the assessments for Convention and Episcopal funds for the past year was duly made and transmitted to the Secretary of the Diocese. Respectfully submitted,

HORACE D. RAMSDELL.

Woman's Auxillary

Diocese of Oregon

DIOCESAN OFFICERS.

President—Mrs. A. R. Hill, Hill Military Academy, Portland.

Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. Belle J. Sellwood, 753 Marshall Street, Portland.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Oregon Branch of the Woman's Auxillary to the Board of Missions was held in All Saints' Chapel, Portland, on Thursday, June 16. At 10:30 A. M. the Holy Communion was administered, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Olympia, being the celebrant, assisted by the Rev. J. S. Budlong, the missionary in charge. The address was made by the Bishop of Olympia. The offertory was sung by Mrs. Keater. The church was filled and the service was in every way uplifting and encouraging. The offering amounted to $20.61.

At the close of the service the Diocesan Secretary organized the meeting—the Rev. Mr. Budlong making a cordial address of welcome to the members, friends and delegates. The secretary read the minutes of the last annual meeting and called the roll of the branches, fifteen of which were represented by eighty members and representatives. At 12:30 all present were invited to repair to the Parish House, where a very inviting luncheon was served by the ladies of the mission; more than 150 partook of the hospitality. At 2 o'clock the afternoon session convened. The 672d hymn was sung and appropriate collects said. Reports followed from all the branches—both junior and senior—all showing growth and interest. The Diocesan secretary read a full report of money and work done, and said that large or small as it was, she hoped that in every case it represented the faithful and conscientious effort of each officer and the best service and gifts of every member under their leadership. She urged the organization of more branches, laying stress upon the importance of training the young along missionary lines and fitting them to take their place in the ranks of workers as soon as vacancies occur. She spoke of the apportionment the United Offering of 1904 and the fund for Diocesan missions, and urged the officers to see to it that all work should be of a missionary and not parochial character. She closed with an earnest appeal for a more general endeavor on the part of the clergy and the members of the Auxillary to make every meeting of their branches a season of greater spiritual strengthening—and larger growth in missionary intelligence—through personal reading and study, through frequent meetings at the Holy Table and through prayer. Several very interesting addresses were made during the afternoon by Rev. Mr. Brock of St. Matthew's Church, Portland; C. H. Lake of St. George's Church, Roseburg; John Warren of Heppner, Wm. Horsfall of Marshfield, Dr. Nevins of Washington, Bishop Morris and Bishop Keater. Bishop Wells of Spokane was expected to be present and make an address, and it was with general regret that the announcement was received that he could not reach Portland in time to be present at the meeting. Mrs. Belle J. Sellwood was elected a delegate to represent the Oregon Branch at the Triennial in Boston Oct. 6th, 1904.

After the usual resolutions of thanks the 580th hymn was sung with much spirit, and the benediction was said by the Bishop of Olympia. It was a cause of great satisfaction to the members of the Auxillary to have with them during the whole day two bishops and a large number of the clergy.

Seventeenth Annual Convention

1905

My Brethren of the Convention:

I come to you on this occasion with very little strength of body or mind, and shall be compelled to omit my usual reports from the missionaries of the Diocese, and much of the details of the work of the past year, that I should like to give special attention to. It has been a year of much encouragement in the way of increase in our number of clergy. Two have been added by ordination, and eight have been received from other Dioceses.

Those two ordained to the Diaconate are the Rev. F. O. Jones, missionary at Newport and Toledo; and the Rev. W. H. Webb at Cove and Union. Those received from other Dioceses are the Rev. Dr. Robert Hope, from the Diocese of Pittsburg, now in charge of All Saints' Mission, Portland; the Rev. Geo. Taylor Griffith, from the Diocese of Springfield, now at Baker City and Sumpter; the Rev. Henry Dixon Jones, from the Diocese of Western Michigan, now Rector of the Church of the Redeemer, Pendleton; the Rev. Upton H. Gibbs, from the District of Sacramento, now Rector of St. Peter's Church, La Grande; the Rev. H. Clinton Collins, from the District of Spokane, now Rector of St. Paul's Church, The Dalles; the Rev. Frederick C. Williams, from the District of Spokane, now missionary at Grants Pass and Medford; the Rev. Barr Gifford Lee, from the Diocese of California, now Rector of St. Paul's Church, Salem, and the Rev. Horace Marion Ramsay, from the Diocese of California, now in charge of St. Stephen's Chapel, Portland. Of this number of ten new names added to our list, the following have completed the six calendar months' residence required by the canons and are entitled to a seat and a vote in the Convention: Messrs. Hope, F. O. Jones, Gibbs and Henry Dixon Jones. In another week's time the Rev. Mr. Griffith, of Baker City, will have completed his canonical residence.

The Rev. E. T. Simpson, having been absent from the Diocese about a year doing good work in Honolulu, has accepted the position of Diocesan missionary, and his name should be replaced in the list of Canonical Clergy. While we gladly report this increase in our Clerical force, we know that there is still demand for more missionaries in the vast field that lies about us, and should ever with devout and earnest hearts unite in that petition of the Litany, that it would please God to send forth laborers into His Harvest.

For the details of the year's work I shall leave you mainly to the reports of the various Boards and Trustees, only referring briefly to some new matters worthy of special notice.

Of course you know that St. Helen's Hall for the past year has been under the management of members of the Sisterhood of St. John the Baptist, whose headquarters are in the East. On general principles, I am always anxious about changes in rectorships and school teachers, and looked forward with some concern as to the results of this radical change in the management of our girls' school. I am happy to say, however, that my anxiety was groundless, and that these teachers have brought to this important work superior qualifications, with a spirit of earnestness, and devotion to their high calling, worthy of all praise; and that the results of their first year's management of the school are most satisfactory, giving an outlook for the future of much encouragement. They have had 36 boarding pupils and 122 day pupils, making their full enrollment 158 pupils. Four have been baptized and four confirmed, with several others looking forward to the early reception of this rite. Their contributions to church work well deserve to be mentioned. Their Lenten offering for General Missions was $45.00; and they also gave $31.00 for missionary work in Mr. Horsfall's field of Coos and Curry counties; and $15.00 for improvements in their own chapel—making a sum total of $91.00, raised by their efforts of restraint and self-denial, well worthy of commendation. I wish more of our people had been present at the recent graduating exercises; to witness the deportment of these 158 school children, to hear the excellent address of our neighbor, the Bishop of Olympia, and to be assured that St. Helen's Hall was a religious church school of the highest order.

The missionary work of the Diocese is a topic which I should very much like to speak of at some length, had I the required strength. Never was it more inviting and promising, and never called with a louder voice upon both clergy and their people to give themselves earnestly and hopefully to this large and growing work. This subject might be treated of under two headings—City and Country. The city of Portland with its rapid growth in population, and outspreading of its suburbs, in every direction, presents a field for missionary effort that should arouse the attention and interest of every member of the church resident therein. Among the hundreds of families now crowding into Portland from other states as well as from our own there are large numbers of men, women and children, who need immediate pastoral care and oversight. There is a down town district thickly populated, covering a section of the city safely estimated at nearly a mile square, from the riverfront westward, in which we have not a single Church, Sunday School, nor missionary work whatever, except that recently undertaken by what is known as Transfiguration Chapel, under the care of the Rev. Mr. Powell. I called attention to this undertaking in my address a year ago, stating that it would be pursued in a quiet and unostentatious way, without expecting any sudden or surprising results—a work mainly for the lost and scattered sheep who had wandered from the paternal fold, or who had never had a true shepherd's care and oversight. I am happy to say that that work has gone on, through this its first year, with much to encourage all who are in any way connected with it.

Mr. Powell presented a class of eleven persons to me for confirmation at the chapel on the 24th of May, and two days after he took me to the northern part of the city, to confirm the sick wife of a poor working man, born in the mother Church of England. This confirmation class of 12 persons, mostly adults, is largely the result of that "house to house" visiting and teaching which St. Paul reminds the Ephesian Elders was characteristic of his work among them. It shews what a large field there is, for just that kind of work, here in our city, and as I say, should call out the interest and sympathy of all our people. The building which the Transfiguration Chapel has been using has been sold, and another one must be obtained in the near neighborhood if this kind of work is to go on. For the present the Marquam Theatre has been secured for Sunday morning services during this summer at least. There will thus be a down town place of worship offered the strangers and visitors who will be crowding our city, and glad to find the services of their own church within their reach. It is hoped that out of this will grow some permanent church work in that neglected "down town" district. Mr. Powell tells me that he has a list of forty-five families with whom the Chapel of the Transfiguration has come in touch, and who are already more or less connected with its work. These families have no relation to any other parish in the city, and are scarcely if at all known to the city rectors. I would say that according to my view of this work, there are more than forty-five other families whose names are not on his list, who have wandered from the heavenly fold in which they were born and baptized—made members of Christ, children of God and inheritors of the kingdom of heaven—now as far away from their heavenly inheritance as if their homes were in heathen lands. Who is to bring these lost and scattered sheep back to their Father's Fold?

The Good Samaritan Hospital

There has been so much new work done at the Good Samaritan Hospital this year that I could not well pass it by without some special reference. The north extension of the west wing of the hospital, which was begun last summer, is now practically completed at a cost of about $35,000, exclusive of the cost of finishing and equipment of the main surgery for which a special gift of $12,500 was given, by Mrs. C. H. Lewis ($5000) and Miss Mary H. Couch ($7500). Through this generous gift the surgery in the north extension has been finished and furnished in the most modern way, to fit it for its special purpose, and will be designated as "The John H. and Caroline Couch Memorial." Furniture for the newly completed rooms, halls and wards has been purchased at a cost of about $3500. An elevator affords access to the floors of the new building as well as those of the old, and renders accessible the third story heretofore out of use, for care of patients. The new building and the elevator service bring into use fourteen additional private rooms and two wards. It is very gratifying to state that, with the exception of about one thousand dollars, funds are in hand to pay the total expense of the improvements, without having incurred any additional debt for this purpose. Extensive street improvements contiguous to the hospital grounds have created a considerable debt, however, which the board has not been able to meet because of the demands in the direction of the new building. The board therefore availed itself of the benefit of the "bonding act" to the amount of about six thousand dollars which sum, bearing six per cent interest, is due the city. This, with the sum of about $1000 due on the building, represents the total indebtedness of the Board of Hospital Trustees.

These details of hospital work have been furnished me by Dr. Josephi, who has for so many years been the competent and laborious Treasurer of the Board; and they show an improved condition and enlargement of the hospital of a most gratifying character. You will observe that it brings into use fourteen additional private rooms and two entire wards, providing comfortably for thirty-eight more patients. It makes, therefore, one of the largest church hospitals in our whole country, and should call out the gratitude of all our people towards those two generous hearted women, through whose liberality this has been brought about. As Miss Loveridge informs me, the hospital this past year has cared for 2753 patients, who have been of 23 different nationalities, and 24 different religious beliefs. Of these patients 521 paid in part and 376 were entirely free.

The Rev. Mr. Powell, the Hospital Chaplain, writes me that "Religious services have been held regularly during the year past. These have consisted of public services in one or more of the larger wards each Sunday afternoon and private services in rooms and with individuals in wards.

"The patients, with hardly an exception, seem to enjoy these services greatly. The Chaplain is often accosted on the street by some one who says, 'I remember with pleasure the service held in our ward while I was a patient.' Volunteer choirs have taken their turns in furnishing the music.

"While the Chaplain is ever most willing and ready to bring the consolations and cheer of religion to all, he has carefully refrained from imposing himself upon any to whom he might be unwelcome.

"By the addition of so many new rooms and wards to the hospital the number of patients, nurses, officers and orderlies, to say nothing of the servants, has been so increased that, in the near future, some change seems necessary so that the spiritual needs of all these may suffer no loss."

If the time and strength were given me, I would like to say something more at length in regard to the liberal gifts of two women, that have made these improvements in the Hospital possible, and to point to it as an example to others, that might be followed for the further enlargement of this good work, and the wise use of this world's riches, given to them as servants and trustees of their Heavenly Father.

But I must leave this subject at present, feeling sure that it is an example that cannot be without its influence on other hearts in some way or another. We have in the Good Samaritan Hospital, an institution for the sick—for those "well to do" and the poor and needy—that would be a credit to any Diocese in the country, and while we are most grateful to those few of our friends to whose liberality we owe so much, we still have the courage to say to others—"Go thou and do likewise."

On Tuesday evening of this week the class of trained nurses for this year, numbering 15, received their graduating diplomas, thus giving the Hospital an additional band of earnest, well-qualified helpers in this important and honourable work.

The Children's Lenten Offering.

Our Sunday School Lenten Offering this year, together with the returns from the family boxes amounted to $787.50. We have in round numbers 1500 Sunday School children, and this makes a per capita offering of 52 cents, which considering the number of vacant churches and missions, is a very creditable record, and I am very grateful to the Clergy and teachers through whose interest and efforts this good sum was secured. If the 420,000 Sunday School children in our whole church give at this same rate, they will make up the grand sum of $218,400. I mention this in no spirit of boastfulness, for we might have done better still, and I hope will do so next year, but it is a result every way encouraging, and shows what will come of an earnest, united effort, every school in the Diocese taking a willing share, through the zealous lead of their rectors and teachers.

The most of these confirmations have been performed, as you know, by my kind hearted and obliging neighbors—the Bishop of Olympia and the Bishop of Spokane. Bishop Wells taking those east of the Cascades as far as Sumpter and Baker City; and Bishop Keator going as far south as Marshfield and Empire City, a journey going and coming of just about 500 miles. I am deeply grateful to these my brother Bishops, for this service so cheerfully rendered, and am sorry that I can give them no proper return.

I should add to this, that I have received from Portland friends of our Kindergarten School and All Saints' Mission, special contributions, amounting to $337.00. $80.00 through the King's Daughters and Trinity Auxiliary, and $257.00 from individual friends of this interesting and important work. Whatever other work comes before us, in these pushing times, it is to be hoped that this Kindergarten will not be overlooked, and these hundred children of the poor, hard working mothers of that district given up entirely to the education to be gotten from the streets.

Under the head of new missionary work, that at All Saints' Mission, in the far northern part of the city, is of a very interesting character, and worthy of particular mention, but like the others can only have brief notice now. Dr. Hope writes me—"Among the many encouraging fields of church work in this city there is one which has not so far attracted the attention of any organized Christian effort—that part of our population living in house boats, or scows along both banks of the river. Here we have a population, with North Portland as the center, of approximately 3000 souls, who are left to do the best they can, as far as religion is concerned. The beginning has been made. We have for two months been holding evening services on one of the large scows moored close to All Saints' Mission, and the interest shown justifies me in asking that this large opportunity be taken as part of the legitimate work of the church in this Diocese. The needs of the work call for a Church Mission launch, which would open up a territory along both banks of the Willamette and into the logging camps of the Columbia river. There are many solitary places along our great water highways which would be gladdened by the visit of such a Gospel ship. "Race Suicide" is not of the scow population. There are large numbers of children always in evidence, although mothers are kept on the alert for mishaps; for many a child takes a plunge into the river without going through the formality of undressing. The youngsters are well behaved and healthy, and offer a splendid opportunity for Sunday School work." This Mission with its five city lots, a fine church, comfortable rectory, kindergarten rooms, gymnasium and library of over seven hundred volumes, all paid for and with $1500 as the beginning of an endowment, represents "a plant" every way worthy of special care and cultivation, in our city work, and well worthy of the interest and liberal support of the business men, specially in the northern part of our city. Dr. Hope, still not content with this field has been induced to extend his missionary efforts outside of the city, and has taken up the work of reviving the decaying parish at the town of Woodburn in the Willamette Valley, 17 miles this side of Salem. He has been visiting that neighborhood and proposes to give them services one Sunday in every month. He writes me that the Woodburn church building is in good condition, that the people are by no means ready to give up the work, and that there are members in the country districts who are just becoming interested again. With Woodburn as the centre, we have a fine field for a clergyman, taking in a radius of ten miles, with the towns of Silverton, Mount Angel, Hubbard, Aurora and Canby. Dr. Hope has found ten communicants at or near Woodburn, and others within the district mentioned have been reported to him. When the City Clergy undertake this kind of work in the neglected country regions lying all about them, they are illustrating the spirit of the Master, when He said to His hesitating disciples "Let us go into the next towns that I may preach there also, for therefore came I forth."

Passing by the good work going on in various parts of the Diocese, by the brethren lately come to us, of which we hope to hear some particulars at the Sunday evening missionary meetings, I cannot close my address without reference to one subject of some importance that I suppose you expect me to speak of—I mean the election of a Coadjutor Bishop. I have given notice, in a semi-public way, that I should ask the Convention to give me such an assistant, stating that I would surrender to him the entire work of the Diocese, so far as the canons of the church would allow; resigning my salary, and asking only to be allowed the use of the Bishopcroft home, without any charge for taxes, street improvements, etc. I need not remind you that one who has begun his 87th year must well know that this can be an arrangement for a short period only, and that the summons to resign all things earthly will soon come. For that short period, I am quite content to take the obscurity and possible poverty involved, and if the strength be given me, be my Coadjutor's assistant in carrying the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the poor, the sick and suffering—the lost and scattered sheep that have no Spiritual Shepherd.

For your Coadjutor, who will so soon be your only Bishop, let me beg you to seek one who is endowed with the true missionary spirit, and who will appreciate the great opportunities that are before him for forward aggressive church work in this immense Diocese. Beware of the Spirit of Parochialism that is now such a hindrance to this forward work. Let your Coadjutor be one who has a record and reputation for this missionary spirit known and read of other people. You don't want an orator, to attract people by his brilliant, up-to-date sermons; you don't want a learned professor, whose real work is in a Theological Seminary; but you want a man who can influence men by personal contact with them, and who has the Spirit of the Good Shepherd, who followed one wandering sheep until he found it—until he found it—and then brought it back in his own arms to the fold from which it had wandered. How gladly would I welcome such a Coadjutor and surrender to him this promising field. I close this address with some quotations from the speech of a well known layman at the recent session of the Church Congress in the East, that have food for thought for us all:

“The obstacle to our spiritual life is that we are not prepared to accept the consequences of our Creed. We are not willing to follow the Way, to know the Truth, to accept the Life. For the way is the way of sacrifice of self in service of God and our brothers, the Truth is the recognition that God is all in all, the Life is the life hid with Christ in God. And the Church encourages us. The parish and Diocese are more concerned with their material prosperity than with their spiritual growth. The statistics of property acquired, of churches decorated and made comfortable and luxurious till the poor man in his threadbare clothes is ashamed to enter them, are scanned with more interest than the scarcely increasing number of baptisms or confirmations. What parish will not, if it can, more readily spend thousands to improve its music than hundreds to send a missionary to Japan? What parish will not, if the choice is possible for it, prefer a stone church for itself on the best corner in town, to a hospital in China or a school in the Philippines? When the conception of the immortal life of the spirit was most vivid among Christians, when the Christian Church was making its greatest and most spiritual advance, Christians worshipped in upper chambers or in holes in the ground, and pastors and people vied with each other for the privilege of making the greatest sacrifices of earthly things for the spread of the kingdom of the immortal life. Now, we of the well-to-do and rich laity think it a divine dispensation that the clergy shall make all the sacrifices. We think it unreasonable that they should expect to live as luxuriously, to bring up their children as comfortably as we do. And are there not some, at least, of the clergy who make the sacrifice only because they have to?

“The supreme essential of the spiritual life is reality, the standing face to face with God and looking with Him down through the froth and scum and ripples of mortal life into the glorious depths of eternal truth. But the contemplation of eternal truth can never be merely passive. Every truth is dynamic, and the soul who stands face to face with God, the very Truth, must surrender himself wholly to God, the one great Force."

God grant that you may find a Coadjutor who believes in such truths, and who will have such strength given him of the Holy Ghost that he may carry them to their glorious ending.

Journal
of the Seventeenth Annual Convention

First Day.

Trinity Parish Chapel, Portland, Oregon, Thursday, June 15th, A. D., 1905.

The opening service of the Seventeenth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Oregon was held in Trinity Parish Chapel, Thursday, June 15th, 1905, at 8 p. m. The Rt. Rev. Frederick W. Keator, D. D., Bishop of the District of Olympia, and the Rt. Rev. B. Wistar Morris, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese, were in the chancel, together with 27 Clergy of the Diocese. The Rev. F. C. Williams, of Grants Pass, read the first part of the Evening Prayers; the Rev. H. D. Jones, of Pendleton, the Lessons, and the Rev. G. T. Griffith, of Baker City, the closing Prayers.

After the singing of a hymn, Bishop Morris read his annual address.

Second Day.

Friday, June 16, A. D., 1905.

At 9 o'clock a. m., in Trinity Chapel, the Holy Communion was administered, Bishop Keator, of Olympia, being the celebrant, assisted by Dr. A. A. Morrison. At 9:30 the Bishop of the Diocese, called the Convention to order, and the Secretary of the last Convention called the roll of the Clergy of the Diocese entitled to a seat and vote in this Convention, and the roll of the lay delegates of the Missions and Parishes entitled to representation and a vote.

The Bishop then called to the chair the Rev. D. E. Loveridge, of Eugene.

The Chairman appointed the Committee on Credentials, the Rev. W. S. Short and Dr. S. E. Josephi.

Later the Committee on Credentials made its report, showing that 21 of the Clergy present were entitled to a seat and vote, and that 11 Parishes were entitled to lay representation and vote in this convention. The following presented credentials in form, but the Parishes and Missions being in arrears for Diocesan Convention assessment, under Canon XV, are not entitled to representation: The Dalles, St. Paul's; Salem, St. Paul's; Corvallis, The Good Samaritan; Ashland, Trinity; and Portland, The Good Shepherd.

In the case of the Parish of The Good Shepherd, Portland, the present Treasurer of the Diocese reports that a settlement by the former Diocesan Treasurer was made on a basis of 50 per cent of arrearages then due. Inasmuch as we can find that no authorization for settlement on this basis was made by any Convention, we are constrained to report them as still in arrears, until the disqualification shall be removed by proper authority. As the settlement appears to have been made in good faith, we recommend that this Convention approves and confirms the action of the former Treasurer in the matter of the settlement with the Parish of The Good Shepherd, and that its Delegates be given seats and votes in this Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. W. S. SHORT and

Dr. S. E. JOSEPHI,

The Bishop of the Diocese stated his inability to act as Chairman, and according to Canon, desired the Convention to elect a Chairman.

Report of the Auditing Committee.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon:—

Your Auditing Committee begs to report that we have audited as carefully as possible the accounts and securities of the various Treasurers, whenever practicable checking the receipts as well as the disbursements. After endorsement, the accounts have been returned to the respective Treasurers for presentation to the Convention.

A.

The accounts of Dr. S. E. Josephi, Treasurer of the Board of Hospital Trustees, have been carefully examined and checked with the vouchers, and the Hospital accounts have also been examined and checked.

We have found all kept in the usual careful and methodical manner, with vouchers for all payments, however small, and the statement of securities and investment has also been checked. We find these to be in a highly satisfactory condition.

B.

The accounts of the Treasurer of the Board of School Trustees and those of St. Helen's Hall have been presented in a most businesslike form and have been carefully checked with vouchers.

We have found all correct and have also examined the securities held by the Board and find statements correct.

C.

We have examined the accounts of Mr. Paul Van Fridagh as Treasurer of the Diocese, and find them correct. Vouchers were produced for all payments.

Attention is called to the list of arrears for Convention and Episcopal assessments.

D.

Your Committee has carefully audited the accounts of Mr. James S. Reed, Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergy, and the Bishop Morris Jubilee Fund. We find them correct and vouchers were produced for all payments.

We call attention to the memoranda and recommendations of Mr. Reed as to these funds.

E.

The accounts of the Secretary of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund have been examined and found correct.

The Securities held by the Board have also been examined and the statement is correct.

The condition of this Fund, however, is less satisfactory than that of any other Funds which have come within our notice.

Portland, Oregon, 14 June, 1905.

Report Board of Hospital Trustees, Diocese of Oregon.To the Convention:

On behalf of the Board of Hospital Trustees I beg to report that the Hospital has passed through a prosperous and satisfactory year.

One item of chief interest is the completion of the north section of the new wing of the Hospital building.

This section includes an elevator which brings into practical use the third story of the entire wing, opening two wards, and fourteen private rooms; also a thoroughly up-to-date operating theatre, furnished with the best modern improvements. The generosity of Mrs. C. H. Lewis and Miss Couch have brought about this most satisfactory result, and the new surgery is to be known as "the John H. and Caroline Couch Memorial."

Several notable gifts to the Hospital have been as follows: $5000 under the will of the late Henry Weinhart, and sums of $5000 and $7500 from Mrs. Lewis and Miss Couch respectively.

It is of interest to note that the tract of land near the Columbia Slough bequeathed to the Hospital by the late Governor Pennoyer, has been released to the Board under a Quit Claim deed by the heirs, and that the property is held free from restriction or condition.

It was with deep regret that the Board was forced to accept the resignation of Mrs. Wakeman, who for so many years was the efficient Superintendent of the Hospital and to whose untiring devotion the Hospital owes so much of its success. The Board appreciates Mrs. Wakeman's services, and wishes her the best blessings of health and peace.

Miss Loveridge has been appointed Superintendent and Miss May Welch Superintendent of Nurses, and both have for several months past filled these positions with efficiency and success.

About six thousand dollars have been expended on street improvements.

The retiring members of the Board are the Rev. W. S. Short and Dr. S. E. Josephi.

Two elections are to be made by this Convention to fill these vacancies.

The Treasurer's report is appended hereto.

Respectfully Submitted,

JNO. E. H. SIMPSON, Secretary.

Report of the Committee on the Report of the Board of Hospital Trustees.

Your committee respectfully submit the following:

Resolved, That this Convention extends to the Board of Hospital Trustees and the management of the Good Samaritan Hospital its cordial commendation for their efficient administration of the funds and affairs of the Hospital, pledging ourselves as heretofore to heartily support it by all means in our power.

Resolved, That we hereby especially thank Mrs. C. H. Lewis and Miss Mary H. Couch and other donors, whose liberal gifts have made possible new buildings and the extension of the useful work of the Hospital.

P. K. HAMMOND,
JAMES LAIDLAW,
GEORGE B. VAN WATERS.

RESOLUTION III.

The Rev. Dr. Hope moved that the Rev. J. E. Forsyth, of Astoria, be admitted to a vote in this Convention, and on motion of the Rev. H. D. Chambers the following resolution was adopted.

Resolved, That a special committee of three clergymen be appointed by the Chair to consider Dr. Hope's motion.

The Chair appointed as said committee, the Rev. T. N. Wilson, the Rev. J. E. H. Simpson, and the Rev. John Dawson.

This committee made the following report which was adopted. "We, your Committee on the Resolution that the Rev. J. E. Forsyth be admitted to vote in the Convention, beg leave to report :

That as there appears to be some ambiguity in Section II, Article 5 of the Constitution of the Diocese and the interpretation thereof doubtful, that they recommend that this Convention give the Rev. J. E. Forsyth a seat and vote.

Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon:

GENTLEMEN: The Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund respectfully report:

That we have nothing before us except a financial statement, which we are sorry to say, shows an increasingly unsatisfactory condition of the Fund. This applies to collections of the assessments for deficiencies in the Episcopal salary, to interests and to rents, as well as to the condition of the funds of the Principal Account and the arrearages due at this time to the Bishop.

We note that while the total of the assets is given at the sum of $27,646.97, and that the indebtedness under subdivision C, (which is exclusive of the indebtedness to the Bishop), at $1000, the actual indebtedness is,

To the Disabled Clergy Fund	$ 1000.00
To the principal of the Episcopal Fund (for cash withdrawn to pay a debt to the Disabled Clergy Fund and which the Fund expects to pay back from future assessments).....	1500.00
Arrears due the Bishop to May 31, 1905	1163.17
Making a total of	$ 3663.17

That an examination of the Financial Statement submitted makes it evident that with the limited income derived, and to be derived from the permanent investments, as at present existing, it is impossible to obtain sufficient to pay the stipend of a Bishop.

That we recommend that the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be asked to make a more extended report, dealing with the financial problems of the situation and making such recommendations as their experience in the affairs of the Episcopal Fund suggests, for the guidance of the Convention.

Without such an additional report your Committee feel powerless to make any recommendations that would be of value to the Convention.

REV. W. HORSFALL,
MR. F. SPITTLE,
DR. S. E. JOSEPHI,
Committee.

At the hour of noon prayers for Missions were said by the Chairman.

On motion of the Rev. W. S. Short, which was carried, that the Committee on the Episcopal Fund be requested to report immediately after lunch.

Recess taken for lunch until 2 p. m.

Supplemental Report.To the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon:

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund make herewith this Supplemental Report which conveys in a condensed form the features of the report of the Treasurer of the Diocese, and the Report of the Secretary of this Fund.

Both contain information reflecting the condition of this fund, which, taken together afford a better analysis of the same.

1st. There is due this fund the sum of.....	$3663.17
2nd. Of this there is a balance due the Bishop for salary to 31st May, 1905	1163.17
3d. There is due on note to the Christmas Fund borrowed to pay arrearages growing out of the failure of the Diocese to meet assessments levied	1000.00
4th. There was withdrawn from the principal of the fund to pay the salary of the Bishop and other expenses.....	1500.00

When a man of business is forced to draw principal to pay current obligations it is done under great stress, with the expectation of returning it.

The Trustees of this fund when forced to take their line of action had the same hope, but their hope died when many of the various units in the Diocese failed or refused to support the action of the Convention.

We find that the amounts due and past due for account of assessment are as follows:

Delinquencies prior to 1902 as noted on pages 61 and 62 of the Journal of 1902	$ 1609.95
1902.....	327.06
1903	447.02
1904.....	653.95
Total.....	$ 3037.98

With these figures before you, it can be readily seen that if the above sum was in hand today, the fund would still be short $625.19 with which to pay its liabilities, and make itself whole. Only 54 per cent of the levy in 1904 has been paid, which represents 22 parishes or missions out of a total of fifty-four. While it is true that the Trustees of this fund are the only ones constantly face to face with the difficulties to be met, it is also true that the problem is wholly yours, not ours, and it is one that should be squarely faced and definitely settled if we, your trustees, are to be able to satisfactorily carry on the trust.

We now come to a proposal which, in lieu of any other, commends itself to us, and which we recommend to this Convention as a means of clearing your financial way. Should another assessment be levied this year, and it is presumed it will be, we should receive from that source, based on last year's figures$ 1201.27
Balances due on past assessments 3037.98

It is proposed that each parish or mission through its proper officers, pledge itself to the payment of its respective share of the assessments as now made, and unpaid, as well as the prospective assessment for this year, by executing negotiable notes extending over a period of three years. These notes to be realized on by the several drawers thereof, the proceeds to be paid to the Secretary of the Fund.

This would so divide the whole amount due as to make it more reasonable than any plan that now suggests itself. The sum of $625.19 before referred to, would not be thus provided for, but it should be considered by you in the scheme of rehabilitation. Just at this time the question is of the gravest moment, and it devolves upon you to adopt our plan, or some other method which will secure the same result; nor should you fail to perceive the effect of your action or lack of action upon any man whom you may elect to become the stipendiary of this fund.

In any event our duty is so clearly marked we could not be excused for failure to perform it.

Respectfully Submitted,

G. C. NICHOLSON,

WM. SEYMOUR SHORT,

JAMES S. REED,

GEORGE B. VAN WATERS,

Trustees.

RESOLUTION IV.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Van Waters the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That we go into a Committee of the Whole to consider the Supplemental Report presented by the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention is also tendered to the gentlemen who composed the School Board for the excellent manner in which they have discharged the arduous, and responsible duties of the position, so cheerfully and faithfully given in co-operating with the management of the School in bringing it to its present high state of success and efficiency.

The Rev. P. K. Hammond moved to amend by substituting the following:

To the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon:

MY DEAR BRETHREN: I have now passed my 86th birthday and find it impossible from the infirmities of age properly to perform the duties of a Bishop, and therefore request you to elect a Coadjutor, to whom I will "assign" the entire work and administration of the Diocese so far as the Canons of the Church will allow, resigning my salary and asking only to be allowed the use of the Bishopcroft house, without any charge for taxes, street improvements, etc.

B. WISTAR MORRIS,
Bishop of Oregon.

Second. We realize with profound sorrow, the physical disability which makes this action necessary, and assure our beloved Bishop, who has so devotedly shepherded this flock here on this western coast for nigh onto two score years, of our continued, affectionate sympathy and prayers.

Third—All the Canonical requirements having been complied with, your committee hereby recommend that this Convention proceed to the election of a Coadjutor Bishop, and that this be made the order of the day Saturday morning immediately after morning Prayer.

Signed:

Report of the Committee on Canons.

We, your Committee on Canons to whom was referred the proposed amendment to Canon XV. introduced by the Rev. E. T. Simpson, beg leave to report; That we recommend the adoption of the proposed amendment as far as follows: "and any Parish or Mission so failing to pay its assessment for the Convention Fund or its assessment for the Episcopal Fund, for more than one year, shall not receive financial aid from the Diocesan Board of Missions."

WM. S. SHORT,
UPTON H. GIBBS,
Committee.

The whole matter relating to the proposed amendments to Canon XV. was laid on the table, by the action of the Convention.

RESOLUTION XII.

On motion of the Rev. W. S. Short the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Convention be instructed to have printed on a separate page of the Journal, and in prominent type, the notice of the General Clergy Relief Fund.

Also to cast the ballot for all the members of the old Board of Missions. And also to cast the ballot for the two retiring members of the Board of School Trustees, the Rev. P. K. The following is the Report of the Special Committee to ascertain and report amount of deficiency on account of the Episcopal Fund, which was received and placed on file.

Prior to 1899 $2500, from the principal of the Episcopal Fund, was devoted to deficiencies on the Bishop's salary. That $2500 still stands due the principal fund.

On the salary fund of the Bishop there was due on May 31, 1905, $1163.17. To pay the same there was available from the pledges made to-day, $1956.25; cash, $500. Total, $2456.25.

Therefore from this source the Bishop can be paid in full to May 31, 1905, and the surplus of $1293.08 will go towards the re-constitution of the principal. There will still remain due to the principal fund $1206.92.

No provision has been made for the payment of the Bishop Coadjutor's travelling expenses, or the rent of a domicile for him.

Secondly, as regards the Episcopal Fund, the action of the Convention thus far has so well dealt with the matter of the deficit, and the various Parishes having stated how much they are able and willing to pay, we your Committee, feel that they have no further recommendations to make; but in regard to the coming year we feel that the necessity is exceedingly urgent for the Episcopal Fund to be amply supplied with sufficient funds in advance to meet all demands, and we therefore strongly urge upon all Parishes and Missions to follow the example of those who have already signified their intention of paying their assessments for 1905 as soon as the amount is levied.

APPENDIX A.

Report of the Board of School Trustees, Diocese of Oregon, June, 1905.

To the Seventeenth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Oregon:

The Board of School Trustees hereby submits to the Convention its report for the fiscal year ending May 31, 1905, with the following statements attached:

Report of Treasurer.

Ledger Balances, May 31, 1905.

List of Securities.

Report of Treasurer of Special St. Helen's Hall Fund.

Report of Sister Superior of St. Helen's Hall.

Acting under the authority of Resolution No. IV. of the sixteenth annual convention of the Diocese, the Board, at its first meeting June 22, 1904, after careful consideration of the finances of the Board and of the condition of Bishop Scott Academy, adopted a resolution suspending the school. Immediate possession of the property was taken and the Board at once assumed control of the affairs of the school. As rapidly as possible all outstanding accounts were collected and all liabilities liquidated, the Treasurer's report in this respect showing the receipt during the year of $853.17 from such collections and from the sale of such small articles of furniture and equipment as could not be used to advantage at St. Helen's Hall and the disbursement in payment of outstanding accounts of the school of $4197.04.

The property remained unoccupied until December 15, 1904, when a three years' lease was entered into with a satisfactory tenant at a monthly rental of $250, with an increase during the period of the Exposition. Looking back upon this decision from the point of view gained by a year's experience the Board is more than ever convinced of its soundness.

The condition which met the Board at its organization was not only embarrassing but absolutely critical.

A mortgage indebtedness of $60,000, drawing interest at 6 per cent. with taxes, insurance, street improvements and other items brought the fixed charges to $5400, with a gross income of but $2150, leaving to be faced an annual deficit of $3250.

Bishop Scott Academy and St. Helen's Hall had left behind a legacy of $7452.77 in current debts. Foreclosure of mortgages for default in interest and attachment of the property in suits by tradesmen for bills, in some cases several years in arrears, might any moment have brought on a crisis. At a forced sale of the properties the sacrifice of values would have been enormous and even the St. Helen's Hall property might have been swept away.

When the Sisters of the Community of St. John the Baptist assumed charge of St. Helen's Hall, July 1, and a thorough examination of the property was made with them and at their request by a special committee of the Board, the building was found to be in a very poor state of repairs and in a very unsanitary condition. The roof required an almost entire reshingling and repainting; the plumbing throughout was unsanitary. There was no fire protection of any sort and upon the urgent request of the Sister Superior and the more urgent demand of the Fire Department, it became necessary to install an adequate system of fire escapes. A minor item but one worthy of note was an accumulation of several tons of ashes and debris in the sub-cellar, the removal of which involved an expenditure of about $200, and the presence of which might at any time have been a fertile source of disease. This renovation and repair involved an outlay of $3075.57, every item of which was carefully inspected and audited by a special committee of the Board.

The problem to be solved and solved correctly was therefore the immediate raising of about $14,000. An increase in the mortgage indebtedness would only postpone the date of settlement and cast additional burdens upon the successors of the present trustees; besides the property was already mortgaged to its full limit.

In addition the Palatine Insurance Company was about to retire from business in the state and was urgently pressing for payment of the principal of its loan on St. Helen's Hall property, already long over due. Under all the circumstances but one solution was obvious, the sale of a portion of the property under authority of the resolution of the Convention. Steps were accordingly at once taken to place it upon the market.

Property aggregating $48,747.90 has been sold during the year as follows: Trinity block, Seventeenth and Washington, $34,250; old St. Helen's Hall building, 12th and Main Sts., $6500.; 40 feet on Washington Street above Nineteenth, $4041.; one lot on Everett Street below Twentieth, $3250, and $806.90 balance from sale of forty-six feet on Twentieth to Frances A. Gill.

In explanation of these prices the following facts should be noted: The property known as Trinity Block was acquired from Trinity Parish upon exchange for 200x260 feet on the corner of 19th and Everett Streets, the site of the new church. This piece contained seven lots 50x100 similar in every respect to the lots sold during the past year for $3250 each, one corner lot and two inside lots 60x100, worth $4000 each or a total for the ten lots of $34,750. Thus allowing but $500 for commissions and for opening and improving a street to give an outlet to the three inside lots, these lots were actually sold to Trinity Parish at their exact retail market value. The St. Helen's Hall building at Twelfth and Main was very old and in urgent need of repairs to render it habitable. These repairs would have cost some $2000, and funds were not available. It was therefore decided to dispose of it to the best of several bidders at a figure which allowed about $1500 for the building. The forty feet on Washington was sold at $100 per front foot, or exactly the figure at which the eighty feet adjoining on the West was sold some three months later after being in the market two or three years. The lot on Everett Street was sold at the price at which the property had been held during the past year, and was at the date of sale slightly above the quotation of similarly situated property in the vicinity.

From the proceeds of these sales the Board, besides liquidating the indebtedness of Bishop Scott Academy and St. Helen's Hall and making the repairs to the St. Helen's Hall building, has reduced the mortgage indebtedness by $31,883.85 and the bonded indebtedness for street improvements by $1601.09.

This leaves the mortgage indebtedness at $20,000 and bonded indebtedness at $310.41. Both these items bear interest at 6 per cent., the annual interest charge for the next fiscal year being, therefore, reduced to $1218.60. This, with taxes, insurance and all other fixed charges, can easily be met by the income received from the lease of the Bishop Scott Academy property.

The Twentieth Street cottages pay a net rental amply sufficient to carry the annual charge for five scholarships at St. Helen's Hall. The sum of $1020 has been expended in improvement of streets and sidewalks, over $400 in excess of the estimates, and it is believed that, with the exception of the assessment for Tanner Creek Sewer, which has just been levied, the Board will for several years have to meet a few special assessments for improvements.

Preliminary arrangements have been made to dedicate, open and improve a street from Everett to Washington through the old Academy campus. It is proposed that this street shall be known as Trinity Place. Ten lots of very desirable property will thus be placed upon the market, the sale of which should more than extinguish all indebtedness, leaving the block occupied by the Academy building intact as the nucleus of the fund for the re-establishment of Bishop Scott Academy when that step shall become desirable.

The condition of the accounts of Miss Eleanor Tebbitts, formerly principal of St. Helen's Hall, has been disappointing to the Board. The total liabilities of the school were reported to the Board and to the Convention at $2931.31. The amount actually paid out in the liquidation of these liabilities was $4804.73, $1549.00 by the former principal prior to July 1, 1904, and $3255.73 by the Board—a discrepancy of $1973.42. Of the accounts due considered good, reported at $3877.22, the former principal collected $1196.25 and the Board $1248.75, making a total of $2445, leaving uncollected and almost entirely uncollectible $1432.22. Of the accounts due considered bad and doubtful, reported at $2630.74, the Board have by persistent effort been able to realize $314.75. The balance, $2315.99, is practically uncollectible.

The Secretary has closed out these balances to profit and loss, although effort will be made to realize something from them from time to time. The apparent gain shown by the statement of the former principal is thus entirely eliminated by the correction of the total of liabilities and by the charging off of bad accounts.

In presenting the first annual report of St. Helen's Hall under the new management the Board desires to record its very high appreciation of the excellent management of the Sister Superior and her associates. They have entirely overcome strong opposition and prejudice by their unselfish devotion. We are proud and grateful for the honorable position which our school has won. The record of this their first year is most remarkable, not alone because of a high standard of scholarship and the most admirable behaviour of the students, but also because the business affairs have been conducted so successfully that no debt remains unpaid. The future of the school was never so bright.

JOHN K. KOLLOCK, Secretary.

St. Helen's Hall has had during the year 1904-5, an enrollment of 158 pupils. Of these 36 have been resident pupils, 91 day pupils in the Academic and Elementary Departments, 8 special pupils in Music, Art or Elocution only and 23 little ones in the Kindergarten.

The Kindergarten is a new department this year, and seems to be appreciated by both parents and children. The little boys must leave us at 7 years of age, but we hope that little girls, who begin their school life in the Kindergarten, may pass into the Primary Department and remain at the Hall until graduation.

The Graduating Class consists of 18 pupils—16 in the regular course and 2 in the Kindergarten training course.

Two of our graduates expect to enter college in September (one Bryn Mawr, one the State University at Eugene.) Eight of the others hope to return to the Hall, one to teach in the Kindergarten and seven for Post Graduate work.

The Hall is prepared to offer Post Graduate courses equivalent to the first and second years of College work, and we think it likely that many girls, both our own graduates and those of other schools, will take advantage of the arrangement as it becomes generally known.

Of our 36 resident pupils 27 have been from our own state, 6 from Washington, 2 from Montana and 1 from Canada.

We have found all our pupils girls to whom God has already given much, physically and mentally, and who only need the opportunity for thorough education and Church training to develop into noble womanhood.

We most fitly end this statement by expressing our grateful thanks first, to God, who has called us to this most blessed work, and next to all who have helped us in it during the past year; to our dear Bishop for his unfailing kindness; to our Chaplain, the Rev. W. A. M. Breck, for his regular ministrations; to the various other Clergy, who have so willingly held services for us; to our physician, Dr. Holt Wilson, for his kind and prompt attention to all our needs; and to our Board of Trustees, especially the Rev. A. A. Morrison, who have been our firm support during this our first year in Oregon.

THE SISTERS OF ST. JOHN BAPTIST.

APPENDIX B.

PORTLAND, OREGON, June 16th, 1905

To the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon:

Herewith find Treasurer's report for year 1904 and 1905; also statements showing delinquencies to the Episcopal Fund and to Diocesan Assessment on June 2nd, 1905, part of which has since been paid.

The Diocesan Assessment owes a balance of $100.00 upon a note given the First National Bank to pay the printing bill of the Journal and owes the Bishop 73.20 for moneys advanced. The Treasurer will require some $350.00, less cash on hand $120.00, to meet the current year's expense, and it will be necessary to assess the Diocese some $400 to meet these obligations. The Treasurer finds that most of the old delinquencies to the Diocesan Assessment are due to an agreement by the former Treasurer to accept half of the assessments, but there seems to be no authority for this.

The Treasurer would therefore suggest that a motion be made and passed cancelling all delinquencies to the Diocesan Assessment prior to 1903.

The Treasurer also requests that the Secretary of the Diocese be made a member of the Board of Equalization, which is hampered in making a just assessment from lack of knowledge regarding the Parishes and Missions in the Diocese.

Respectfully yours,

PAUL VAN FRIDAGH,

Treasurer.

LADD & TILTON, BANKERS,

PORTLAND, OREGON, June 5, 1905.

Mr. James S. Reed, Treasurer,
Sherlock Building, City—

Dear Sir:

This is to certify that, at the close of business May 31st, 1905, our books showed a balance to the credit of "B. Wistar Morris Jubilee" of $1501.89. There was no change whatever in this account during the past year.

Yours respectfully,

LADD & TILTON.

No change has taken place in the amount of this Fund since my last report. While it is true that I have represented this fund as Treasurer, in making its reports, in reality I have been only the channel through which pledges have been paid for deposit with Ladd & Tilton.

Wishing to be relieved of further connection herewith, it is recommended to the Convention that a Treasurer be elected to care for and invest this fund together with such other funds of like interest as may come into his possession. It is also recommended that said Treasurer be instructed to confer with the undersigned relative to the outstanding pledges to the end that those actually valueless may be written off. Efforts during the year to collect same failed of any response.

Treasurer.

ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting of the Oregon Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions was held in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Portland, on Thursday, June 15th.

The opening service was at 10:30 a. m. The Holy Communion was administered, Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Olympia being the celebrant, assisted by the Rector, Rev. John Dawson. About one hundred received. The address was made by the Rev. Henry Dixon Jones, of Pendleton. It was full of the lessons of Ascension and Whitsuntide and the individual responsibility of obeying our Lord's last command, "Go ye;" and was listened to with profound interest and attention. The offering was $19.70.

At the close of the service the Diocesan Secretary organized the meeting. The Rev. Mr. Dawson made a most gracious and cordial address of welcome, making them feel that it was an honor to entertain them.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and the roll called. Seventeen branches, Junior and Senior, were represented by about 75 delegates. At 12:30 the congregation repaired to the Guild Hall, where a fine lunch was served by the ladies of the parish.

At 2 o'clock the afternoon session convened. The 672d hymn was sung, and prayer said by the Rector. Reports from all parochial officers present were read, and from the Diocesan Secretary and Treasurer a summary of all work done. She spoke of the missionary work of the church as being God's own work and worthy of our best thought and action. She spoke with encouragement and hope for the future, and said that she was glad to record real growth and progress in some branches, evidenced by a better attendance at the meetings, more interest and enthusiasm and larger offerings. She spoke of the three special objects for work, the Auxiliary apportionment, the U. O. of 1907 and Diocesan missions, and urged the officers to see to it that their branches work along missionary lines only, ever remembering that we are an auxiliary to the Board of Missions, with all the responsibility the name implies. She urged the importance of united study as a source of development in Auxiliary life; also Quiet Days for the fostering and increase of a deeper spiritual life that makes the service of God first and beyond all others.

Addresses followed from Rev. C. H. Lake, of Roseburg; Rev. H. D. Chambers, General Missionary; Rev. Dr. Hope, of Portland; Rev. Mr. Lee, of Salem, and the Bishop of Olympia, whose stirring and heart-searching words left a glow of enthusiasm and conviction on all that heard them. Mr. Dawson referred with tender regret to the enforced absence of our beloved Bishop, on account of physical weakness, and said it was the first annual meeting he had ever missed.

After the customary resolutions of thanks the 580th hymn was sung and the benediction said by the Bishop of Olympia and the annual meeting adjourned.

The Secretary of the last Convention called the roll of the Clergy of the Diocese entitled to a seat and vote in this Convention.

Twenty five Clergy answered to their names. Question as to the right of the Rev. J. E. Forsyth to a seat and vote was referred to a special Committee, the Rev. P. K. Hammond, the Rev. B. G. Josephi as a Committee on Credentials.

At the hour for lunch a recess was taken until 2 o'clock.

At 2 o'clock the Convention reassembled.

The Committee on Credentials reported thirteen Parishes as entitled to seats and votes. Three Parishes and two Missions were reported irregular as to date, but were afterward admitted. In the matter of the alternate delegate to represent St. Stephen's, Portland, in the absence of Mr. Geo. C. Burton, delegate elect, your Committee are of the opinion that each Parish, Chapter or Mission is the sole judge of its own representation. The certificate of St. Mark's, Hood River, was irregular as to date and delinquent for more than one year in the payment of the Convention Assessment.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. SEYMOUR SHORT,
DR. S. E. JOSEPHI.

St. Mark's, Hood River, paid up its back assessment, and the delegate was seated.

We, your Committee to whom was referred the question of the right of the Rev. J. E. Forsyth to a seat and vote in this Convention, beg leave to report, that in our opinion he is not entitled to a vote under the provisions of Article V of the Constitution. We recommend, however, that the Rev. Mr. Forsyth be given the customary courtesy of a seat in the Convention without a vote.

We hereby send our sympathy and love to California; assure the Bishops and all the people of our fervent prayer that God may speedily rebuild the ruined Churches, and strengthen the Church's work.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon, Gentlemen,

Your Committee, to which was referred the report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund respectfully report that we have considered in connection with the written report submitted to us the verbal explanations and statements of the Secretary.

Your Committee notes with pleasure that the collections from Episcopal assessments is $620.40 in excess of the assessment for the current year. The increase in receipts from interest and rents to the sum of $3136.58 is most gratifying.

Your Committee is advised that all invested funds are in satisfactory condition except the loan reported as "loan per Ladd and Tilton," but which is really a loan to the Misses Rodney, which is not sufficiently secured and upon which no interest has been paid since the loan was made in 1899.

Your Committee recommends that some definite steps be immediately taken by the Trustees of this fund looking toward the prompt collection of this note or its proper security.

If the real property in Smith & King's addition can be converted into cash at the figure reported, as it seems very probable, and the note, herein above referred to can be regarded as worth its face value, the principal account will be restored to its full value of $32,000. In general your Committee finds these funds in much more satisfactory condition than for many years.

A. A. MORRISON, Chairman,
HORACE D. RAMSDELL,
JOHN K. KOLLOCK,
Committee.

On motion, the Report of the Special Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. W. S. Short it was resolved to adjourn to meet again at 8 p. m.

At the hour appointed, 8 p. m., the Chairman called the Convention to order, and after some discussion, almost immediately took a recess, to meet the next morning at 9:30.

Third Day.

Saturday, June 16th. A. D. 1906.

At 9:30 the Convention again assembled in Trinity Parish House and was called to order by the Chairman, Dr. Geo. B. Van Waters.

Upon request, the roll of the Clerical and Lay Delegates, was called by the Secretary, and a quorum was found present.

The Chairman read a telegram from the Bishop Elect as follows: "Warm thanks for kind telegram. Will reply at earliest moment to letter of Committee. I ask for your prayers. CHARLES SCADDING." The Chair immediately bid the Convention to prayer.

To the Convention,

On behalf of the Board of Hospital Trustees of the Diocese of Oregon, the undersigned begs to report that the Hospital has had a prosperous year.

A main feature in the matter of improvements has been the completion of the North Section of the west wing of the new building and the equipment of a splendid surgery as a memorial to John H. and Caroline Couch.

A gift of $5,000 for the endowment of a bed for sailors by Mrs. B. H. Buckingham, in memory of the Late Lieut. Commander B. H. Buckingham, U. S. N., has been paid the Treasurer.

A new laundry has been built during the year. It is constructed of brick, is properly equipped with modern appliances and will be the means of saving the Hospital many hundreds of dollars in the year.

A bequest of $500 from Mrs. Goodwin, of West Lynne, Mass., widow of B. F. Goodwin, formerly a resident of Portland, has been received for the Hospital.

The retiring members of the Hospital Board are the Rev. A. A. Morrison and Mr. Rodney Glisan.

Submitted herewith are the Treasurer's Annual Report, the Chaplain's Report, and the Superintendent's Statistical Report.

JNO. E. H. SIMPSON.

Secretary.

Mr. Chairman,

Your Committee on Report of Board of Hospital Trustees, respectfully submit the following:—We your Committee find that the reports of different officers and managers of the Hospital produce convincing evidence of great success in the financial record, and recommend that this Convention take note of the same and render a vote of thanks for the same.

We desire further to call attention to the donation of Mrs. B. H. Buckingham for endowment of a bed for sailors, and of Mrs. B. F. Goodwin's bequest to the Hospital. We trust that the generous examples of the past will still be heeded.

ROBERT H. BARNES,

BARR G. LEE,

JAS. G. BURNES,

Committee.

On motion the report of the special Committee on the Report of the Board of Hospital Trustees was adopted.

To the Convention,

Your Committee on the Report of the School Board beg to state that the condition of the Board seems to be highly satisfactory; the prospect of being, within 60 days, entirely free from indebtedness, giving ground for that prospect. The repayment to St. Helen's Hall of the money borrowed from the Bruno legacy within this time will realize this desideratum. The recently enhanced values of city property has added largely to the assets of the Board, and the balance when all indebtedness is paid, will leave a splendid sum towards reopening the Bishop Scott Academy.

The splendid work of the Sisters of the Community St. John Baptist deserves the commendation of the Church.

Your Committee recommends the adoption of the Resolution providing for a Separate Board of Trustees for St. Helen's Hall. It is believed that there are persons willing to give gifts of endowment and others offerings for the support and welfare of St. Helen's Hall as a distinct institution, who are unwilling to give such gifts while its interests are in conjunction with those of the Bishop Scott Academy, under one Board of Trustees.

We recommend the adoption of the Report of the School Board.

JNO. E. H. SIMPSON.
H. M. RAMSEY.

On motion the report of the Special Committee on the Report of the Board of School Trustees was adopted.

We, your Committee, to whom the Report of the Secretary of the Board of Diocesan Missions is referred, reports as follows:

First. We are heartily thankful that the Board of Diocesan Missions is at last a living organization.

Secondly. We would recommend that the Missionaries receiving appropriations from the Board of Diocesan Missions, report to the Board of Diocesan Missions quarterly, such report to state the progress of the work.

Thirdly. We recommend that every Missionary receive at least the sum of $840, and legitimate traveling expenses, per year as stipend, and the use of a rectory where there is one.

Fourthly. We recommend that the Board of Diocesan Missions apportion the amount necessary for the maintenance of the work among Parishes and Missions upon the same basis used by the Board of Equalization in making the Convention and Episcopal Fund assessments.

Fifthly. We recommend the passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved, that it is the sense of this Convention that the Board of Diocesan Missions hold the title to all the property of Churches and Missions not organized Parishes.

Resolved, that it is the sense of this Convention that the Board of Diocesan Missions be custodian of all funds for Diocesan Missions not placed under the special control of the Bishop of the Diocese.

(Signed) CLARENCE H. LAKE,
JOHN DAWSON.

On motion the report of the special Committee on the Report of the Secretary of the Board of Missions, the first, second and last sections were adopted, the third and fourth sections were postponed until the next Convention and the fifth section was stricken out.

*To the Eighteenth Annual Convention
of the Diocese of Oregon,*

Your Committee upon the Christmas Fund for Infirm and Disabled Clergy, beg leave to report that they have examined the Report of James S. Reed, treasurer, and find the Report incomplete, in several particulars, owing to the enforced absence of Mr. Reed in San Francisco, for which reason it seems expedient to receive and file the Report without any special action, and your Committee so recommends.

R. J. SLATER,
F. C. SELLWOOD,
Committee.

On motion, the report of the special Committee on the Report of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergy, was adopted.

On motion the Report of the Board of Equalization was adopted.

The Sunday School Commission made its Report as follows which was adopted:

The Commission beg leave to report that seeing the Convention has elected a Bishop for Oregon who has had large experience in Sunday School work, we deem it advisable to await his coming before taking any action.

E. T. SIMPSON,
P. K. HAMMOND,
JOHN DAWSON,
Committee.

We, your Committee appointed to ascertain the usage in this Diocese as to the use of the word "communicant" in the gathering of statistics, beg leave to report that the Clergy of the Diocese are very much divided as to the meaning of the word, but a majority seems to regard a communicant as one who communes at least once in the year.

W. R. POWELL,
JOHN DAWSON.

On motion, the Report of this Committee was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. Wm. S. Short, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, that a Committee of three Laymen be elected by this Convention to have authority to devise ways and means of interesting the laymen of Oregon in the Men's Thank Offering to be made at Richmond, Va., in 1907.

The Chair appointed as such Committee James Laidlaw, of Portland, Frank Spittle, of Astoria, and Judge Hailey, of Pendleton.

Report of the special Committee on the Revision of the Canons:

Resolved, that Canon II, Section 1 be amended as follows: Strike out "Sec. 7 of Canon XIV, Title 1," and insert "Canon XIV, Section 4."

In Canon IV, Section 2, strike out "Section 3, Canon XV, Title 1," and insert "Canon XLVI, Section I [II]."

In Canon VI, Section 1, strike out "Section 5, Canon XIV, Title 1," and insert "Canon XV, Section III." In Canon VI, Section 4, strike out "Section 5, Canon XIV, Title 1," and

"Sec. 1, Canon XVII, Title 1," and insert "Canon XV, Section III."

In Canon XII, Sec. 10, strike out "Title 2, Canon V, Sec. 5," and insert "Canon XXXV."

That article VII, of the Constitution be amended so as to read "Bishop Coadjutor" instead of "Assistant Bishop" in both places where these words occur.

P. K. HAMMOND,
WM. SEYMOUR SHORT,
J. E. H. SIMPSON.
Committee.

Your Committee on Constitution and Canons, recommend that the resolution of Rev. John Dawson, amending Canon XV, be adopted, to wit, that the Board of Equalization shall make such annual assessments as are necessary for Episcopal Fund and Convention expenses as may seem equitable and necessary, and that any parish and mission neglecting or refusing to pay any assessment levied by this Convention, shall be denied lay representation in this Convention until such be paid. The same to take effect immediately after this Convention. Also that the Resolution of Rev. F. C. Williams to amend Canon XIII, Section 2, be adopted; to wit: To amend Canon XIII Section 2, by substituting the words: "That the members of such Mission contribute not less than six hundred dollars ($600), per annum to the support of a Clergyman."

The Resolution of the Rev. H. D. Chambers to amend Canon XV, has been withdrawn.

J. E. H. SIMPSON,
W. R. POWELL,
P. K. HAMMOND,
Committee.

The Rev. John Dawson moved to amend the resolution of the Rev. Mr. Williams, in regard to Canon XIII, Section 2, by striking out the words six hundred, and inserting the words eight hundred and forty, which was carried.

The Report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons was adopted, but must be ratified by the next Convention.

Resolved, that the thanks of the Diocese be and hereby are expressed to Mr. James S. Reed for his valuable services as a member of the Standing Committee for many years past and this Convention regrets that his business engagements rendered his re-election inexpedient.

The following memorial to our late beloved Bishop B. Wistar Morris, D. D., was adopted by a rising vote of the Convention.

IN MEMORIAM

THE RT. REV. B. WISTAR MORRIS, D. D.

The Clergy and Lay Delegates assembled at the 18th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Oregon, hereby express their profound sense of the loss sustained by the diocese in the death of their late esteemed, venerable Bishop, the Rt. Rev. B. Wistar Morris, D. D.

Bishop Morris' memory will remain green for many a year to come. His name is a household word among the pioneer families of the state, in whose homes he oftentimes found rest and refreshment while engaged in apostolic missionary tours over his vast field. Bishop Morris was peculiarly fitted for the work of a pioneer bishop who must be in journeyings often and labours most abundant, besides caring for those things which are without and which come upon him daily, the care of all the churches in his jurisdiction. This is true of Bishop Morris and no fulsome eulogies are necessary to add lustre to his name. Neither would they be acceptable to him, who, when living, heeded not the praise of men, but in sturdy independence stood or fell to his master alone. From day to day, from year to year, throughout his long episcopate he strove to do his duty as it came to him. He sowed, watered or planted as occasion served, seeking only to be found faithful, knowing that in due season he would reap if he fainted not. It was in this spirit he continued his labours, when weighed down with years and the infirmities of age, and with truth it can be said of him:

"Life's race well run,
Life's work well done,
Now comes rest."

We commend him to a faithful Creator and most merciful Saviour. The Lord bless him and keep him. The Lord make his face to shine upon him and be gracious unto him. The Lord lift up his countenance upon him and give him peace forevermore.

And we further pray the God of all comfort to console and uphold his widow and family in this their hour of bereavement.

Resolved, that a copy of this memorial be sent to the daily papers and to the family of the late Bishop.

JOHN E. H. SIMPSON,
UPTON H. GIBBS,
Committee.

On motion of Dr. F. C. Sellwood the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, that the sincere thanks of this Convention be and are hereby tendered to the Rector, Vestry, Choir-Master, Choir, Ladies and Sexton of Trinity Parish for the admirable arrangements made and carried out for the entertainment of this body.

On motion of Mr. H. D. Ramsdell the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, that the members of the Board of Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be requested to change their articles of incorporation (as to the perpetuity of their Board), in such manner as to allow the Annual Convention of the Diocese to elect successors to the members of the present Board, in conformity to the usages and customs of the Convention governing other Board of Trustees, holding and dispensing trust funds of the Diocese.

On motion of the Rev. P. K. Hammond, the following resolution was adopted:

CHAPLAIN'S REPORT.

Board of Trustees Good Samaritan Hospital:

GENTLEMEN—My work as Chaplain has been very much the same for the year just past as it was in preceding years. From its very nature it must be so. On each Sunday services have been held in one or more of the larger wards, and during part of the year additional services on Wednesday afternoon; these supplemented by visits to room patients from time to time. My greatest difficulty has been to find persons, upon whom I could rely, to help with the singing. Many are willing to come occasionally and when perfectly convenient, but are not willing to pledge themselves to attend regularly, even one Sunday in the month. Some few have been found dependable, and to these I return sincere thanks.

The attitude of the officers of hospital has much to do with the influence and success of the religious services, and they have not been found wanting in this respect, but rather far otherwise. Indeed, it seems to me that there has been a growing interest in the religious side of hospital life that is very heartening to the Chaplain, and for which he is most thankful. Some of the medical staff who seemed inclined to look upon him as rather a disturbing, if not retarding factor in the recovery of their patients, now consider him as harmless, if not positively helpful. Also from time to time the spontaneous acknowledgement of some one who has been a patient as to what the services, and personal relations of the Chaplain have been to him, is not without its great encouragement.

I am still of two minds as regards the carrying out of the plans for a Chapel. There are strong reasons why there should be one if only of a small and temporary nature; on the other hand, the present need for all available room for patients seems to make it advisable to await the long hoped for rebuilding of the older parts. With the election of a Bishop, this, and other questions relating to the greater efficiency of religious work in the hospital will doubtless find speedy solution.

Respectfully,

W. R. POWELL,
Chaplain.

APPENDIX E.

Report of the Treasurer of Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergy.

To the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Oregon,

Since the date of my last report, May 31st 1905, the cash and securities have been turned over to the treasurer of the General Clergy Relief Fund of the Church at Philadelphia.

June 12, 1905, cash on deposit with the various Banks	$5391.33
1906
Jan. 5, loan to St. David's Parish $5000.00 was remitted together with accrued interest	150.80
May 12, repayment of Episcopal fund loan $1000.00 together with accrued interest	105.75
May 12, repayment of Alstock loan $600.00 with the accrued interest	42.00
May 12, interest on St. David's loan, April 4th, 1905 to July 4th, 1905	75.00

These various payments entirely account for all the funds and securities in the hands of your treasurer at the date of his last report, and the transfer of the Christmas Fund to the general Clergy Relief Fund is now completed. It is impossible to present a memorandum of the various sums contributed by the Missions and Parishes for the Christmas collection of 1905, owing to the fact that the writer has been absent from the city of Portland for the past month. The record of receipts for this account is in his safe at Portland, the accounts, therefore, are not now obtainable but such sums as have been received from this source, have all been deposited with Ladd & Tilton. It will be necessary, therefore, to incorporate the collections for 1905 with the collections for 1906, when that report is made up for presentation to the Convention at its Session of 1907.

I do not think, however, that the sums thus to be accounted for, for the collection of 1905, will exceed those of the previous year.

Respectfully submitted,
San Francisco, Cal., 11 June, 1906.

JAMES S. REED,
Treasurer.

APPENDIX F.

Report of the Treasurer of the Bishop Morris Jubilee Endowment Fund for Diocesan Missions.

On Page 76 of the Journal for 1905 a balance for $1912.89 was reported to the credit of this Fund—$1501.89 being deposited with Ladd & Tilton, the difference being “unpaid pledges.” So far as I have any advices no change has taken place in the report of this Fund since the date of last report, and at that time it will be noted a request was made to the Convention (last year) to elect a treasurer to whom this Fund could be turned over and who would act in connection therewith.

In view of future transactions this request is repeated again with the desire that the Convention take such action in the matter as may be deemed best.

San Francisco, Cal., 11 June, 1906.

JAMES S. REED,
Treasurer.

APPENDIX G.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon,

Your Auditing Committee begs to report that Mr. J. C. Robinson was unable, from illness, to take part in the audit of the accounts and securities of the various Treasurers. These we have audited as carefully as possible, checking receipts as well as disbursements wherever practicable.

A.

The accounts of Mr. Paul Van Fridagh, Treasurer of the Diocese, have been examined, checked and found correct.

B.

The accounts of the Secretary of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund have been examined and are correct. We have also examined the Securities held by the Board, which agree with the Statement. We note an improvement in the condition of this Fund. There are some notes, however, which are of an unsatisfactory character, upon which nothing has been paid for a long time.

C.

The accounts of the Treasurer of the Board of School Trustees and those of St. Helen's Hall, are now kept in a most business-like manner and vouchers were placed before us for every payment. These have been carefully checked and we find the accounts and Statement of Securities to be correct. The accounts of St. Helen's Hall show a very satisfactory state of affairs. As the Board is now selling off part of its property, it is to be hoped that the capital of various special funds, which in the past has been absorbed and used as revenue, will be replaced and the interest only be made available for current expenses.

D.

We have examined the accounts of Dr. Josephi, Treasurer of the Board of Hospital Trustees, and the Hospital accounts, checking all payments with the vouchers, and find them correct. The Statement of Securities and Investments we have also checked and find them to be in a very satisfactory condition.

E.

Although no report has been presented to us of the Bishop Morris Jubilee Endowment Fund, for Diocesan Missions, we have ascertained that there is in the hands of Ladd & Tilton the sum of $1501.89, the same amount that has remained there for some years uninvested. Attention is drawn to the Journal of 1905, page 76. Mr. Reed then requested to be relieved as Treasurer and made certain recommendations as to the custody of this Fund, but no action appears to have been taken by the Convention. The Fund does not appear to have been placed under the control of any Board and some action should be taken by this Convention to place it in the custody of the Board of Missions or otherwise, so that it might become productive.

F.

It is presumed from the Statement made on page 75 of last Convention Journal that the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergy has ceased to exist, and no accounts have been presented to us.

Portland, Ore., June 13th, 1906.

JAMES LAIDLAW,
T. BEVERLEY KEIM,
Auditing Committee.

APPENDIX H.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES

*To the Eighteenth Annual Convention
of the Diocese of Oregon,*

The Board of School Trustees hereby submits to the Convention its report for the fiscal year ending May 31st, 1906, with the following statements attached:

Report of Treasurer.

Ledger Balances May 31st, 1906.

List of Securities.

Report of Sister Superior of St. Helen's Hall.

The last annual report showed a total indebtedness of $20310.41. During the past year the Board has dedicated Trinity place, the grading of which has been greatly delayed by bad weather during the winter, but which is practically completed at the date of this report. The opening of this street placed upon the market eleven lots of an aggregate value, at the prices fixed by the Board, of $40,000. During the months of April and May, six lots have been sold for a total price of $20,750, $5,787.50 of which has actually been received in cash. The mortgage indebtedness has been reduced by $5,000 and from the proceeds of the sales already consummated, the balance will be extinguished. This will leave the Board, within probably sixty days from this date, entirely free from indebtedness for the first time in its history.

A moral if not legal indebtedness from the Bishop Scott Academy property to St. Helen's Hall will then have been liquidated.

Taking into account dividends received October 12, 1900, and July 17, 1902, the Board received as a legacy from Felix R. Brunot, of Pittsburg, Pa., the sum of $36,126.19 for the use and benefit of St. Helen's Hall. As reported to the Convention in 1901, $13,800 was at once applied in payment of the outstanding indebtedness of the Hall. The remainder was temporarily diverted from its original purpose and employed in the repair, betterment, furnishing and maintenance of Bishop Scott Academy. From the proceeds of sales of portions of Bishop Scott Academy property, an additional sum of $15,000 has been applied in the reduction of the mortgage indebtedness of the Hall and by the payment of the remaining $10,000 within the next few months, the entire Brunot legacy will have been applied in accordance with the wishes of the donor and by his benefaction St. Helen's Hall will have been relieved of the burden of a mortgage which at one time threatened to absorb the entire property.

The assumption by the Board of the indebtedness of Saint Helen's Hall under its former management and the repairs and refurnishing necessarily attending the change in control involved an outlay of $10,305.72. The old St. Helen's Hall building at 12th and Main Sts., Portland, was sold in 1905 for $6500, which sale was reported to the last Convention. The Board therefore recommends that the Secretary be instructed to credit the net amount received from the sale of this property against the amount due the Board from the Hall and to charge the balance to profit and loss, thus finally closing the record of the institution prior to the assumption of control by the Sisters of St. John the Baptist.

Assuming then that the money due for lots actually sold and on which first payments have been made, has been applied in liquidation of the remaining indebtedness, the net assets of the Board of School Trustees are as follows: Five lots on West side of Trinity Place, $19,500; three lots on Twentieth Street with cottages, worth $15,000; the block 260 and 200 and building now leased and known as the Glendora Hotel, and worth at present prices with the improvement, at least $60,000 and the block occupied by Saint Helen's Hall, together with some scattered lots of small value. It is the purpose of the Board to sell the remaining lots in Trinity Place and invest the proceeds in income producing securities, the proceeds thereof to be allowed to accumulate as the nucleus of a fund which with the Bishop Scott Academy Block will constitute an endowment fund when the Diocese shall consider the time ripe for the reopening of that institution.

In presenting the detailed Report of the Sister Superior of St. Helen's Hall, the Board begs to congratulate the diocese upon the success of the School under its present management. The bright prospects of a year ago have been more than realized. The second year has been more prosperous than the first. From the current receipts for tuition all expenses have been paid promptly and a reserve fund of $1000 has been accumulated and deposited in the Security Savings and Trust Company as an interest bearing savings account. A remarkably high standard of education and behavior has been maintained. The Sister Superior and her faithful assistants are entitled to the thanks of the diocese for their unselfish devotion to the task which they have assumed and for the success which has attended their efforts.

For many reasons it has become evident to the Sister Superior and to the Board that the interests of the school would be best conserved by the creation of a separate legal corporation to hold the properties and manage the affairs of the school. The Board therefore recommends the election by the Convention of a Board of Trustees of St. Helen's Hall to consist of the Bishop of the Diocese and three clergymen and three laymen and the adoption of proper resolutions authorizing the incorporation of such Board and the transfer to it of all property now held by the Board of School Trustees for the use and benefit of St. Helen's Hall. For the purpose of securing the results of experience and continuity of management, it is further suggested that the present members of the Board of School Trustees and those who shall be elected by this Convention to fill the vacancies created by resignation and expiration of the term of office be elected for corresponding terms members of such Board of Trustees of Saint Helen's Hall.

The Board announces with regret that the Treasurer, Mr. Frederick Townsend, who has served in that capacity for the past two years has found it necessary to tender his resignation as Treasurer and Trustee. It therefore becomes incumbent upon this Convention in addition to the election necessary to fill the vacancies caused by the expiration of the term of office of one clergyman and one layman, to elect an additional layman to serve for two years.

The Graduating Class consists of 8 pupils in the regular course and 6 in the Kindergarten Training Course. Two have been preparing for college, and one or possibly both will return to enter the Collegiate Department of the Hall, which is gradually becoming an established part of its work.

The Music Department has increased greatly during the year, and we hope in another year to begin to graduate pupils in both Instrumental and Vocal Music.

The year has been a happy and prosperous one, full of blessings, for which we desire to express our gratitude, first to the Giver of all good, and next our many and kind friends among both clergy and laity, especially the Rev. W. A. M. Breck, our chaplain; Dr. Holt C. Wilson, our physician; and our Board of School Trustees, and especially Rev. A. A. Morrison.

APPENDIX I.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Oregon :

The Diocesan Board of Missions has held one meeting during the year, at St. David's Rectory, Portland, on May 22, at which time the Rev. J. E. H. Simpson was elected President, the Rev. P. K. Hammond, Treasurer, and Rev. Wm. Seymour Short, Secretary.

After a report of the President of the Standing Committee was read, recommending the Board to borrow sufficient funds to pay the stipendaries, on motion the President and Treasurer were authorized to borrow $2000.00 and to pay the same to the Missionaries of the Diocese, as per agreement by the late Bishop.

The General Board was requested to continue its stipends as before, and to allow the Whitsunday offering for Diocesan Missions to be credited to the apportionment against the Diocese of Oregon.

Mr. S. B. Lintbicum was elected attorney to represent the Board.

The Chairman of the Board and the Rev. Dr. Van Waters investigated the matter of the Incorporation of the Board, and on a visit to the Court House, Multnomah county, ascertained that Articles of Incorporation had been filed, but not recorded, in 1902.

WM. SEYMOUR SHORT,
Secretary.

APPENDIX J.

PORTLAND, ORE., June 12, 1906.

To the Convention :

The undersigned, your Committee on Equalization, beg leave to report :

July 27, 1905, the Committee met at the office of Dr. Josephi, Portland; present, Rev. W. A. M. Breck and Messrs. Ramsdell, Van Fridagh and Josephi. Consideration of delinquencies was had under the resolution of Convention of 1905 (Resolution 21, Page 46, of Journal.)

By action of the Convention, the delinquencies of St. Paul's, Dalles, (Journal 44 and 45) and Good Shepherd, (Journal, 26) were adjusted and disposed of.

It was ordered that the Secretary send out statements to Parishes and Missions delinquent, informing them that (except as to settlements promised in Convention of 1905, as per page 36 of Journal) if any reason exists why assessments are not correct, or if there is any reason that any portion of the assessments should be remitted, to state the reasons and make proposition for settlement, with reasons for basis of such proposition.

It was ordered that the assessment for Convention expenses (including fifty dollars of old debt due First National Bank, Portland,) be fixed at a total of three hundred and twenty-five dollars. The assessment, as made, will be found on pages 109, 110, of Journal, 1905.

Respectfully submitted,

S. E. JOSEPHI,
PAUL VAN FRIDAGH,
HORACE D. RAMSDELL,

SECRETARY-TREASURER

Mrs. W. M. Barker.....1119 Thurman St., Portland.

ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting of the Oregon Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions was held in St. Mark's Church, Portland, on Wednesday, June 13th. The Holy Communion was celebrated at 10 a. m., the Rector, the Rev. John E. H. Simpson, being the celebrant, assisted by the Rev. William S. Short of Astoria. The address was made by the Rev. Dr. Collins of The Dalles. The service was very inspiring, the large body of women present entering into it with fervor and enthusiasm. The offering amounted to $20.25, and was for Bishop Nichols' "Confidential Fund," which is to enable him to provide for those of his Clergy who lost all they had in the recent earthquake and fire. At the close of the service the meeting was organized by the President, Mrs. A. R. Hill. The Rev. Mr. Simpson made a cordial address of welcome to the members, friends and Delegates, and invited them to lunch in the Parish House immediately upon adjournment at 12. The Secretary read the minutes of the last Annual Meeting and called the roll of the branches, thirteen of which were represented by 109 members. The meeting then adjourned for luncheon, which was served by the ladies of the parish and thoroughly enjoyed by all. About 175 persons partook of the hospitality.

At 2 o'clock the afternoon session convened. The 253rd hymn was sung and collects said. Reports followed from both Senior and Junior branches, all interesting and encouraging. The Diocesan Secretary read a full report of work done and money given, and said that it is a great satisfaction that we have exceeded our apportionment of $90.00 for General Missions, as well as the sum we promised Bishop Morris, for work in our own Diocese.

She reminded the officers of their responsibility to see to it that the members of their respective branches clearly understand the purpose of our organization, bearing in mind always that our gifts and our endeavors of whatever kind, belong to the great Mission field of the Church. She spoke of the very great loss to the Auxiliary in the past year and said that Bishop Morris' life was a wonderful exemplification of Keble's beautiful lines:

"Think not of rest; though dreams be sweet,
Start up and ply your heavenward feet.
Is not God's oath upon your head
Ne'er to sink back on slothful bed,
Never again your loins untie,
Nor let your torches waste and die,
Till, when the shadows thickest fall,
Ye hear your Master's midnight call."

Several very interesting addresses followed by the Rev. Mr. Short, of Grace Church, Astoria; Rev. Mr. Lee, of Saint Paul's, Salem; Rev. Mr. Webb, of Cove; and Rev. Mr. Williams, of Grant's Pass. Rev. Mr. Powell made an appeal for aid in the expense of moving St. Andrew's Church.

The announcement that the Bishop of Olympia would not be able to be present to give the closing address was received with much regret.

After the usual resolution of thanks, the 582nd hymn was sung with spirit and the meeting was closed by the Rev. Mr. Ramsey, with collects and the benediction.

Sirs,

Acting under the Bishop's appointment and up to the time of his death under his instructions I have continued my work as General missionary of the diocese. I have opened up work at three new places, and held services at other places where there are no clergy of the Church. Much work calls and needs attention but for lack of funds such work cannot be undertaken at present.

H. D. CHAMBERS,
General Missionary.

The Rev. T. N. Wilson, of Portland, reports one adult baptism and four burials. He has also held 11 Sunday services during the year.
